POETRY.

THE HERO OF TIPPECANOE.

Written for the Young Men's National Convention, at Baltimore, May 4, 1840, and sung on that occasion, by part of the Massachusetts and part of the Baltimore delegation, on the roof of the Baltimore Twelfth Ward Log Cabin.

BY ALONZO LEWIS, ESQ. OF LYNN, MASS.

TUNE—'The Campbell's are coming.'

Here's health to the freeborn, and health to the brave!
We will chant the bold pæan o'er mountain and wave!
And beneath the broad stripes and the stars in the blue,
We will follow the HERO OF TIPPECANOE!

Brave HARRISON, boys, has come out of the West!
Of all the wide border his steed is the best!
He will try a bold race with the hack of poor Van;
He has always been victor, and beat him who can!

Here's health, &c.

To arrive at the goal, he need try but one heat!
There is but one race where he e'er can be beat.
Your Swartwouts and Prices may win in that fray,
But brave 'Hal' will not run with our moneys away!

Here's health, &c.

In the list of our chieftans are many good names
But none shines more bright than the victor of Thames!
And on glory's fair scroll, 'mid the brave and the rare,
There is none but our WASHINGTON sparkles more fair.

Here's health, &c.

'The Campbells are coming!'—the Campbells are come!
We have waked at the sound of the trumpet and drum!
From mountain and sea-shore, from prairie and plain,
Our thousands pour in, and they come not in vain!

Here's health, &c.

We have sworn on the altar, like patriots true,
The faith of our compact in truth to renew.
And we lift the starred flag, like our banner of yore,
Our judges and counsellors good to restore!*

Here's health, &c.

With shoulder to shoulder, and hand firm in hand,
By the man of our choice, the brave Hero, we stand!
And with Scott and with Tyler, with Webster and Clay,
All good men and true, we can sure win the day!

Here's health, &c.

And when the fight's done, and we stand at the door,
He will welcome us all to the 'Log Cabin' floor!
And with store of 'hard cider' and plenty of cheer,
He will prove that his heart is both brave and sincere!

Here's health, &c.

* 'I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning.'—Isa. 1. 26.

To the Public.

The subscriber has settled himself in Easton for the purpose of carrying on the

TAILORING

BUSINESS,

in all its various branches. He has just returned from Baltimore with a new and improved system for cutting garments, which he can safely say is superior to any other now in use. He would therefore invite his old customers and the public generally to give him a call, as he feels confident that he will be able to give general satisfaction. Should any garment fail to fit, another of equal value will be furnished in its place. His work shall not be surpassed for style and durability by any, as he is determined to give his business his entire attention and study. He has made arrangements to receive the Fashions as soon as they are published. His shop is at the old stand next door to the Easton Hotel and nearly opposite the store of Messrs. Loveday and Mullikin.

Notice.

The subscriber, grateful for the past patronage of his friends and the public, has now the pleasure of announcing to them, that in addition to his Grist Mill, he has erected a Saw-Mill of the best materials and workmanship, thereby ennabling him to accommodate those disposed to favour him with their custom, with great despatch,—his terms are as follows—

From ¼ inch to 2 inches, $1 per hundred.
" 2 inch upward, 75 cts per do.
or half the lumber for cutting.

No lumber can be removed from the mill without being settled for.

☞ Wanted at the Mill a man to take charge of the saw, and who understands the business of a Sawyer.—To such a person liberal wages will be given.

AN ORDINANCE to prevent the parading Ungelded Horses on the public square or along the streets of Easton.

Whereas it has been represented to the board of Commissioners by Petition, that the citizens are desirous that an ordinance should be passed prohibiting persons from leading and parading ungelded horses along the streets, to the great danger and annoyance of persons in the streets, Therefore be it Enacted and Ordained by the Commissioners of Easton duly elected and qualified, that from and after the publication of this ordinance it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, to lead and parade for show, any ungelded horse, in or along any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the town of Easton, or on the public square near the Court House and if any person or persons shall from and after the publication hereof, lead and parade for show any ungelded horse, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay such sum, not to be less than five, nor more than fifteen dollars, as shall or may be imposed by the Commissioners for each and every offence.

And be it further enacted and ordained, that if any person so offending as aforesaid shall be a slave, the penalty or fine aforesaid, shall, and may be demanded, sued for, and recovered from or against the master, mistress, or employer of such slaves in like manner, as if the said master, mistress, or employer had been guilty of the offence.

A Supplement to the Ordinance, entitled an ordinance to prevent the parading ungelded horses on the public square or along the streets of Easton.

Whereas, it has been found by experience that the original ordinance to which this is a supplement, is not sufficiently rigorous to prevent persons from parading ungelded horses for show within the limits of the town.

Be it therefore enacted and ordained by the Commissioners of the Town of Easton duly elected and qualified, that from and after the publication of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, to lead, ride, or parade any ungelded horse for show on the public square, or along any of the streets, lanes or alleys within the limits of the town.

And be it enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid that if any person or persons, shall presume to lead, ride, or parade any ungelded horse, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, every person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay all such fines and forfeitures as are imposed by the original ordinance, to which this is a supplement.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Town of Easton on Thursday April 23, 1840 the foregoing ordinance and supplement thereto, were ordered to be printed in both papers published in this town.

TO BE LEASED

For the ensuing year—about three fifths of

Cloras Point Farm,

in Talbot county,—at present occupied, by Mr. Leonard,—together with the

DWELLING AND

OTHER HOUSES,

which are embraced in said portion.

This portion of the Farm is already, under three separate enclosures containing each, a little more than one hundred thousand corn hills—and convenient, in respect to the houses.

The above Farm is beautifully situated on the Choptank River—and besides the advantages of a plentiful supply of wild fowl and oysters, and a well of excellent water, the lands are rich and productive!—In fine this establishment offers every inducement of health, wealth & comfort for a very reasonable share of energy, and judgment.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber expecting to leave this State, offers his farm for sale. Possession given at the end of this year, with the privilege of seeding wheat or hauling manure any time through the year; this farm is beautifully situated on the waters of broad creek in Talbot county, two miles from the Royal Oak, being bounded on the north entirely by said creek which needs no fencing, it abounds with wild fowl, fish and oysters, the latter of the first quality, can be had in the most severe frost by cutting through the ice and taking them up with rakes, and within a few rods of the house; the land is in a high state of cultivation and first rate wheat land. The buildings are a DWELLING OF BRICK, two stories and Brick Kitchen adjoining, a quarter; 40 foot barn, stable, carriage house, corn house, workshop, smoke house, ice house & poultry house, all but a few years old & in good repair, so that the purchaser has nothing to do but enter into a profitable cultivation; it is laid off in six shifts contains 350 acres, including wood land or thereabouts, has been well limed and clover seeded this spring, a locust nursery which in a few years will be profitable; young apple and peach orchards, of different kinds of fruit, with pears, cherries, and other fruit of good quality, a plenty of timber land, two bricked wells of first rate water not surpassed in the county, very healthy; to prove which my physicians bill for 17 years has not exceeded 30 dollars for the whole time with 15 in family, an industrious man who could raise half the purchase money, could be indulged with annual payments for the balance so that it could be met by the profits of said farm—if it is not sold at private sale before Tuesday the 9th of June next—it will on that day be offered at public sale, at the Court House door in Easton, Maryland.
