Edward N. Hambleton of said County comes into Court here in his own proper person, and with the consent of the said Lambert Rearden by his said Attorney becomes pledge & bail for the said Richard Harrington, that if it shall happen that the said Richard Harrington shall be convicted at the suit of the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid, then the said Edward N. Hambleton consents that as well the debt aforesaid, as all such damages, costs and charges, as shall be adjudged unto the said Lambert Rearden in this behalf, shall be made of his body, lands & chattels, and levied to the use of the said Lambert Rearden if it shall happen that the said Richard Harrington shall not pay the said debt, damages costs & charges or render himself to the prison and custody of the Sheriff of the County aforesaid on that occasion —

And thereupon the said Richard Harrington by his said Attorney prays, that the said Lambert Rearden may declare against him the said Richard Harrington in the plea aforesaid, whereupon it is ruled by the Court here that the said Lambert Rearden may declare against him the said Richard Harrington in the plea aforesaid, and if the said Lambert Rearden doth not declare against the said Richard Harrington in the plea aforesaid Judgment will be rendered against him by default, and the said Lambert Rearden by his said Attorney prays leave of the Court here to imparle until the second Monday of November next, to declare against the said Richard Harrington in the plea aforesaid, and he hath it, the same day is given to the said Richard Harrington then and so forth; At which said second Monday of Novr next to wit, in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty, until which day the said Lambert Rearden had leave to imparle, and then to declare against the said Richard Harrington in the plea aforesaid comes as well the said Lambert Rearden as the said Richard Harrington by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the said Lambert Rearden by his said Attorney, declares against the said Richard Harrington, in the plea aforesd as follows, to wit, "Talbot County, To wit, Richard Harrington late of Talbot County Yeoman was summoned to answer unto Lambert Rearden in a plea that he render unto him the sum of Eighty one Dollars and fifty six cents Current Money of Maryland, which unto him he owes and unjustly detains and so forth — And whereupon the said Lambert Rearden by Thomas James Bullitt, his Attorney says that the same Richard Harrington on the thirteenth day of April in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and nineteen, at the County aforesaid, by his certain Bill obligatory, which sealed with the seal of the same Harrington, the same Rearden here into Court brings, the date whereof is the same day and year aforesaid, acknowledged himself to owe and be justly indebted unto the said Rearden in the aforesaid sum of Eighty one Dollars and fifty six cents Current Money of Maryland, for Value of him received to be paid to the said Rearden whenever after he the same Harrington should be thereto required, with legal interest thereon from the date of the said Bill until paid, to the to the payment whereof well and truly to be made and done the same Harrington bound himself firmly by the same bill obligatory. Nevertheless the same Harrington, although thereto afterwards required the said sum of Money or interest or any part thereof, unto the same Rearden yet hath not rendered or paid, but hitherto altogether hath refused and still doth refuse to the damage of the same Rearden Two hundred Dollars Current Money of Maryland, and he therefore brings this &c

And thereupon the said Lambert Rearden by his Attorney aforesaid prays that the said Richard Harrington may answer to the declaration of him the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid; whereupon it is ruled by the Court here that the said Richard Harrington answer to the declaration of the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid, and if the said Richard Harrington doth not answer to the declaration of the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid, and if the said Richard Harrington doth not answer to the declaration of the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid, judgment will be rendered against him by default; and the said Richard Harrington by his said Attorney defends the force and injury when &c saith; and prays leave of the Court here to imparle until the third Monday of May next, to answer to the declaration of the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid and he hath it the same day is given to the said Lambert Rearden then and so forth — At which said third Monday of May next, to wit, in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty, until which day the said Richard Harrington had leave to imparle, and then to answer to the Declaration of the said Lambert Rearden in the plea aforesaid comes as well the said Lambert Rearden as the said Richard

Harrington by their Attorneys aforesaid; and the said Richard Harrington by his said Attorney, as before defends the force and injury when &c saith, and saith that he cannot gainsay the Action aforesaid of the said Lambert Rearden nor but that he owes unto the said Lambert Rearden the aforesaid sum of Eighty one Dollars and fifty six cents Current Money in Manner and form as the said Lambert Rearden above against him hath complained — Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Lambert Rearden recover against the said Richard Harrington as well the said sum of Eighty one Dollars and fifty six cents Current Money his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed as the sum of Six Dollars and fifty cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf said out and expended &c so forth. —

Memorandum. Judgment was rendered in this Cause on the second day of June in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty one for Debt and Costs, by interest from the first thirteenth day of April Eighteen hundred and Nineteen till paid & Costs payments of any to be allowed.
