Obed Bailey vs. George P. Jones } Be it remembered that now here on the first Monday in June, being the third day of the said month in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred & twenty two, the Chief Judge and Associate Judges of the fourth Judicial District of Maryland, in pursuance of the directions of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, transmit to the Court of Appeals here, the record of proceedings of a plea which was lately depending before them in the County Court of Somerset between Obed Bailey plaintiff and George P. Jones, defendant, and wherein the said County Court gave judgment for the said Obed Bailey against the said George P. Jones, and from which said judgment the said George P. Jones appeals to the Court of Appeals here, the tenor of which said record of proceedings is in form following to wit. "In the record of the proceedings of Somerset County Court among other things is contained as follows. State of Maryland Somerset County to wit. At a County Court of the fourth Judicial District of the State of Maryland begun and held at Princess Anne in and for Somerset County on the fourth Monday of November in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty one and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America to wit, on the twenty sixth day of the said month, by the judges of the said County Court, duly commissioned sworn and qualified, according to the laws & Constitution of the said State - Present. The Honorable. William B. Martin Chief Judge; James B. Robins, William Whittington } Associate Judges

Charles Jones, Sheriff.

Obed Bailey vs. George P. Jones } Command was given to the Sheriff of Somerset County to take George P. Jones late of Somerset County yeoman, if he should be found in his bailiwick, and that him so taken he should safely keep so that he should have his body before the Judges of Somerset County Court at a Court by them to be held at Princess Anne in and for said County on the fourth Monday of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty to answer unto Obed Bailey in a plea that he render unto him the sum of six hundred & fifty four dollars current money which to him he owes and unjustly detains &c. and that he should not fail thereof at his peril and should have then and there that writ &c. And now at this day to wit, on the fourth Monday of November in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty, comes here into the said County Court the said Obed by Ara Spence his Attorney and George Dashiell Esquire then Sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed, made return thereof that he has taken the body of the said George P. Jones therein named, whom he has in Court here in his custody ready to answer unto the said Obed in the plea aforesaid in form aforesaid against him alleged as by the said writ he was commanded, and the said George P. being called appears in Court here and thereupon motion of the said Obed by his Attorney aforesaid the said George P. Jones is by the Court here placed to give special bail in the plea aforesaid. Whereupon a certain James Bailey being present here in Court in his own proper person & with the consent of the said Obed by his Attorney aforesaid becomes pledge and bail for the said George P. that if it shall happen that the said George P. shall be convicted at the suit of the said Obed in the plea aforesaid then the said James Bailey consents that as well the debt aforesaid as all such damages costs & charges as shall be adjudged unto the said Obed in this behalf shall be made of his body lands and chattels and form to the use of the said Obed; if it shall happen that the said Obed shall not pay and satisfy the said debt damages costs and charges aforesaid, or render himself to the prison and custody of the Sheriff of Somerset County aforesaid on that occasion; whereupon the said George P. Jones puts in his place Ephraim K. Wilson Gentleman his attorney at Law, at suit of the said Obed in the plea aforesaid; whereupon at the prayer of the said parties by their Attorneys aforesaid further day is to them given in the plea aforesaid until the fourth Monday of May next in the same State as at present saving to the parties aforesaid. At which said fourth Monday of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one come into the said County Court here as well the said Obed as the said George P. by their said Attorneys; whereupon at the prayer of the said parties by their Attorneys aforesaid further day is to them given in the plea aforesaid until the fourth Monday of November next, in the same State as at present saving to the parties aforesaid. At which said fourth Monday of November in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred & twenty one, comes into the said County Court here, as well the said Obed as the said George P. by their Attorneys aforesaid; and thereupon the said Obed by his Attorney aforesaid, declares against the said George P. in the plea aforesaid in form following to wit. Somerset County to wit. George P. Jones late of Somerset County Yeoman was summoned to answer unto Obed Bailey in a plea that he render unto him the sum of six hundred fifty four dollars current money which to him he owes and unjustly detains &c. And whereupon the same Obed by Ara Spence his Attorney says that the same George on the first day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty at the County aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory, which sealed with the seal of the same George the same Obed here into Court brings, the date whereof is the same day and year aforesaid acknowledged himself to owe and be justly indebted unto the same Obed in the aforesaid sum of six hundred fifty four dollars current money of Maryland to be paid to the said Obed his heirs executors administrators or assigns, to the payment whereof well and truly to be made & done the same George bound himself his executors and administrators firmly by the same bill obligatory. Nevertheless the said George
