POETRY.

WHIG SONG.

I'll sing you a new whig song, made to a good old rhyme—
Of a fine true-hearted gentleman, all of the olden time:—
By birth and blood—by kith and kin—a sound true whig was he—
For his father signed the CHARTER, that made our country free;—
Like a fine true hearted gentleman,
All of the olden time.

In youth upon the tented field, his laurels he did gain—
With Wayne, he fought some battles, and never fought in vain—
In peace, the quiet Statesmen he—but when the war arose,
He buckled on his armour, to meet his country's foes:—
Like a fine true hearted gentleman,
All of the olden time.

And when he served his country well, in Senate and in field,
The honor that awaited him, most freely did he yield—
He turned him to his home again, and sought a farmer's toils,
For though he'd FILL'D THE OFFICE he never took the SPOILS;
Like a fine true hearted gentleman,
All of the olden time.

And when the People, in their might, have put their solemn ban;
Upon the arch Magician, and all his Tory clan;—
To manage well their State affairs, with one accord they'll send,
Like another Cincinnatus, for the Hero of North Bend:
Like a fine true hearted gentleman,
All of the olden time.

Let every sound true-hearted whig now raise his voice on high—
And for the triumph of the cause, join Freedom's loudest cry—
Come to the fight—we'll win the field away with doubts and fears—
The People's man is Harrison—Let's give him three good cheers:
Like a fine true hearted gentleman,
All of the olden time.

Ned, has been living for some years near the Trappe, and Oxford, and is well known in those neighborhoods. He has for several years, been in the habit of going to Baltimore, and staying one or two months at a time, and I think there is no doubt, but what he will make for that place, so soon as an opportunity offers.—Captains of boats, sailing from the lower part of Talbot, are particularly requested to keep a lookout, that he does not get on board their boats.
