$175 — all the right of said Holbrook, in and to the farm where George Collins resides, and also all the right of said Collins, supposed to contain 250 acres more or less $700 — One Negro Man called Isaac belonging to Sol Sangston $250 — One farm belonging to James Keen, adjoining Joseph Anthony's lands supposed to contain 120 acres more or less. $210.10 —

$1930.00¾

We the subscribers do hereby certify that we have valued and appraised the goods & chattels, lands & tenements in the above Schedule to $1930.00¾, we being first legally summoned & sworn so to do to the best of our knowledge by Wm McDonald Elisor this 28th day of November 1822, as witness our hands and seals. — Soren Dawson (Seal) Caleb P. Davis (Seal) Elisha Wright (Seal) John Merine (Seal) —

And be it further remembered that on the thirteenth day of February Eighteen hundred & twenty three the said Owen & Longstreth by their Attorney aforesaid prosecuted & sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here of and upon the judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid in the said Court of Appeals affirmed; and in manner & form as aforesaid acknowledged & confessed, a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas to William McDonald, late Sheriff of Caroline County directed in the words & tenor following, viz

The State of Maryland, To William McDonald late Sheriff of Caroline County greeting

Seal of Eastern Shore Court of Appeals

Whereas at a County Court held at Denton, in and for Caroline County, on the second Monday of October in the year of Our Lord 1818, a certain Owen & Longstreth by consideration of the same Court did recover judgment against a certain Frederick Holbrook for as well the sum of Two thousand Dollars current Money for their damages which they had sustained by reason of the non performance of a certain promises and Assumptions as the sum of Sixty Dollars 41½ cents for their Costs and Charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended Whereof the said Frederick Holbrook is convicted, as by the record and proceedings of the said County Court which was lately caused to be brought into the Court of Appeals, held for the Eastern Shore of the State, at Easton in Talbot County for certain causes of error in the same to be corrected, is manifest. And whereas also afterwards to wit, in the said Court of Appeals, held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton, in Talbot County, on the first Monday of June in the year of Our Lord 1819, the said Owen & Longstreth did recover judgment against the said Frederick Holbrook for one other sum of Nine Dollars and twenty five cents, which costs the said Owen & Longstreth was by the said Court of Appeals adjudged for their Costs and Charges which they had sustained by reason of the delay of the execution of the judgment aforesaid by pretence of prosecuting an Appeal of and upon the said Judgment, by him the said Frederick Holbrook before the said Court of Appeals, whereon that judgment was by the said Court of Appeals in all things affirmed, as by the record and proceedings of the said Court of Appeals Manifestly appears. For which said damages Costs and Charges, the said Frederick Holbrook and a certain Geo. Collins Sol. Sangston & Sol. Keen on the 23d day of May in the year of Our Lord 1820, appeared before Robert Orrell Esquire One of the justices of the Orphans Court for Caroline County, and did confess Judgment to the said Owen & Longstreth, the said damages Costs & Charges aforesaid to be levied of their bodies goods & chattels, lands & tenements for the use of the said Owen & Longstreth, in case the said Frederick Holbrook should not pay or satisfy unto the said Owen & Longstreth the said damages Costs & Charges, so as aforesaid recovered against him, according to the act of Assembly in such case made & provided, with the additional Costs thereon at the respective times hereinafter mentioned, to wit, One third part thereof with the Interest due on the whole sum and all the Costs, on or before the 30th day of November 1820; One third part thereof with the interest on the whole sum then unpaid with the additional Costs on or before the first day of May in the year, eighteen hundred and twenty one; and the residue thereof with the interest thereon, and additional costs, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one; which said Confession, in form aforesaid taken, was by the said Justice returned to the Court of Appeals here, as of record is manifest: Whereof the said Holbrook, Collins, Sangston, & Keene are convicted, as of record is also Manifest. And whereas, you were heretofore, to wit, on the 16th day of January in the year 1821, commanded, that of the goods & Chattels, lands & tenements of the said Holbrook, Collins, Sangston & Keene, if in your Bailiwick they should be found, you should cause to be made & levied, one third of the damages & all interest & Costs and when you had the same so made & levied, or any part thereof, the same in your Custody should safely keep, so that you might have the same before the Court of Appeals, to be held at Easton in Talbot County, on the first Monday of June, then next following to pay unto the said Owen & Longstreth, in part of the damages Costs & Charges aforesaid, and that thereof you should not fail at your peril, and that you should have then and there this writ. At which said first Monday of June in the year 1821, you made return thereof to our said Judges, that by virtue of the writ aforesaid to you directed you have taken in execution certain goods & chattels lands & tenements of the said Frederick Holbrook to wit, One grey Mare $30 — One big & hump $120 — Several tracts or parcels of land called "Hubbards Desire" "More Luck" "Hap Hazard" "& Shipmains Field" supposed to contain 153 — $306 — $465 — which said goods & chattels lands & tenements remained in your hands for want of buyers: We therefore command you, That you sell, or cause to be sold, the said goods & chattels, lands & tenements and every part thereof, and the sum of Money arising therefrom, you have before the Court of Appeals to be held at Easton, in Talbot County, on the first Monday of June next to satisfy unto the said Owen & Longstreth part of the damages, costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable Jeremiah T. Chase Esq. Chief Judge of our said Court the 25th day of November 1822. Issued the 18th day of February 1823 (K) James Parrott. Clk.

At which said first Monday of June being the second day of the said Month in the year of Our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty three, and the return day of the aforegoing writ, comes into the Court of Appeals here the said Owen & Longstreth by their Attorney aforesaid; and the late Sheriff of Caroline County aforesaid, to whom the said writ, was in form aforesaid directed, makes return thereof to the Court here, thus endorsed to wit, "Property still on hand for want of buyers" Wm McDonald late Shff —

And be it further remembered that on the said thirteenth day of February in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and twenty three the said Owen & Longstreth by their Attorney aforesaid prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here of and upon the judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid in the said Court of Appeals affirmed, and in manner & form aforesaid Confessed, a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas, to William McDonald Esquire (duly appointed Elisor according to the act of Assembly in such case made & provided,) in the words & figures and of the tenor following, to wit,

Maryland ss: The State of Maryland to William McDonald Esquire late of Caroline County greeting

Seal of Eastern Shore Court of Appeals

Whereas at a County Court held at Denton in and for Caroline County, on the second Monday of October 1818, a certain Owen & Longstreth by consideration of the same Court, did recover Judgment against a certain Frederick Holbrook for as well the sum of two thousand dollars Current Money for their damages which they had sustained by occasion of the Non performance of certain premises and Assumptions then before that time by the said Frederick Holbrook to the said Owen & Longstreth made, as the sum of Sixty dollars forty one and One third cents for their costs & charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out & expended Whereof the said Frederick Holbrook is convicted as appears by the record and proceedings of the said County Court, which were lately caused to be brought into the Court of Appeals at Easton for certain causes of error in the same to be corrected — And whereas also afterwards, to wit, in the said Court of Appeals begun & held for the Eastern Shore of the said State at Easton in Talbot County, on the first Monday of June 1819, the said Owen & Longstreth did recover Judgment against the said Frederick Holbrook, for one other sum of Nine dollars and twenty five cents which costs the said Owen & Longstreth was by the said Court of Appeals adjudged for their Costs and charges which they had sustained by reason of the delay of the execution of the judgment aforesaid by pretence of prosecuting an appeal of and upon the said Judgment by him the said Frederick Holbrook before the said Court of Appeals; whereon that judgment was by the said Court of Appeals in all things affirmed, as by the record and proceedings of the said Court of Appeals Manifestly appears. For which said damages Costs and Charges the said Frederick Holbrook, and a certain George Collins, James Sangston & James Keen, on the 23d day of May 1820, appeared before Robert Orrell Esquire One of the Justices of the Orphans Court for Caroline County, and did confess judgment to the said Owen & Longstreth for the said damages costs and charges to be levied of their bodies goods & Chattels lands & tenements for the use of the said Owen and Longstreth, in case the said Frederick Holbrook should not pay and satisfy to the said Owen & Longstreth, the said damages costs & charges so as aforesaid recovered against him, according to the act of Assembly in such case made & provided, with the additional Costs thereon at the respective times hereinafter mentioned to wit, One third part thereof with the Interest due on the whole sum, and all the Costs, on or before the 30th day of November 1820, One third part thereof with the Interest on the whole sum then unpaid with the additional costs, on or before the 1st day of May 1821, and the residue thereof with the Interest & additional costs on or before the 30th day of November 1821, which said confession in form aforesaid taken, was by the said Justice returned to the Court of Appeals here, and whereof the said Frederick Holbrook, George Collins, James Sangston and James Keen, are convicted as of record is also Manifest. And whereas the Honorable William D. Martin Judge of the Court of Appeals, by the suggestion of John Leeds Kerr Esquire Attorney at Law, for the said Owen & Longstreth has agreeable to an act of Assembly in such case made & provided nominated & appointed you an Elisor for the special purpose of executing this writ. And whereas you were heretofore, to wit, on the 13th day of