that the ministers, with a good taste, much to their credit, when addressing audiences of such peculiar character, shun those points of doctrine which are productive of controversy, and content themselves with inculcating religion, in its broad, simple, and incontrovertible sense. Mr. Cookman is of the Methodist persuasion, and has won considerable celebrity for his oratorical power. Slightly made, of an age scarcely exceeding thirty years; (as far as I could form an opinion at a distance) free from affectation of style and manner, he held his large and enlightened auditory in the deepest attention for about an hour, while he expounded from the words of St. Paul—"I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, which is the power of God unto salvation,' &c. Disentangling the religion of Jesus from the mystification of conflicting creeds and catechisms, he gave its history from the Divine Founder—announced in the teeth of preconceived opinions, by a band of unlettered men, yet triumphing over the scepticism of philosophy, and the prejudices of mankind; offering no inducements but proscription, persecution, and even death itself, yet gradually establishing itself in the empire of the Cæsars, and spreading throughout the world. Had Cicero been employed to pour fourth his eloquence in defence of the new doctrines—had Virgil been called on to usher it to mankind in his harmonious numbers—or had the powers of Seneca been directed to expound its system of pure and elevating morality, then (said the preacher it would have been less surprising that it should have overthrown the dominion of scepticism, and in three hundred years, have been declared, by Constantine, the religion of the Roman empire.

When he came to speak of the reasons which induced Paul to declare that he was not ashamed; the preacher, expatiating on the nature and degree of that courage, by which the apostle was animated, laid down the proposition that "all courage is founded in the consciousness of power; and that the power of God had been so conspicuously exhibited in the success of the religion of Christ, as to have imparted to him the courage to make the avowal." The descriptions of the apostle were given with a graphic power, which was attested by the deep silence and breathless attention of all present. In that vast circle, so entirely were all absorbed, that the cracking of a chair caused a visible sensation. From the death of Stephen, the first martyr, he tracked him to the arraignment before Felix, marking every step with a precision, which gave individuality to his posture; and, judging from the countenances of all around me, I was satisfied that the preacher had established himself on a high basis as a Christian orator.

There is one remark which I will make here, not in reference to Mr. Cookman, but is generally applicable. After the finest bursts of pulpit eloquence, my mind and my feelings have always felt a delicious refreshment from the introduction of scripture phrases in which the soul of beauty seems to move, unfettered by the gaudy costume of the schools—where the majesty of truth appears without the artificial ornaments of human genius. Styles change to suit the fastidiousness of popular taste; but the chaste and beautiful language of the Scriptures has outlived all the innovations of ages, and maintains, to this hour, its lofty pre-eminence over all other historic records. It has the stamp and seal of inspiration on its pages.

We published yesterday a letter from a friend on board of the Rehef, one of the Exploring Expedition. (By the way, the name of the commander was given as Levy instead of Long) We learn that many rarities have been brought home by the officers. The Courier and Enquirer of yesterday says:

We learn that there is too much reason to apprehend that the pilot boat Sea Gull, attached to the Exploring Expedition, as tender to the U. S. sloop of war Vincennes, has been lost, and that all on board have perished. She has not been heard of since the month of June last.—Then she left Orange, Terra del Fuego, north of Cape Horn, in company with the Flying Fish. A gale soon after arose, and the latter succeeded in beating off the shore. This was the last seen of the Sea Gull. Lieutenants Reed and Bacon, two promising young officers, were on board. The Porpoise had been twice in search of her without success.

U. S. Gazette.

Communicated for the Baltimore Patriot.

MR. EDITOR: I have noticed with pleasure that the Hon. Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, is appointed a delegate to the Young Men's National Convention. I have learned with equal pleasure that there is some reason to look for the attendance of his late compeer in fearless patriotic exertion, the Hon. B. Peyton, late of Tennessee, now of New Orleans.

Other names have been mentioned, as likely to attend, who have won distinguished fame as eloquent speakers; such as Winthrop, of Massachusetts; Hoffman, of New York; Menefee, of Kentucky, &c. No doubt the other States of the Union will send forward some of their most gifted sons, so that the convention promises to be not only the most numerous ever assembled in the country, but to comprise talent and eloquence of the first order.

Would it not be well to invite all the surviving soldiers of the revolution to attend the convention, that they may witness the efforts of their descendants to perpetuate the principles for which those venerable patriots perilled life and fortune? and that special provision be made for the accommodation of those interesting living links that unite us with the HEROIC AGE?

WHIG YOUNG MEN!
POSTPONED MEETING.

The Young Whigs of Talbot county will meet on Tuesday, the 14th of April, to select from the county Representatives to the National Convention of Whig young men, which will assemble in Baltimore on the 4th of May.

Our readers are referred to the remarks of the Hon. John Davis, on the first page of our paper—especially our Laboring men, who are opposed to a reduction of wages.

General Duff Green publishes in the Baltimore papers, the Prospectus of a new Daily Harrison paper, to be issued in that City on the 1st of May, to be called "THE PILOT."

On Tuesday last as the Whigs of the County were making their way to the Court House at the hour appointed for their meeting, the attention of all in town was suddenly arrested by the appearance from the Bayside road of what seemed to be a triumphal procession. On nearer approach it proved a Log Cabin handsomely decorated with flags and having inscribed upon the roof appropriate mottos. It was soon found to contain several Whigs, a Barrel of Cider and an earthen mug. Not the least appropriate motto was that against which the advocates of the Sub-Treasury have hurled their fiercest darts. It gave assurance that the Working men of the County had already given attention to the cry of the Administration against High Wages and were unwilling to endorse a sentiment that consigned the labouring man to lasting penury.

WHIG MEETING.

Agreeably to public notice a large and highly respectable number of persons assembled at the Court House on Tuesday last at 3 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of J. B. Kerr, Esq. the meeting was organized by the appointment of Edward N. Hambleton, Chairman and James A. Ridgaway, Secretary.

Mr J. B. Kerr, then explained the object of the meeting and was followed by Samuel Hambleton, Jr. Esq.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to the central State Convention of the Whigs to be assembled in Baltimore on the 9th April next.

Col. Nicholas Goldsborough,
J. Bozman Kerr,
John Harrington, Esqrs.

On motion the proceedings were ordered to be published and the meeting adjourned to Tuesday 14th April next, to meet at same time and place.

E. N. HAMBLETON, Ch'rn.
JAMES A. RIDGAWAY, Sec'ry.

APPOINTMENTS
BY THE COMMISSIONERS FOR TALBOT COUNTY.

CONSTABLES.

DISTRICT No. 1—Thomas Henrix, jr. James C. Wheeler, Benjamin H. Clift, Nehemiah E. Nicols, Wm. H. Nabb.

DISTRICT No. 2—James Jackson, Joseph B. Lowe John K. Skinner, Richard C. Lane, Hugh Marshall.

DISTRICT No. 3.—Garrison Austin, Henry C. Middleton, Joseph Williams, Barnett E. Eagon, Thomas M. Baker.

DISTRICT No 4.—Philip C. Morgan, Robert H. George, Thomas Casson, Henry Covey.

Clerk to Commissioners.—George W. Sherwood.

The number 19, so ominous to Van Buren and his party in Maryland, seems most mysteriously to have mingled itself with the selection of constables.

The Annapolis Republican of Saturday says—It is pleasant to announce that Mr. Speaker WILLIAMS has so far recovered, as to be able to sit up—and that Mr. Potter, Delegate from Caroline county, who has been detained at the seat of government by a serious attack, is also much better, and is now considered out of danger.

A bill passed both houses of Assembly last week almost unanimously, for the liberation, on his own recognisance, of Wm. Bromwell; confined in Baltimore county jail, awating his trial for certain forgeries committed a year ago. It was stated that his long confinement had rendered his health so bad, that he must die if not released.—Md. Rep. 25th ult.

The Whigs of the First Congressional District met in Convention, at Salisbury, Somerset county, on the 21st ult., and nominated THOS. A. SPENCE, of Worcester county, as a candidate for Elector of President and Vice President for that District.—Mr. Spence's great personal popularity, talents and energy, make his selection as a candidate for this important office an excellent one.

At the Whig Convention for the Fourth Congressional District of Maryland, held on Wednesday the 25th ult. at Ellicott's Mills, Gov. George Howard, of Anne Arundel county, and the Hon. John P. Kennedy, of Baltimore city, were unanimously chosen candidates for Electors of President and Vice President for the district.

U. S. TROOPS. A part of the United States troops stationed in the upper part of New York State have been ordered to march to the disputed territory, in Maine.

COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeit one dollar bills of the Bank of Delaware, letter C, dated 2d November, 1839, with engraved signatures, are in circulation. Look out for them.

Under the law of Pennsylvania, Mr. Wood, who has just been acquitted, on the ground of insanity, of the murder of his daughter, will remain in the custody of the court under the act of Assembly providing for such cases, and will be immediately removed from prison to a lunatic asylum, there to be confined as long as his condition may seem to require.

Correspondence of the Balt. Patriot.

PHILADELPHIA, April 1, 8 p. m.

The information from Harrisburg this evening is highly important, as it settles the long agitated question of resumption of specie payments by the banks in this State on the 15th day of January, 1841 The bill as introduced by Mr. Bell, and afterwards amended and passed by the Senate on a third reading on Saturday last, on Tuesday (yesterday) passed the House of Representatives (by a resolution) to and through its final vote, and now only awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham:—

The perfectly harmonious spirit, with which the Whigs of Maryland have resolved to sustain the nomination, by the Harrisburg Convention, of Candidates for President and Vice President and the glowing accounts of the enthusiastic ardor, with which the name of HARRISON is upheld by the PEOPLE of the West and of other quarters of the Union should inspire us with high hopes of a glorious triumph in the approaching canvass and prompt us to an early movement for the selection of a Candidate for our District, in accordance with the plan proposed by the Convention at Baltimore on the 30th of December last. It is therefore suggested that an early Convention of Whigs of the District be called to meet at Centreville, for the purpose of selecting a suitable Candidate.

There are, doubtless many gentlemen in the Whig ranks well qualified to perform this patriotic service, whose names may and probably will be presented for the consideration of the Convention, when held. The name of Theodore R Loockerman, Esq. of Talbot County, has been often mentioned and we take leave to recommend the choice of that gentleman as an able and eloquent advocate of the cause.

MANY WHIGS.

April 4.

LOG CABIN.

The Providence Journal says:—The young Whigs turned out yesterday afternoon in full strength. With the aid of shovels, spades, pickaxes, etc., soon leveled the site for the log cabin, dug the hole for the liberty pole, and prepared every thing in proper style for the building, which is to be erected to-day. We learn that some of our friends from the country town are coming in to day to assist; all will be welcome.

VIRGINIA.

The Richmond Whig says:—We observe that the distant press, in their estimates of the Presidential election, invariably set down Virginia to the 'Northern man with Southern feelings.' But still they elect Gen. Harrison by a handsome majority. We have no objection as to what position on the chess board may be assigned to Virginia—she will attend to that matter herself. But there is one thing very certain—if Gen. Harrison can be elected without the vote of Virginia, and we believe he can be, the vote of Virginia will only serve to swell his triumphant majority;—for get it he will, if there be any truth in signs.

GERMANTOWN.

In Germantown, the election on Friday took a decided party turn. Harrison and Van Buren was the cry, and the friends of each presidential candidate went to the polls and voted for magistrates, constables, etc. in the same spirit that would have animated them had the contest been for presidential electors.—The result was, the Harrison (election) judges received a majority of 140: the assessors and managers of the poor, 145; and the whole Harrison ticket was elected by the largest majority given in that township for fifteen years past, and the vote was the largest.

The people on all hands are awake to the importance of the contest, and are expressing their opinions.—U. S. Gaz.

GOOD NEWS FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

Our information from the elections held in Pennsylvania on Friday last, for borough and township officers, is very favorable to the cause of Harrison and Reform.

At and near Philadelphia, the Whigs carried every thing before them.—Their gain has been tremendous. The old Northern Liberties is completely recovered from the shock of last Fall, and instead of a majority of 900 votes against us, gave on Friday a majority of upwards of 500 in favor of the whig candidates.

From Franklin county, we hear that the Whigs carried the election by increased majorities, not only in Chambersburg, but in other districts. A letter from that county, dated on Saturday last, says: "You may set down Franklin county for 750 majority for Old Tip certain. There seems to be a settled determination to oust the Spoilers, and I am certain that nothing can stay the current that has set in so strong against them."

National Intelligencer.

"PUSH ALONG KEEP MOVING.—Glorious Whig Triumphs!—We are riding rough shod over the enemy. Every where our banners wave in triumph. With all the efforts—with all the money—with all the rascality of Tory Ingersoll against us, we have carried five out of the seven wards of the Northern Liberties, and swept the hitherto strong Locofoco district of Germantown by the largest majority ever given before.

Carlisle Herald.

THE FIRST GUN FROM ILLINOIS.—An extract of a letter from Vandalia says: "There was an election held in this precinct to-day. The Harrison ticket was elected by a majority of 42. Last fall the Van Buren ticket was elected by a majority of 30 votes. Total Whig gain 72 votes. The candidates were run on strictly party grounds."

The scattering guns, that break upon the ear, one after another, from all parts of the country, tell a glorious tale for the Whigs. The great Spring engagement, in which many of the states are to try their powers, is now near at hand. Instead of an occasional gun, there will then be a loud and general roar of heavy artillery, broken at frequent intervals by the tremendous shouts of the victorious Whigs.

NEW YORK REGISTRY.—Notwithstanding the rumors to the contrary, Gov. Seward approved, on Monday, the bill for registering the qualified voters of New York city. The bill, as far as dividing the city into small districts so as to allow the voting to be done in one day, goes into immediate operation, and will apply to the charter election, which takes place on Wednesday week next. The commissioners to carry out the law were immediately appointed by the Governor, and we learn from the New York Commercial, entered upon their duties yesterday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TREASURY NOTE BILL.

The Treasury Note bill was discussed in Committee last night until nine o'clock. All of the amendments proposed were lost in committee, and the bill was reported to the House by Mr. Dawson, the chairman of the committee, soon after nine. The Previous Question was moved by Mr. Eastman of N. H. and the Main Question sustained, 105 to 79 The bill was ordered to be engrosed by a stronger vote.

Mr. Proffit moved a recommitment of the bill with instructions to report $150,000 for the continuation of the Cumberland Road in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. The motion was lost, and the bill was finally passed, 126 to 66. The final vote was not declared until half past ten, when a motion was submitted that when the House adjourn it adjourn to meet again on Monday next.—Eighty members were in favour of the motion, and but twenty nine against it, but for want of a quorum the motion was not carried. The House adjourned before eleven.

NEW JERSEY QUESTION.

The motion to print certain reports and papers in reference to the New Jersey contested election, came before the House in order during the morning hour.

Mr. Medill continued his speech in reviw of the speeches of Messrs. Botts and others, and in defence of the report of the majority of the committee on elections and of the decision of the majority of the House in the admission of the five Administration members to the seats claimed by others.

The orders of the day were called at the expiration of the morning hour, and a bill for the relief of Philip Philiebrown, of Maine, passed after a discussion.

No other business was done and the House adjourned at an early hour.
