POETRY.

Written for the Philadel. Saturday Courier.

ACROSTIC.

Greece boasted many a classic sage,
Encircled wreaths around each brow;
On history's brilliant, deathless page,
Refulgent glows her wisdom now.
Great warriors in her cause have bled,
Entombed in memory sleep her dead.

Will Freedom's incense cease to blaze
Around the altar of that name?
Shall not a patriot share our praise?
He who won the crown of fame.

In glory has his sun gone down,
No cloud obscures his golden beams,
Gone to receive a brighter crown;
To drink of pure celestial streams,—
Oh brave Virginia's noblest son,
None other than a Washington! A. F., JR.

Baltimore, 25th April, 1840.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

The subscriber is authorized to sell that well known farm, in Talbot county, known by the name of the Dover Bridge Farm, it is delightfully situated on Choptank river, within four miles of the town of Easton, containing four hundred acres of land, more or less, and capable of being made one of the most productive farms in the county; it is thought unnecessary to give a description of the improvements, as any person wishing to purchase will be shewn the premises by the tenant on the farm.—Their not being a sufficiency of Timber land on the Talbot side of the river, for the supply of the farm, the purchaser can have an opportunity of supplying the deficiency by purchasing a tract of wood land, a short distance up the river on the Caroline side, containing one hundred and sixty acres more or less, which has always been kept for the supply of the Dover farm aforesaid.

Also a farm in Caroline county a very short distance down the river and in sight of the Bridge, containing four hundred acres of land more or less with a proportionable part of wood land.

The above real estate, will be sold on accommodating terms, to good purchasers, and indubitable titles given upon the payment of the purchase money.

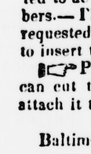

If the above property is not sooner disposed of at private sale, it will on the 19th day of May next, be offered at public sale at the Court House door in Easton,—further particulars then made known.
