House, will proceed by the acting Clerk to call the names of gentlemen whose rights to seats are not disputed or contested; and after the names of such members are called, and before they proceed to elect a Speaker, or other officer, or to organize in manner, they shall, provided there be a quorum of such present, hear and decide upon all credentials, certificates, or commissions of persons claiming seats in the House of Representatives, under the constitution of the United States and the laws of the respective States.

Mr. Dromgoole said he had always been ready to give a pledge that nothing should be done after the organization of the House, before the case of the New Jersey members was decided.

Mr. Wise said that he had no distrust of his colleague's pledge. All he asked was a special promise, such as his resolution embraces. Without it, they would be in the hands of a majority. The resolution pointed out the mode of putting an end to the difficulties surrounding the question.

Mr. Cave Johnson made a few remarks inaudible, and then

Mr. Hunt, of N. Y. offered a resolution proposing that a temporary Speaker be at once chosen by the House.

Loud cries 'Object!' followed the reading of this resolution, and some irregular conversation ensued upon its merits.—After which, Mr. Hoffman got the floor and eloquently insisted upon the Clerk calling the names of the members holding the Governor's certificates, and disagreed in toto with the proposition of Mr. Wise to postpone it until the House was organized. The holding of the certificates he considered the only safe mode of testing the validity of a member's claims to a seat. Mr. H. concluded with a powerful appeal to the House to beware of nullyfying the Sovereignty of a State—to do anything rather than establish such a monstrous precedent.

Mr. Graves, of Ky. then presented a resolution proposing that the Clerk proceed in calling the names of the whig members from New Jersey.

Mr. Graves was at a loss to know why a vote could not at once be taken on his resolution embracing a proposition, to which the House must come at last If in its present half-organized state it could vote at all, he was for having a vote on some practical proposition. Mr. G. after appealing briefly to the Southern members to defend the unequivocal assault upon State Sovereignty this question involved, severely commented upon the speech made yesterday by Mr. Weller, in which that member had asserted that it was a question between the people and a State officer. Mr. Weller's scrupulous objections against sitting there beside a member holding only a Governor's certificate, were admirably placed in their own ridiculous colours, as also was his stump ranting about Democracy. That young orator, I think, has had his claws pared most effectually.

Mr. Craig, of Va. followed in a long speech, touching mostly the general merits of the contested seats. In the course of his remarks he alluded to the votes of South Amboy and Milville, and wished to know why they had been cast aside?

Mr. Randolph, of N. J., said that they were rejected because they were illegal and alien, and not in compliance with the statute.

Mr. Craig said that the votes confessedly thrown aside, would have given a majority to the administration claimants, and this was sufficient prima facie evidence of their just titles to their seats.

Mr. Pickens shortly after took the floor. Much interest was manifiested by the House in his remarks, as they were expected to express the opinions of the Southern Van Buren men. He expressed his entire concurrence with Mr. Wise's resolution. It was the only proper course. The first question, after the House is organized, is to decide who has the right. There was prima facie evidence on both sides, one rebutted by the other. They were to decide between them, the House was able to settle the election case, before the election of a Speaker. As to the question of State Sovereignty, he wished gentlemen to see the difference between the authority of a Seal and State Sovereignty. The latter belonged to the People, and not to a State Legislature. Mr. Pickens, in conclusion, said he was not then prepared to state who had the right, but was ready to meet every issue upon it. He was not prepared to go against the popular voice, and he warned gentlemen not to turn it aside with mere technicality, for the people would strangle it. Mr. Pickens' remarks were given with characteristic warmth.

Mr. Barnard objected to Wise's resolution, and insisted upon the propriety of the Clerk proceeding with the call of Mr. Aycrigg and his associates.

Mr. Cooper, of Ga., contended for the perfect right the Whig claimants had to the seats, with whom he expressed a strong sympathy. He fully concurred with Mr. Wise's proposition.

Mr. Stanley, of N. C., hoped Mr. Wise would take a second sober thought and withdraw his resolution; which the latter has declined, and is now (3 o clock) engaged in eloquently defending his resolution, as the best and only thing to remove difficulties.

Half past three o'clock.—Wise still speaking. It is doubtful whether the question will be put on any of the resolutions this evening. I must close this to be in time for the cars.

The Senate consumed a brief sitting upon private bills.

An old Fashioned Marriage Portion.—Capt. John Hall, who was one of the first founders of the old South Church, Boston, Captain of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery, a Representative of the town, and in 1680 an Assistant, was a man of wealth. A daughter of his was married to Major Samuel Sewall. As usual in those days, the father was expected to give his daughter a marriage portion. So, father Hall, after his daughter was completely, and richly too, dressed and prepared for the ceremony, caused her to be put into one side of a large pair of scales, in the presence of her friends, and then piled on dollars and crowns, and other silver money, until they weighed her down. Report says she was a plump hearty girl. This must have been a fat marriage portion in those days.

THE HARRISBURG CONVENTION.

The political interests of our country loudly call for an entire revolution in the Government of national affairs. A system of peculation, conducted by a drivelling, but resolute set of speculators, has been resting its incubus weight upon the commonwealth for the last ten years.—The honest and industrious, but simple-hearted yeomanry of the land, were for the greater portion of this time blinded by warm assurances of patriotic concern and by desperate assaults upon excellent but vilified institutions. The worth of these institutions, if any thing had been needed to attest it, has been fairly unfolded by the miserable and ludicrous legislative and executive abortions, which have been adopted as substitutes. The mantle of hypocrisy and ignorance with which our rulers have been disguising the real condition of the country has lately been rent: and the people are beginning to look at things as they really are. Recent indications of political change, not to be mistaken, are inspiring with new hope, the intelligent well-wishers of the Republic, who had been ready to yield to the fear of a settled state of popular infatuation. Nor are these charges ephemeral. The pertinacity with which New York has sustained its Whig aspect, despite of the giant efforts of government underlings to distort it, proclaims deeper motives, than those of local character. The vast fractional strength of that member of the Union, besides its exemplary influence upon the elections in other States, leaves no doubt as to its immense importance in the scale of future probabilities; especially those of the autumn of 1840, in which the incumbent President of the United States is most deeply interested. Let the enlightened Whigs, who have been selected (by a community beginning to arouse itself from political apathy,) to meet in National Convention, and consult upon the best means of rescuing the nation from its existing thraldom, bear this steadily in mind. Impressed with the deepest conviction that it is indispensable to hew out all that is rotten in the State of Denmark, let them allow nothing to dispossess them of the elevated position they occupy.—With them, under the smiles of heaven, rests the duty of effecting the thorough revolution which the crisis requires.—With them, there is no question of individual partiality. Their object is not to elevate one man, more than another, except, so far as, one man may be better suited than another, to accomplish the high purposes, for which he shall be chosen. Let, them therefore bury every inferior consideration. If they join their strength, and act harmoniously, they must prevail. So far as the probabilities of success are concerned, the inquiry with the opposers of the national administration is not, (among the prominent individuals from whom a candidate will be selected) with whom shall we be most likely to succeed? It is, after the wisest choice may be made, shall we unite and elect him? or, shall we be silly enough to divide our strength and loose our cause?

Correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot.

HARRISBURG, (PA.) Dec. 3, 1839.

The hotels are filling rapidly. Delegates are now here from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri, Mississippi, Alabama, North Carolina, Michigan, Virginia and Louisiana; in all, about one hundred and fifty.—The Maryland delegates present are: Reverdy Johnson, Dr. A. Alexander, R. W. Bowie, R. Goldsborough, ex Governor Howard, J. Moores, and J L Kerr. The nomination is in doubt; but all is harmonious.

A large proportion of the later arrivals of delegates, appear to look towards "Harry of the West;" as to their first choice; and hence there is, so far as the looker on may judge, more of an equilibrium established, as to 'personal preferences,' than existed amongst the earlier arrivals. Hence, I say that the choice of a candidate for the Presidency, by this imposing assemblage, appears to be 'in doubt.' It will, however, be a friendly competition among brethren, for the disignation of their first choice respectively. But the designation once made, the way that the friends of good government will ralty in support of that candidate, will be a caution to the spoilsmen, and other enemies of the public weal.

Our neighbour of the Chronicle, on the other side of the River, complains bitterly of a general dearth—prevailing in his regions—and declares the unkindest cut he ever received was and entire absence of any sweet cuts of Hymens offerings. We truly sympathise with our neighbour—and agree with him in regarding his deplorable—Benedictal estate as the head and front of his offending—as for ourselves—we stand out in bold relief—as a general Beau—Shatterly—and as such our claims are imperious. Holding it neighbourly and brotherly to divide or at least to share with our friend in distress—we can only promise our Typical brother—that so soon as firm footing may be afforded by the strong icy arm of the northern blasts o'er the River to Charley, and he will promise to have his team of four in waiting, we will despatch a cargo of our superfluous-sweetmeets—and bridal morceaus for his especial service and consolation.

CONGRESS.

The National Intelligencer of Tuesday says:—'In the House of Representatives when the House was called to order, although the roll was not called through it was ascertained that every member, save one, of the House was present; a thing without example, and which it is probable will ever remain without a parallel. The absent member was Mr. Kempshall, (Whig) from New York, detained at home by circumstances which no true-hearted man will blame him for yielding to.'

A Washington Correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer, writes that it is said that Mr. Calhoun has a project in hand for relieving the States by the General Government assuming their debts, or some portion of them, and pledging the public lands for the redemption of the debt.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—The special Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Maryland was commenced at the session room of St. Paul's Church, in Baltimore, on Thursday 28th ult. and closed on Saturday, without being able to effect the election of a Bishop. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Doane, of New Jersey is to officiate until the vacancy is filled.

The "Baltimore Chronicle" was sold on Tuesday at auction, agreeably to previous notice, and was bought by the mortgagee and former proprietor SAMUEL BARNES, Esq.

MASSACHUSETTS.

We learn from the Boston Atlas of Tuesday that the Whigs rallied on Monday last, and elected by a large majority twelve Whigs to the Legislature, to fill the vacancies from that city, which had occurred by "no choice." We subjoin all the Atlas has to say.

From the Atlas of Tuesday.

THE ELECTION.

The entire Whig ticket was yesterday elected in this city by a very decided majority over all the opposition that could be brought to bear against it. The day was stormy and the vote was not as large as it would have been otherwise. The following was the vote upon the several tickets

For the Regular Whig Ticket,	4398
For the Loco Foco Ticket	3036
Union Temperance, &c.	472
Whig majority over the Loco Foco Ticket	1362
Whig majority over all	890

The votes for the Union Temperance Ticket were given principally by Whigs All things considered, the Whigs have done very well and exceeded their expectations. The following are the names of the gentlemen elected:—

Franklin Dexter,	Joseph W Revere,
Thomas B. Wales,	Joseph Lewis,
Ozias Goodwin,	Francis J. Oliver,
Theophilus Parsons,	Wm. Lawrence,
Noah Brooks,	George Darracott,
Robert Hooper, Jr.	Jeffrey Richardson,

The whole vote is 7908. At the last election 8634.

The Loco Focos have fallen down to their old vote in the city, about 3000.

Adding the vote of the Temperance ticket to the regular Whig ticket, it will show, after making all allowances, a clear Whig majority of not less than fifteen hundred.

A GOOD HIT.—The following hit at the late election in Massachusetts, which turned upon the license law of that State, is published in one of the Boston papers:

Ship Massachusetts, once so sound,
No more on steady course can jog;
Her crew have left her run aground,
While quarrelling about their grog.

Godey's Lady's Book.

EDITION—25,000—MONTHLY.

More than 60 Figures of Fashions each year

MRS. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY,

Whose name is so intimately connected with the Literature of our country, and who has justly been termed by the contemporary press, The Hemans of America, will assist Mrs. Hale in the editorial department. It is with feelings of the greatest pleasure that the publisher of the Book makes this announcement. The editorial corps will now consist of Mrs. SARAH J. HALE, Mrs. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY, and LOUIS A. GODEY. Mrs. Sigourney will commence her valuable aid with the January number. The Lady's Book has always been noted for the purity of its contents—that marked distinction which characterizes it shall still be preserved; indeed, with such conductors, it will be impossible to go astray.

GODEY'S BOOK,

Has been emphatically termed THE LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE, as it is a receptacle for the contributions of the most celebrated FEMALE WRITERS OF AMERICA, most of whom of any eminence contribute to its pages. For a list of the names of the Contributors, see October cover of the work.

TWENTY VOLUMES have already been issued. It is usual to announce that a small addition only will be published. Contrary to this, the Proprietor of the Lady's Book announces that he will publish AN IMMENSE ADDITION, with which he hopes to supply all those who will favor him with orders, commencing with the January number.

It will be seen by this advertisement that every effort has been made by the proprietor of this work to make it superior to any other in America: and as

A New Year's Gift,

The Lady's Book is probably the most proper that could be desired for Ladies, edited by their own sex, and assisted, as the Editorial Department is, by the Pictorial Embellishments, it is positively the BOUDOIR COMPANION.

There are other publications that advertise FASHION PLATES. The Publisher of the Lady's Book wishes it to be distinctly understood that the principal Fashions in his work ARE COLORED, AND IN EVERY NUMBER, which is not the case with any other work published in this country.

UNCOLORED PLATES OF FASHIONS, also, monthly. This is a novel feature in this work, and as it is no great expense to give plates of Fashions, without Coloring, the Publisher will give from THREE TO SIX FIGURES each month, in addition to the THREE COLORED—this will make in all, generally, about Nine Figures of Fashions Monthly.

LACE PATTERNS
AND
PATTERNS OF EMBROIDERY

Will be published at regular intervals. These beautiful ornaments—particularly the former have given great satisfaction.

THE MUSICAL DEPARTMENT is under the superintendence of J. G Osborne, than whom no person is more capable of doing it justice.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT is placed under the superintendence of Mrs. Sarah J. Hale and Mrs Lydia H. Sigourney; two ladies so well known to the world that to mention their names in connexion with any publication is at once a guarantee of its morality, virtue, and utility. Of their capability to conduct the LADY'S BOOK, it is presumed no person will doubt, and the proprietor mentions with pleasure that no English or American Magazine can publish in connexion with its Literary Department two names so celebrated in the world of letters.

FAC SIMILIES.—A great deal of curiosity is often expressed to see the Chirography of celebrated persons. We shall endeavor as far as lies in our power to gratify this feeling, by giving from time to time correct imitations of the most celebrated Female writers of the day

GENERAL FEATURES.—Literature, Tales, Essays, Legends, Romantic Incidents in History, Extracts from the Old Poets Reviews, Poetry, Female Education, Embellishments, Fashions, Colored and Uncolored, Lace, Embroidery, Fac Similies, Music, &c. &c.

More than sixty Figures of Fashions yearly, colored and uncolored, the Proprietor being determined to consult all tastes. Any embellishments to be found in any other Magazine may be looked for in the Lady's Book.

INCREASE OF SUBSCRIPTION.—In 1838 we published 10 500 copies; during the months of January February and March, 1839, we increased the list to 13,500, and had then to reprint three numbers and increase to 15,000 With the next volume, we advanced to 17,000, and we now print

25 000 Copies Monthly.

Probably the greatest monthly list of subscribers in the world.

OUR READING MATTER is about the same in quantity as any similar production, probably a little in favor of the Book. It would be foolish and false to say that it contains more, and the proprietor is not willing to condescend to such means for my supposed advancement of his interest.

TRANSMISSION BY MAIL.—One advantage the subscribers of THIS work will have, is its early reception. It will be received at the remotest Cities of the Union by the first day of the month of publication.

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT.—The January and succeeding numbers will be printed on an entirely NEW TYPE, cast expressly for the work, and will be found on inspection to be a truly beautiful letter, not too small to be read with ease, nor too large to prevent the usual quantity of matter given in each page. The paper is of the finest quality for periodical use. Indeed, the typographical execution has long been a subject of congratulation with those best acquainted with these matters.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.—The price of the publication is THREE DOLLARS per annum—TWO COPIES FOR FIVE DOLLARS The money to be positively received before a number is sent. No letters will be taken from the Post Office unless the postage on them is paid. Unless positive orders are given at the time of subscribing, the work is continued after the first year, and if not paid during the year, the price will be increased to FOUR DOLLARS.

For the convenience of persons wishing to subscribe for any of the following publications—Burton's Magazine—The Saturday Courier—Saturday Chronicle—Alexander's Weekly Messenger—Saturday Evening Post and News—they will be furnished with the Lady's Book, and any one of these publications one year, upon the receipt of Five Dollars free of postage.

And every Class of our Country.

The COURIER may always be depended upon, as nothing important is permitted to escape a notice in its columns.

Our arrangements enable us to draw from the whole range of the current Literature of Europe, and our Correspondents at home embrace many of the best Writers of the country.

This approved Family Paper is strictly Neutral in Politics and Religion, and the uncompromising opponent of all Quackery.

POPULAR MUSIC.

In the Courier is inserted the music of the most popular Airs, Ballads, and Songs, as soon as they are imported: so that country readers may have the most popular music for the voice, the piano, the guitar or other instruments, as soon as published, which if paid for separately would cost more than the price of subscription. This perfected arrangement is to be found in no other journal of the kind.

☞ The price of the Courier is only $2.

☞ When individuals wish to subscribe to the Courier a sure way is to enclose the money in a letter, and direct it to us. Or, if they choose, their Postmasters will politely attend to it for them. Postmasters are always our agents.

☞ $5 at one time will be received for 3 years; $10 gives the sixth copy gratis.

☞ Clubs of ten will be furnished with the papers for one year, (provided the money be sent us free of postage and discount,) for $15.

☞ Our friends, the Postmasters, will always oblige by remitting arrearages and new subscriptions.

☞ Any of our country brethren who insert our advertisement, will receive the Courier regularly, and the Views of Fairmount and Girard College, if they desire them.
