of prosecuting an appeal of and upon the said judgment by him the said John W. Glaenes before the said Court of Appeals, whereon that judgment was by the said Court of Appeals in all things affirmed as by the record and proceedings of the said Court of Appeals manifestly appears. — And whereas you were heretofore to wit, on the 10th day of April in the year of our Lord 1821, commanded that of the goods & chattels lands & tenements of the said John W. Glaenes, you should cause to be made levied, as well the debt aforesaid as the damages costs & charges aforesaid: And when you had the same so made & levied, or any part thereof, the same in your custody should safely keep so that you might have the same before the Judges of the Court of Appeals, to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County on the first Monday of June, then next following, to satisfy unto the said William Jacobs, the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid — and that here of you should not fail at your peril, and that you should have then and there that writ. At which day, to wit, the first Monday of June in the year 1821, you made return thereof to our said Judges, that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to you directed you had taken in execution certain lands & tenements of the said John W. Glaenes to wit, "One farm near Church Hill in Queen Anns County" which said lands & tenements remained in your hands for want of buyers. We therefore command you, That you sell or cause to be sold, the said lands and tenements, and every part thereof, and the sum of money arising therefrom, you have before the Court of Appeals to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton, in Talbot County, on the last Monday of November next to satisfy unto the said William Jacobs the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable Jeremiah T. Chase Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court, the 7th day of June 1824. Issued the 30th day of September 1824.

(Pltf.) James Parrott Clk. —

At which said last Monday of November being the twenty fourth day of the said month in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty four, and the return day of the aforegoing writ comes into the Court of Appeals here, the said William Jacobs by his attorney aforesaid; and the late Sheriff of Queen Anns County, aforesaid to whom the said writ, was in form aforesaid directed makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit, "Lands & tenements sold as per special return. Nc Batton late Shff. Queen Anns County to wit, I hereby certify to the Honorable the Court of Appeals, within mentioned, that by virtue of the within writ to me directed, I did on the twenty third day of November in the year Eighteen hundred and twenty four, expose to public sale to the highest bidder, after giving due notice of the time and place of sale the land & premises mentioned in said writ, at which said sale James Troops of Queen Anns County became the highest bidder and purchaser, for the sum of One hundred and three dollars, current money and has since satisfied, the purchase money. The said land so taken & sold is called part of Butlers Purchase, and is contained within the following lines, Beginning at the original beginning of said tract of land, and thence running with the out bounds of said tract, the several courses and distances thereof to the main road leading from S.B. to Church Hill, and thence with said road to the out bounds of said tract, and thence with the same to the first place of beginning containing One hundred and ninety three acres & one fourth of an acre of land. So answer Nc Batton late Shff. —

Attest James Parrott Clk. —

Owen & Longstreth vs. Frederick Holbrook and others.

Be it remembered, that now here on the last Monday of November being the thirteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and Eighteen the Chief Judge and Associate Judges of the fourth Judicial District of the Maryland, in pursuance of the directions of the act of assembly in such case made and provided to amend the court of Appeals here the record of proceedings of a plea which was lately depending before them in the County Court of Caroline between Owen & Longstreth Plaintiffs and Frederick Holbrook Defendant, and wherein the said County Court gave judgment for the said Owen & Longstreth against the said Frederick Holbrook, and from which said judgment the said Frederick Holbrook appealed to the Court of Appeals here the tenor of which said record of proceedings is in form following to wit,

"Caroline County to wit, At a County Court of the fourth Judicial District of the State of Maryland begun & held at Denton in and for the County aforesaid in the second Monday of October in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and in the forty third year of the Independence of the United States of America, Were Present

William B. Martin Esquire Chief Judge
and
The Honorable James B. Robins Esquire Associate
George A. Smith Esquire Sheriff — Jo Richardson Clk.

In the Record of proceedings of the said County Court amongst others were the following to wit,

Owen & Longstreth vs. Frederick Holbrook } Be it remembered that heretofore to wit, on the sixteenth day of September in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, Owen & Longstreth by John Leeds Kerr their Attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the County Court here the writ of the State of Maryland of Capias ad respondendum against Frederick Holbrook directed to the Sheriff of Caroline county in form following to wit,

"Caroline County to wit, The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Caroline County greeting. We command you that you take Frederick Holbrook late of Caroline County gentleman, if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safe keep so that you have his body before the Judges of Caroline County Court, to be held at Denton in and for the said County, on the second Monday of October next to answer unto Owen & Longstreth in a plea of trespass on the case &c. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ, Witness the Honorable William B. Martin Esquire Chief judge of our said court the 8 day of March Anno Domini 1817. Issued the 16th day of September 1817. Jo Richardson Clk. —

At which said second Monday of October in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventeen being the thirteenth day of the said month and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ come into court here the said Owen & Longstreth by their aforesaid Attorney, and the Sheriff of Caroline County to whom the aforegoing writ was in form aforesaid directed makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed, to wit, "Exec. Geo. A. Smith Shff." And the said Frederick Holbrook being called appears in court here by Thomas James Bullitt Esquire his Attorney, and thereupon on motion of the said Owen & Longstreth by their attorney aforesaid it is ruled by the Court here that the said Frederick Holbrook give special bail in the plea aforesaid; whereupon a certain William Jones of Caroline County aforesaid comes here into Court in his own proper person and with the consent of the said Owen & Longstreth by their said Attorney becomes pledge & bail for the said Frederick Holbrook, that if it shall happen that the said Frederick Holbrook shall be convicted at the suit of the said Owen & Longstreth in the plea aforesaid then the said William Jones, consents, that all such damages costs & charges as shall be adjudged, unto the said Owen and Longstreth in this behalf shall be made of his body, lands and chattels, and levied to the use of the said Owen & Longstreth, if it shall happen that the said Frederick Holbrook shall not pay the said damages, costs & charges, or render himself to the prison and custody of the Sheriff of the County aforesaid on this occasion. And thereupon the said Frederick Holbrook by his said Attorney, prays that the said Owen & Longstreth may declare against him the said Frederick Holbrook in the plea aforesaid; whereupon it is ruled by the court here, that the said Owen & Longstreth declare against the said Frederick Holbrook in the plea aforesaid, and if the said Owen & Longstreth do not declare against the said Frederick Holbrook, in the plea aforesaid, judgment will be rendered against them by default; And the said Owen & Longstreth by their said Attorney, pray leave of the Court here to imparle unto the first monday of March next, to declare against the said Frederick Holbrook in the plea aforesaid, and they have it, the same day is given to the said Frederick Holbrook then &c; at which said first Monday of March, being the second day of of the said Month in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, until which day the said Owen & Longstreth had leave to imparle, and then to declare against the said Frederick Holbrook in in the plea aforesaid, comes as well the said Owen & Longstreth, as the said Frederick Holbrook by their attorneys aforesaid, and the said Owen & Longstreth by their attorney aforesaid and pray leave of the Court here further to imparle unto the second Monday of October next and they have it, the same day is given to the said Frederick Holbrook then &c at which said second Monday of October being the twenty fourth day of the said month in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, unto which day the said Owen & Longstreth had leave to imparle, and then to declare against the said Frederick Holbrook in the plea aforesaid come as well the said Owen & Longstreth as the said Frederick Holbrook by their attorneys aforesaid and the said Owen & Longstreth by their said Attorney declare against the said Frederick Holbrook in the plea aforesaid as follows that is to say. "Caroline County to wit, Frederick Holbrook late of Caroline County, gentleman is attached to answer unto Owen & Longstreth in a plea of trespass on the case &c. And whereupon the said Owen & Longstreth by John Leeds Kerr their attorney complain that whereas the said Frederick Holbrook