POETRY.

For the Easton Gazette.

TO WEST-END.

Why silent is that tuneful lyre,
That lyre of pure, chaste harmony?
Why does the minstrel's soul of fire,
Refuse to pour upon its wire,
One strain of welcome minstrelsy?

While fame a flowery wreath prepares,
For bright young brows, that silent lyre
Should wake again its pensive airs,
Must claim the wreath which genius wears,
In strains of sweetness, truth and fire.

VERMANDEL.

From the Lady's Book.

BREAD IN THE WILDERNESS.

BY MRS. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY.

A voice amid the desert!
Not of him,
Who in rough garments clad, and locust fed
Cried to the sinful multitude, and claim'd
Fruits of repentance, with the lifted scourge
Of terror and reproof. A milder guide
With gentler tones, doth teach the listening throng.
Benignant pity mov'd him, as he saw
The shepherdless and poor. He knew to touch
The springs of every nature. The high love
Of Heaven he humbled to the simplest child,
And in the guise of parable, allur'd
The sluggish mind, to follow truth and live.
They whom the thunders of the Law had stunned,
Woke to the Gospel's melody with tears,
And the glad Jewish mother held her babe
High in her arms, that her young eye might greet
Jesus of Nazareth.
It was so still.
Tho' thousands cluster'd there, that not a sound
Brake the strong spell of eloquence which held
The wilderness in chains, save, now and then,
As the gale freshen'd, came the murmur'd speech
Of distant billows, chafing with the shores
Of the Tiberian sea.
Day wore apace,
Noon hasted, and the lengthening shadows brought
The unexpected eve. They linger'd still,
Eyes fix'd, and lips apart:—the very breath
Constrain'd, lest some escaping sigh might break
The tide of knowledge sweeping o'er their souls,
Like a strange raptur'd dream. They heeded not
The spent sun, closing at the curtain'd west
His burning journey. What was time to them,
Who heard entranc'd the Eternal Word of Life?
But the weak flesh grew weary. Hunger came,
Sharpening each feature, and to faintness drain'd
Life's vigorous fount. The holy Saviour felt
Compassion for them. His disciples press,
Care stricken, to his side "Where shall we find Bread in this desert?"
Then, with lifted eyes
He bless'd, and brake the slender store of food,
And fed the famish'd thousands. Wondering awe,
With renovated strength, inspired their souls
As gazing on the miracle, they mark'd
The gather'd fragments of their feast, and heard
Such heavenly words as lip of mortal man
Had never utter'd.
Thou, whose pitying heart
Yearn'd o'er the countless miseries of those
Whom thou did'st die to save, touch thou our souls
With the same spirit of untiring love:
Divine Redeemer! may our fellow man,
Howe'er by rank or circumstance disjoin'd
Be as a brother, in his hour of need.

HARTFORD, CONN.

A DEMOCRATIC HORSE.—We heard a good story the other day, and the better for being true. A negro was riding a horse, when the animal stumbled and nearly threw cuffee over his head into the lead.

"Look at him—the rascally democrat;" vociferated Sambo.

"Democrat? why do you call him a democrat?" enquired a gentleman riding by.

"Why massa, cause he's got two good eyes, and won't see?"

THE CASKET
AND
PHILADELPHIA MONTHLY MAGAZINE

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW VOLUME

The unparalleled success which has attended The Casket since it came into the hands of the new proprietors, induces them to begin a volume with

Still Farther Attractions,

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY NEXT.

ITS LITERARY CHARACTER.

Which has called forth so many comments will undergo no change; as the Magazine will still continue under the control of the same editors. Several however, have been engaged, beside those who have already been enlisted in its favor.

NEW CONTRIBUTORS OF HIGH TALENT,

The Magazine will be enlarged and will contain a greater quantity of reading matter than any periodical published at the same price in this country. The work will appear in

A NEW AND BEAUTIFUL TYPE,

Cast expressly for the purpose, and will be printed on the finest paper.

It will also be ornamented with

Fine Steel Engravings,

provided at a heavy expense, and executed from the choicest designs. To vary the style of these illustrations, the services of distinguished artists have been engaged to furnish at intervals

MEZZOTINTS FOR THE ENSUING VOLUME

The Heads of Several Distinguished American Writers

Will appear in the course of the year. The publishers determined to leave nothing undone to merit the patronage of a liberal public, have resolved, after much solicitation from many of their fair readers, to publish quarterly, as an extra,

Correct Plates of the Latest Fashions, Highly Colored,

and executed in the first style of the art. This department will be under the control of a French gentleman of much taste and experience, and will be found to excel ANY THING EVER ATTEMPTED IN THIS LINE IN AMERICA. The extra to the present (November) number may be considered a fair specimen of what the set of our plates will be. The musical department, as heretofore, will be under the charge of Messrs G. W. Hewitt & Co., and the fine pieces of Copyright Music which they have hitherto furnished are a sufficient guarantee for the future.

The flattering terms in which the Casket has been noticed by the journals in every section of the Union, establish beyond a doubt its claims to support generally.—It will surpass any other work in the return it gives for the reader's money.

TERMS—$3 per annum, invariably in advance, or two copies for five dollars.

ALEXANDER'S
WEEKLY MESSENGER

Has during the three years since it was first commenced, obtained a celebrity among the patrons of the press which has no precedent in the annals of literature in this country. Its circulation has been, and continues to be, far and wide extending over every portion of this continent and not less than

100,000 COPIES

Have been distributed to different individuals. The reputation of this journal is at the present moment as firmly established as at any former period—and its increase of patronage, notwithstanding the fluctuations of the times, clearly has no parallel on record. The publisher is about to begin

ANOTHER VOLUME,
Materially Improved and Enlarged

And with renewed efforts to deserve the liberal feeling which has been excited in behalf of his Popular Journal & a sincere determination so to continue to conduct the MESSENGER, that the cause of VIRTUE, TRUTH and MORALITY may be best promoted by its extensive circulation.

ALEXANDER'S
WEEKLY MESSENGER

IS UNIVERSALLY ACKNOWLEDGED TO BE

THE CHEAPEST AND MOST INTERESTING

FAMILY NEWSPAPER
IN THE WORLD.

And most deserving the patronage of a discriminating public

This Journal is published every Wednesday, on a beautiful white paper, of the largest class. Single copies will be forwarded to subscribers every week during the year for Two Dollars in advance or ten persons, clubbing together can have it for the same period by forwarding the publisher a ten dollar note, free of postage which is one third less than any paper of the same size can be furnished by any other office in the United States.

This Journal embraces in its columns every variety of subjects, and affords the earliest and most authentic articles of news, as a proof of which we instance the fact that since the commencement of Steam Navigation between this country and England we have been always several days in advance of all our New York and Philadelphia weekly contemporaries, in furnishing our patrons with the intelligence which has been brought by the different steam boats—the Great Western, the Liverpool and the British Queen. In this respect the Messenger has paramount claims upon the attention of persons who live remote from the Atlantic cities as it conveys to them sooner than it can be received through any other channel the latest European News. In the existing state of our relations to England, both as regards our Financial, Commercial and Agricultural position, the importance of a vehicle through which information on these important subjects is disseminated in advance of the arrival of the British steamers, cannot be over estimated.

A General Prices Current, affording an authentic guide to the country merchant, and other mercantile classes out of the city, is carefully compiled every week, and inserted at length in our columns. A Bank Note Register and other matters connected with the Stock Market, with regular notices of broken Banks and Counterfeits will be most scrupulously noticed, and such necessary information regarding them carefully collected as will satisfy the most scrupulous that the interest of the whole community are properly attended to.

In order to render our Paper more acceptable to our numerous City subscribers we shall in future give a regular summary of all the Marriages and Deaths.

This Journal is constantly supplied with Original articles by American Writers, which adds much to its interest as a Literary Work. A succession of Biographies are from time to time given of the most Distinguished American Statesmen and Patriots, together with Original and Selected Tales, Essays, and Poetry, of the most piquant and entertaining character. The Publisher will begin The Coming Year by Enlarging the Messenger, and the issue of

A DOUBLE SHEET,

Of twice the dimension of the present size of his paper, filled with original contributions and selections from the best periodicals of the day, including the popular annuals for 1840, and he is solicitous that new patrons may send their names on immediately that he may have the gratification of furnishing every one of them with this rare and extraordinary specimen of the art of printing on the first of the year. At the commencement of the New Volume a variety of

BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS,

Will be given in regular succession, which will be accompanied by appropriate sketches of such a description as to render them particularly deserving the attention of the public.

The terms of ALEXANDER'S WEEKLY MESSENGER are as follows—WE WISH IT TO BE UNDERSTOOD ALSO BY AGENTS THAT WE DO NOT RECEIVE REMITTANCES UNDER FIVE DOLLARS FOR CLUB SUBSCRIBERS.—By adhering to our regulations in this respect they will be certain that NO MISTAKES can occur in transmitting the Paper to every one for whom they may order it.

A Ten Dollar Bill in advance, will pay for ten copies of the Messenger for one year. A Five Dollar Bill, will pay for four copies for one year.

Two Dollars in advance, the price of an individual subscription for one year.

One Dollar, will pay for a single subscription for six months only.

LIBERAL OFFERS.

The Publisher respectfully calls the attention of his friends and the public to the following list of Premiums—which are offered as a small token of respect to those gentlemen acting as Agents who use their influence to promote the circulation of the Weekly Messenger.

For every Twenty Subscribers.

One Volume of the Silk Grower a Manual intended to afford the community every information connected with the growing of silk in this country.—Or

A Volume of Every Body's Album, a humorous work filled with engravings.

Or either of the following Volumes neatly bound—

A Manual of Politeness, including the Principles of Etiquette, and rules of behaviour in genteel society for persons of both sexes.

The Souvenir Minstrel, a choice collection of the most admired Songs, Duets, Glees, Choruses &c.

The Housekeeper's Book, containing advice on the conduct of Household affairs, with a complete collection of Receipts for Economical Domestic Cookery.

The Southern and Western Songster, being a collection of all the fashionable songs, many of which are original.

The Man About Town, a Novel, by Cornelius Webbe, author of Glances at Life &c. in 2 vols.

A Diary in America, by Captain Marryatt, author of Peter Simple, &c. in 2 vols.

The Cabinet Minister, a Novel, by Mrs Gore, author of the Heir of Selwood, in 2 vols.

The Phantom Ship, a Tale of the Sea, by Captain Marryatt, in 2 vols.

Charcoal Sketches, or Scenes in the Metropolis, by Joseph C. Neal, Esq. with illustrations by D. C. Johnson.

Burton's Comic Songster, being entirely a new collection of original and popular songs, with engravings.

For every Thirty Subscribers,

Either of the following Volumes.

The Religious Offering, for 1840—Edited by Catharine H. Waterman, filled with splendid engravings, and bound in a superior style with gold edging.

The One Thousand Nights Entertainments in five volumes, an entertaining work, embellished with engravings neatly bound.

The Biographies of all the Signers of the Declaration of Independence &c. with other important papers connected with the Early History of our Country—also a Biography of Washington neatly bound.

For every Forty Subscribers

A copy of The Large Quarto Bible complete with numerous engravings, consisting of eleven hundred pages of letter press, and a Family Record, handsomely bound.—Or

A Volume of much interest to Farmers consisting of six hundred pages, entitled a Treatise on Cattle, their Breeds, Management and Diseases, with numerous engravings handsomely bound.

For every Fifty Subscribers.

Either of the following Works:

A volume of the Christian Keepsake for 1840 most splendidly bound with gold edgings—and highly embellished with a variety of very superior engravings.

Scott's Life of Napoleon—three volumes in one extra sized octavo neatly bound.

A volume of eight hundred pages, entitled Brooks's Universal Gazetteer, containing a full description of all Nations and Kingdoms, brought down to the present period with emblematical Engravings, forming a complete History of the World.

Memoirs of the Life of Sir Walter Scott, by J. Lockhart, Esq. a large octavo neatly bound.

During the present year the Publisher has disposed of nearly five hundred Bibles as premiums and the whole of the edition which he published for that purpose has been for some time exhausted—as he has now in press a very superior edition of one thousand copies that will be finished about the first of December and which he will have bound in a very handsome style and embellished by a number of new and beautiful engravings. For every Forty Subscribers any Agent may obtain for the Messenger he will be entitled to a copy of this excellent work as will be seen by referring to our list of Premiums above, which will be delivered to his order immediately.

At the expiration of the term subscribed and paid for, by Clubs, The Paper is invariably discontinued, unless the Subscriptions are renewed.—All letters must be POST PAID, or they will not be taken out of the Post Office.

Nov. 30 C. ALEXANDER.

Godey's Lady's Book.

EDITION—25,000—MONTHLY.

More than 60 Figures of Fashions each year.

MRS. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY,

Whose name is so intimately connected with the Literature of our country, and who has justly been termed by the contemporary press, The Hemans of America, will assist Mrs. Hale in the editorial department. It is with feelings of the greatest pleasure that the publisher of the Book makes this announcement. The editorial corps will now consist of Mrs SARAH J. HALE, MRS. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY and LOUIS A. GODEY. Mrs. Sigourney will commence her valuable aid with the January number. The Lady's Book has always been noted for the purity of its contents—that marked distinction which characterizes it shall still be preserved; indeed, with such conductors, it will be impossible to go astray.

GODEY'S BOOK,

Has been emphatically termed THE LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE, as it is a receptacle for the contributions of the most celebrated FEMALE WRITERS OF AMERICA, most of whom of any eminence contribute to its pages. For a list of the names of the Contributors, see October cover of the work.

TWENTY VOLUMES have already been issued. It is usual to announce that a small addition only will be published. Contrary to this, the Proprietor of the Lady's Book announces that he will publish AN IMMENSE ADDITION, with which he hopes to supply all those who will favor him with orders, commencing with the January number.

It will be seen by this advertisement that every effort has been made by the proprietor of this work to make it superior to any other in America; and as

A New Year's Gift,

The Lady's Book is probably the most proper that could be desired for Ladies, edited by their own sex, and assisted, as the Editorial Department is by the Pictorial Embellishments, it is positively the BOUDOIR COMPANION.

There are other publications that advertise FASHION PLATES. The Publisher of the Lady's Book wishes it to be distinctly understood that the principal Fashions in his work ARE COLORED AND IN EVERY NUMBER, which is not the case with any other work published in this country.

UNCOLORED PLATES OF FASHIONS, also monthly. This is a novel feature in this work, and as it is no great expense to give plates of Fashions, without Coloring, the Publisher will give from THREE to SIX FIGURES each month, in addition to the THREE COLORED—this will make in all, generally, about Nine Figures of Fashions Monthly.

LACE PATTERNS
AND
PATTERNS OF EMBROIDERY

Will be published at regular intervals. These beautiful ornaments—particularly the former have given great satisfaction.

THE MUSICAL DEPARTMENT is under the superintendence of J. G. Osborne, than whom no person is more capable of doing it justice.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT is placed under the superintendence of Mrs Sarah J. Hale and Mrs Lydia H. Sigourney; two ladies so well known to the world that to mention their names in connexion with any publication is at once a guarantee of its morality, virtue, and utility. Of their capability to conduct the LADY'S BOOK it is presumed no person will doubt, and the proprietor mentions with pleasure that no English or American Magazine can publish in connexion with its Literary Department two names so celebrated in the world of letters.

FAC SIMILIES.—A great deal of curiosity is often expressed to see the Chirography of celebrated persons. We shall endeavor as far as lies in our power to gratify this feeling, by giving from time to time correct imitations of the most celebrated Female writers of the day.

GENERAL FEATURES.—Literature, Tales, Essays, Legends, Romantic Incidents in History, Extracts from the Old Poets, Reviews, Poetry, Female Education, Embellishments, Fashions, Colored and Uncolored, Lace, Embroidery, Fac Similies, Music, &c. &c.

More than sixty Figures of Fashions yearly, colored and uncolored, the Proprietor being determined to consult all tastes. Any embellishments to be found in any other Magazine may be looked for in the Lady's Book.

INCREASE OF SUBSCRIPTION.—In 1838 we published 10,500 copies; during the months of January, February and March, 1839, we increased the list to 13,500, and had then to reprint three numbers and increase to 15,000. With the next volume, we advanced to 17,000, and we now print

25,000 Copies Monthly.

Probably the greatest monthly list of subscribers in the world.

OUR READING MATTER is about the same in quantity as any similar production, probably a little in favor of the Book. It would be foolish and false to say that it contains more, and the proprietor is not willing to condescend to such means for any supposed advancement of his interest.

TRANSMISSION BY MAIL.—One advantage the subscribers of THIS work will have, is its early reception. It will be received at the remotest Cities of the Union by the first day of the month of publication.

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT.—The January and succeeding numbers will be printed on an entirely NEW TYPE, cast expressly for the work, and will be found on inspection to be a truly beautiful letter, not too small to be read with ease, nor too large to prevent the usual quantity of matter given in each page. The paper is of the finest quality for periodical use. Indeed, the typographical execution has long been a subject of congratulation with those best acquainted with these matters.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.—The price of the publication is THREE DOLLARS per annum—TWO COPIES FOR FIVE DOLLARS. The money to be positively received before a number is sent. No letters will be taken from the Post Office unless the postage on them is paid. Unless positive orders are given at the time of subscribing, the work is continued after the first year, and if not paid during the year, the price will be increased to FOUR DOLLARS.

For the convenience of persons wishing to subscribe for any of the following publications—Burton's Magazine—The Saturday Courier—Saturday Chronicle—Alexander's Weekly Messenger—Saturday Evening Post and News—they will be furnished with the Lady's Book, and any one of these publications one year, upon the receipt of Five Dollars free of postage.

EMBRACING SUBJECTS FOR

Farmers,
Tradesmen,
Merchants,
Teachers,
Mechanics,
Artisans,
Men of Leisure,
Students.

And every Class of our Country.

The COURIER may always be depended upon, as nothing important is permitted to escape a notice in its columns.

Our arrangements enable us to draw from the whole range of the current Literature of Europe, and our Correspondents at home embrace many of the best Writers of the country.

This approved Family Paper is strictly Neutral in Politics and Religion, and the uncompromising opponent of all Quackery.

POPULAR MUSIC.

In the Courier is inserted the music of the most popular Airs, Ballads, and Songs, as soon as they are imported; so that country readers may have the most popular music for the voice, the piano, the guitar or other instruments, as soon as published, which if paid for separately would cost more than the price of subscription. This perfected arrangement is to be found in no other journal of the kind.

☞ The price of the Courier is only $2.

☞ When individuals wish to subscribe to the Courier a sure way is to enclose the money in a letter, and direct it to us. Or, if they chose, their Postmasters will politely attend to it for them. Postmasters are always our agents.

☞ $5 at one time will be received for 3 years; $10 gives the sixth copy gratis.

☞ Clubs of ten will be furnished with ten papers for one year, (provided the money be sent us free of postage and discount,) for $15.

☞ Our friends, the Postmasters, will always oblige by remitting arrearages and new subscriptions.

☞ Any of our country brethren who insert our advertisement, will receive the Courier regularly, and the Views of Fairmount and Girard College, if they desire them.

A Thresher Astray.

About the 20th of June last, Messrs. G. & W. Smith of Newark, Del forwarded to Mr. Thos. Hanson's care of Baltimore, a thresher belonging to the subscriber's grain machine which had been sent on to them for repairs. It is a tooth machine & the thresher has no hopper with it. The said thresher has never come to hand, and it is supposed that it has been forwarded to some other gentlemen by mistake—should this advertisement meet the eye of the person having it in possession he will much oblige the owner if he will forward it to Baltimore at once, as it is much needed to the care of Emory & Stevens, Bowley's Wharf.
