MATRIMONY.

What is it?—a state of bliss below
Amidst life's tumultuous scenes,
When two kindred hearts together clash
In concord sweet and burn a holy flame—
A sphere through whose enchanting walks
Elysian pleasures sport their wonted rounds,
New beauties flourish, new aspects bright
Incessant rise, till time in rapid whirl
Shall reach his goal—his last period turn.—
What is it but an ever cloudless day—
An ever flowing fount of happiness,
Whose silvery steams roll superior
To all earthly toil.
Happy then, thrice happy, ye sons
And daughters fair in wedlock joined.
All's yours whether of earth or heaven.
Life's even flow with unnumber'd joys,
Your rightful inheritance abundance,
Shall fill your cups.

TO FARMERS.

'Tis folly in the extreme, to till
Extensive fields and till them ill:
The farmer, pleased, may boast aloud
His bushels sown, his acres ploughed,
And, pleased, indulge the cheering hope
That time will bring a plenteous crop.
Shrewd common-sense sits laughing by,
And sees his hopes abortive die;
For, when maturing seasons smile,
Thine sheaves will disappoint his toil!
Advised, this empty pride expel;
Till little, and till that little well.
Of taxing, fencing, toil no more
Your ground requires when rich than poor;
And more one fertile acre yields
Than the whole breadth of barren fields.
Neat be your farms: 'tis long confessed
The neatest farmer is the best:
Each bog and marsh industrious drain,
Nor let the vile balks deform the plain,
No bushes on your headlands grow,
Nor briars a sloven's culture show.
Neat be your barns, your houses neat!
Your doors be clean, your court yards sweet;
No moss the sheltering roof enshroud,
No wooden pales the windows cloud;
No filthy kennels foully flow,
No weeds with rankling poison grow;
But shades expand, and fruit trees bloom,
And flowering shrubs exhale perfume.
With pales your garden circle round;
Defend, enrich, and clean the ground;
Prize high this pleasing, useful rood,
And——with vegetable food.

"DOING UP CONSIDERABLE SLEEP."

'Away out to Missouri,' they live on the primitive system. People sleep as well as eat in companies, and in many of the hotels there are from three to a dozen beds in each chamber. On a cold winter's night, a weary and foot-worn traveller arrived at one of those caravan serais by the road side. After stepping into the bar-room and taking the requisite number of 'drinks,' he invoked the attention of the accomodating landlady with this interrogatory:

'I say, ma'am, have you got a considerable number of beds in your house?'

'Yes,' answered she, 'I rather reckon we have.'

'How many have you about this time that an't noways engaged?'

'Well, we've one room up stairs with eleven beds in it.'

'That's just right,' said the traveller, 'I'll take that room and engage all the beds, if you please.'

The landlady, not expecting any more company for the night, thinking that her guest might wish to be alone, consented that he should occupy the room. But no sooner had the wayfarer retired, than a large party arrived and damanded lodgings for the night. The landlady told them, that she was very sorry—but all her rooms were engaged—true, there was one room with eleven beds in it and only one gentleman.

'We must go there, then,—we must have beds there!' The party accordingly proceeded to the chamber with the beds and rapped; no answer was returned. They essayed to open the door; it was locked. They shouted aloud, but received no reply. At last, driven to desperation, they determined upon bursting open the door. They had no sooner done so, than they discovered every bedstead empty and all the eleven beds, piled up in the centre of the room, with the traveller sound asleep on their top. They aroused him with some difficulty, and demanded what in the world he wanted of all those beds!

'Why, look here,' said he, 'strangers, I aint had no sleep these here eleven nights, so I just hired eleven beds, to get rested all at once and make up what I have lost. I calculate to do up a considerable mess of sleeping—I've hired all these beds and paid for them and, hang me, if I don't mean to have eleven nights sleep out on 'em before morning!'

The following curious statistical details respecting the consumption of Butter, Eggs and Wine are taken by the Mobile Journal from the Penny Magazine.

BUTTER.

The consumption of this article of food in London, is stated to be 16,830 tons or 37 millions of pounds per annum,—besides 4,000 tons for the victualing of ships &c.,—making a total of 21,000 tons or 47 millions pounds, worth at 10d per lb. £1,960,000—280,000 cows are required to supply the London market, allowing 168 lbs. per annum as the average produce per cow, of the butter dairies. The Arabs who call it ghee, drink it in a liquid state, by the cupfull at breakfast and dinner. They are the greatest consumers of butter in the world.

EGGS.

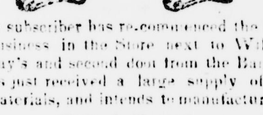

A large number of the eggs consumed in the London market, are brought from France, Germany and the Netherlands. French Eggs cost the English people about 1s 3d per dozen, the duty being 1d per dozen. The importation of eggs from all parts into England, was for the year ending Jan. 5, 1837, 69 millions, yielding a revenue to the Government of 24 thousand pounds sterling. Ireland is also a great egg market—the value for export in 1822 was computed by Mr. Weld, in a statistical work, at five hundred lbs. a day, paid by England to Ireland. But France is the great egg-producer. M. Legrand, a member of the French Statistical Society, made the following statements on the production and consumption of eggs in that country.

In 1813, the number of eggs exported from France were 1 751 140. Between 1816 and 1822, the exports rose rapidly from 8,733 000 to 55,717 500, and in 1834, the number increased to 91,441,300. In 1835, the exports to England were 76,180 120, to Belgium 66,800, to the United States 49 696 to Switzerland 12 600, to Spain 34,800, and to other parts of the world, 326,304. The value of the exports that year was close on to 4 000,000 francs. The consumption of Paris, is calculated at 101,164 400—for other parts of France double this number, and for the whole kingdom 7,231,160 000, which added to the exports, and those preserved for re-production, will make the number of eggs laid in 1835, 7,380,926,000.

WINE.

The consumption of wine in Paris, is estimated at about 20 millions of gallons yearly. The Halle aux vins, the celebrated depot for wine on the Seine, generally contains a supply for two thirds of the year, from 12 to 15 millions of gallons. The consumption of Great Britain is also immense although fifty gallons of beer are consumed to one of wine by the Islanders. The stock of wine in the London docks in 1835, was four millions five hundred thousand gallons, and of foreign spirits 3,600,000, making a total of wine & spirits in bond in London upwards of 8,000 000 gallons. Besides this, the wine in hand in other parts of England, was 6,500,000 gallons, and 2,000,000 gallons in the hands of dealers. The supply in England of wine in spirits was therefore 22,000,000 gallons, which added to stocks in private cellars would make the total quantity ready to be consumed 30,000 000 gallons. This quantity was equal to a three years supply, wine being consumed at the rate of 6,500,000 gallons, and spirit at 4 800,000 gallons a year.

Runaway from the subscriber on Wednesday night, the 23d inst. while at Easton, a mulatto boy named about 18 years of age and five feet, six inches high.

He is rather stout made with a mouth somewhat prominent and particularly so when displeased.—He is well supplied with clothing, having among his other clothes two broad cloth coats, one much worn, with a velvet collar, and the other of some fancy color with bright buttons quite new and a fur hat; but it has not yet been ascertained whether he has taken any other clothes than those worn by him, when he left home, which consisted of a round jacket and trousers with a drab overcoat, and a hair cap. He can both read and write tolerably well, and having a mother now residing in Baltimore, it is probable that he will make his way to that place. His mother's name is SOPHY.

I will give the above reward for his apprehension if taken out of the State, or $100, if taken within the state and out of the county, and $50 if taken in Talbot county, in each case to be secured in the Jail at Easton.

SHINN & SELLERS'

CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS AGAIN TRIUMPHANT OVER DISEASE—SPASMODIC ASTHMA CURED BY THEIR USE!!

Messrs. SHINN & SELLERS.—You are aware that for the last six months I have been in the use of your Pills, though you may not know the complaint for which I have used them.

Some fifteen years ago, being sorely troubled with spasmodic asthma, I was relieved from it by lobelia. Last summer the complaint returned upon me with increased violence, from which I received not the least relief by the use of lobelia.

A friend persuaded me to make trial of your Pills, though, to be candid, I had not much faith in them, for the reason that, from what I could discover, you had not recommended them in asthma. I was however, relieved by them. Still I had a relapse of the complaint. Again I had recourse to the Pills—and now, after a patient and persevering use of them, I feel that I am cured of 'spasmodic asthma.'

Last summer my eldest son, being at Louisville, Ky., was violently seized with the prevailing sickness, congestive fever. Having recovered from it so far to return home: here however he had a violent relapse of the fever. After recovering from it, he began to feel a pain in the region of the liver, which increasing daily seemed to demand prompt attention. Suffice it to say, he was cured by the use of your Pills.

As you have requested of me a 'statement of facts' with respect to the benefit I and my son have received from your Pills, I have given it with a scrupulous regard to accuracy.

Your's, with esteem,

N. RUGGLES SMITH.

A FARM

For Sale.

Will be sold at private sale, a farm containing about 500 acres of land, situated on the New London road, two miles above the Village of Newark, and about the same distance from the lime quarries. About one half of the farm is arable land, which though somewhat exhausted, could easily be put into a good state of cultivation, being of a clay soil. The rest of the land is finely timbered with black oak, hickory, poplar, &c., except about 40 acres of low ground, which, at a small expense, could be made good meadow land. The farm is well watered, the Christiana Creek running through it, and besides, there is a spring of excellent water in every field. The timber on the farm, if sold, would be more than sufficient pay to the purchase money. Also, a SMALL FARM, containing 150 acres, in Chester County, Pa., known as the Price property. If they are not sold at private sale by the 1st day of November next, they will on that day, be exposed to public sale at the house of Richard Jones, Innkeeper, in the Village of Newark.
