EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, May 23.

FOR PRESIDENT
William Henry Harrison,
OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT
John Tyler.
OF VIRGINIA.

POLITICAL NOTICE.

Young Whigs of Caroline!

The Young Whigs of Caroline are requested to meet in Denton on Tuesday the 2d of June. An earnest appeal is made to all those young men who are favorable to the election of "Harrison and Tyler" punctually to attend on that day. There will be presented to them business of the utmost importance as members of the Whig party. One or two speeches may be expected in the Court House The meeting will organize at 4 P. M.

MANY YOUNG WHIGS

WHIG CONVENTIONS.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the Whig Convention, which assembled at Hagerstown, Washington County (inserted in our paper of to day) that a resolution was adopted proposing to hold three several Conventions of the Whigs of Maryland, between this and the next October election. One on the Eastern Shore to be held at Easton—one near the Chesapeake and Potomac Counties of both shores, to be held at Annapolis, and one in the interior Counties of the Western Shore, at Hagerstown.

The Whig Convention for this Congressional District meet at Centreville on Wednesday the Third day of June next, to nominate an Electoral Candidate for the district, when the subject of the proposed Convention at Easton, we presume will be laid before them and responded to.

The corner stone of a new Episcopal Church, to be built in this town, and called Christ Church, was laid on Thursday last, with the usual imposing ceremonies. The large concourse of citizens, of this and the adjacent counties, assembled on this interesting occasion, were eloquently addressed by the Rev. Dr. Mason.

The Spring Term of Talbot County Court, commenced on Monday last.—Present, Judge Chambers, Hopper and Eccleston. The Court still in session—we shall endeavor to give the proceedings in our next.

Appointments by the President and confirmed by the Senate.

Churchill C. Cambreleng, of New York, Minister Plenipotentiary to Russia.
John M. Niles, of Connecticut, Post Master General, vice Amos Kendall—promoted to the Editorship of the Extra Globe.

CHARGE TO SPAIN.—The Senate, on Wednesday, confirmed the nomination of Aaron Vail, to be Charge des Affairs to the Court of Spain.

THE WHEAT CROP.—The Frederick (Md.) Herald of Saturday has the following paragraph.

THE WHEAT CROP.—Several gentlemen from the country, inform us that the fly is making dreadful ravages upon the wheat crop, and that upon examination they find that the prospect of a fine crop is not about to be realised.

WILLIAM M. PRICE ARRESTED.—William M. Price, late U. S. District Attorney, who has lately returned to this country from France, was yesterday arrested at the suit of the United States, by the district marshall. After some hours' detention he was liberated on bail to the amount of $82 000, which he readily procured.—[N. Y. Cour.

Mr. Calhoun in a speech in the Senate, a few days ago said, that it must be admitted that there had been great, VERY GREAT EXTRAVAGANCE, in the administration of the government and that Thirteen Millions should be enough to pay the expenses of the Government.

Important Rumor.—It is rumored that Judge James Madison Porter is about resigning his office, for the purpose of taking high ground for General Harrison! The loco focos here are struck all in a heap at this rumour, and at the result of the Bedford election!—Lancaster Exam.

Naval Court Martial.—We learn that Lieut. Charles H. McBlair has been honorably acquitted by the Naval General Court Martial sitting in Philadelphia, of the charges preferred against him by Commodore H. E. Ballard, commanding the Naval Station at Baltimore.

The Fredericksburg (Md.) Arena states that the sum overchecked by B. W Greene, who was concerned with Dabney, the defaulting teller; is ascertained to be three hundred and ninety-on thousand dollars.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

The Whig Delegates from Harford and Baltimore counties and part of Carroll county, met on Monday, and nominated Dr. Jacob A. Preston, of Hartford, as the Elector for President and Vice President for that Congressional District. There are now eight Electors nominated, friendly to Gen. Wm. H. Harrison and John Tyler, as follows:

DAVID HOFFMAN, for the Western Shore.
JOHN L. KERR, for the Eastern Shore.
THOS. A. SPENCE, of Worcester Co.
RICHARD J. BOWIE, of Montgomery Co.
GEORGE HOWARD, of Anne Arundel Co.
JOHN P. KENNEDY, of Baltimore city.
JACOB A. PRESTON, of Harford Co.
JAMES M. COALE, of Frederick City.

The Seventh Congressional District have not yet nominated their Candidate.

A TREMENDOUS EXPLOSION.—We learn from the St. Louis Bulletin, that on Sunday evening, the 10th inst. about nine o'clock, an out building of the St. Louis Arsenal situated about two miles below the city, blew up. In the building there were about 100.000 cartridges, all of which, together with the house, were completely demolished. In an adjacent building there was an immense quantity of gunpowder, which was only saved, by the cool and intrepid conduct of the soldiers. The loss is estimated at about $10 000—supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE FAIR.

Mr. Graham, Sir:—

Not having seen you at the fair, I will take the liberty to notice it briefly, through your columns

Although you were absent I was there. Yes, I was there, and say it proudly too, for I deem it an honor, as it was surely a pleasure, to see and to be seen, mingling in that throng of beauty, intellect and taste.

At an early hour on Tuesday morning the rooms in which the Fair was holden, were filled to overflowing. The great reservoirs of our county were broken up, and poured forth from various points its Fair inhabitants, yet still they come. Our sister counties, Dorchester and Queen Ann's, were represented, and that too by as ruby lips and dark eyes as ever thralled a heart. But enough of this or it may be, you will go mad in remembering what you have lost, and I turn sentimentalist, after having been proof against the wiles of Cupid, for half a century.

It is not necessary to say, more of the rooms and the articles, than, that every thing was as it should be, and that the tact in selling, was equal to the taste in preparing.

The Concert came off last night and was truly a splendid affair, both in point of attendance and performance, and particularly the latter. How say you, particularly the latter? Why? Was not the house well filled? It is even so, but the House would have held a few more persons, whilst the performance, I do not conceive, could have been improved.

T. R. W.

Easton, May 22, 1840.

[For the Easton Gazette.]

Nothing seems to mark more truly the spirit which animates the contending parties at this time, than the contrast presented by the conduct of each, with regard to the assassination of Laughlin, one of the Marshals of the late procession in Baltimore. The course pursued by the Whigs, has been forbearing, temperate, and dignified in the highest degree.—Not that there has been any approach to apathy on their part, with respect to an act so truly diabolical, an outrage upon humanity so fiendlike; a deed which the honest common sense of every man, must regard as destitute of the merest shadow of palliation. The news of that 'foul & most unnatural murder,' which, at the instant of its commission, flew "on the wings of the wind," excited in every Whig bosom, feelings deep, painful and abiding—feelings more of sorrow than of anger"—more of horror and astonishment at such a feat of unlooked for depravity, than of vengeance against its perpetrators That the purlieus of that city vomit forth every morning, wretches, who would not hesitate at the commission of any crime was known to every one; but it was no less known that the villany of these creatures, is not their pastime, but their trade, their avocation, their veritable means of support. Hence an instantaneous conviction flashed on every mind, that the murder was perpetrated by HIRED RUFFIANS,—and hired by whom?—The Whigs have done wisely in leaving the public to draw their own deliberate and unbiassed conclusions on this painful subject,—they have acted nobly—(and thank Heaven! the very opposite of what their opponents would have done)—in abstaining from any attempt to make political capital out of the affair.—It is all the better. The retribution which is due to the atrocious instigators of the deed—even now secretly loathed and execrated by the more respectable of their own party—though silent, will not be the less sure.

The contributions which have been made for the support of the wife and children of Laughlin, amount to a handsome sum, and it appears more will yet be given. The spontaneous bounty to the young widow and her infant orphans, of the distant delegations,—that of Massachusetts, particularly, which alone gave $1000, is beyond all praise. I can hardly conceive of a spectacle more impressive or of more thrilling moral sublimity—than the one exhibited by the immense train that followed the deceased to his grave.

Now mark the course of the Government party! Has there a syllable fallen from either of their presses in the monumental city, disapproving in the slightest degree of this cold blooded murder of a man, who has been shown to have given no offence to his assassins even of the most trivial kind? The Republican a few days since, made a disgusting attempt to palliate, if not to excuse it wholly, by alleging that there was a banner carried in the Whig procession, having on it a device or carricature not very flattering to the President, although he well knew that the villanous scheme which led to the murder, must have been planned long before such a banner was known to exist! Has there been any attempt to rid the Party of the infamy of the transaction, by a declaration that the fellows who perpetrated it were a set of rowdies not sanctioned by its leaders, or connected with their general movements." No such attempt has been made; and, from all that has passed, the conclusion is irresistibly forced upon every candid mind, that the Government press in Baltimore DARES neither to condemn the act nor disown connexion with the actors for good and substantial reasons which are,—That the ruffians implicated will in such a case CUT the party altogether,—or worse yet, that in the parlance of London thieves, they will peach—that is they will let the cat out of the bag as to who set them on:

If the Administration presses, especially those of Baltimore, dare to denounce the murder of Laughlin, its perpetrators, instigators, and abettors as they ought, and as all honest men would—let them do it!—Let them clear themselves from the charge of subsidizing cut throat violence in support of their distempered and desperate cause if they can?

DAMON.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Clipper.

WASHINGTON, May 19, 1840.

Mr. Niles, late Senator from Connecticut, commences his duties as Post Master General forthwith.

Churchill C. Cambreleng will have a fine time of it as minister to Russia.—How nicely he will escape the hot weather. Of course you are aware that the Earl of Mulgrave is in our city. He came on Saturday evening, a bearer of despatches to Mr. Fox on the North Eastern Boundary Question, I presume.

Last evening the venerable Ex-President Adams accidentally fell upon the floor and dislocated his shoulder. It was owing to a small rent in the matting with which his foot became entangled.—He is, however, at his post this morning, with his arm in a sling.

The United States Gazette says: "New counterfeits on the United States Bank, of the denomination of Ten Dollars, were shown to us on Wednesday evening. Their general appearance is calculated to deceive those not familiar with bank notes.

The impression is not so heavy as on the genuine notes, particularly of the heads, and Pennsylvania coat of arms; the latter at the foot of the note, nearly indistinct and the portraits poor imitations.

Date January 1, 1839, letter A. payable to bearer. Signatures of S. Mason, and G W. Fairman, for Cashier and President, smaller and not so free as in the genuine, but still pretty good imitations.

The banking House at the top is very like the genuine.

FIRE.—Yesterday morning the large flouring mill, the property of Mr. Nathan Tyson, situated about three miles from the city on the Falls Road, was completely destroyed by fire. We learn that the fire was communicated from one of the kils by accident, and before the services of our city firemen, who went out with their apparatus, could be made effectual, the building was consumed, and but little of its contents saved.

HARRISON CONVENTION.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Delegates to the Convention for the 6th Election District of Maryland met, for the purpose of nominating a suitable person for elector of President and Vice President of the United States and favorable to the election of Gen. W. H. HARRISON, of Ohio as President, and JOHN TYLER, of Virginia, as Vice President.

The meeting was duly organised and the following officers appointed, viz.

Dr. Jacob Baer, of Frederick Co. President, John Shearer, of Washington Co. Vice President, and Elias Davis, Secretary.

In answer to the call of delegates a full representation appeared from each county—and after a full and free interchange of opinion among the members, and an eloquent, thrilling and appropriate address by Edward A. Lynch, Esq. of Frederick, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, that James M. Coale, Esq. be, and he is hereby unanimously recommended by this Convention to the support of the people of this State as one of the Electors of President and Vice President of the U. States.

Resolved, that it be recommended to the people of this State, to form three grand Political Conventions, the first upon the Eastern Shore, the second at Annapolis, and the third at Hagerstown, at which places the whole body of the people as well as the Electors for the whole State are requested to attend at such times as the Electors themselves may designate, for the purpose of discussing the great questions which divide the nation.

Resolved, that the grateful thanks of the people of this Congressional District be returned to the Chief and other Marshalls of the city of Baltimore, as well as to the citizens generally for their prompt attention, politeness and hospitality at the late Whig triumphal procession in that city.

Resolved, that the proceedings of this Convention be signed by the President and other officers and published in all the papers of this State opposed to the present administration.

JACOB BAER, Pres't.
JOHN SHEARER, Vice Pres't
Elias Davis, Secretary.

ARRIVAL OF THE BRITISH QUEEN.

SIXTEEN DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival at New York of the steamship British Queen, which sailed from Portsmouth on the 1st of May, files of English papers up to that date have been received. The Queen arrived about 3 o'clock on Saturday morning, making the voyage from pilot to pilot, in thirteen and a half days.

From the New York journals before us we make up the following interesting detail of intelligence:

Flour and Wheat had both declined; American flour had brought 28s in bond, but that price could no longer be obtained—the nominal quotation for the best Western Canal, being 37s per barrel.

American Flour was selling, at the latest dates, at 27s 6d, duty paid, at which rates 16.000 barrels had changed hands during the week ending the 28th ult.

The weather was very fine in England with a good prospect of large crops.

The Cotton Market had been steady, and holders having evinced more firmness an advance of 1-4 d had been obtained on the lower and middling qualities. The advices from the manufacturing districts are rather more encouraging, there being a better demand both for goods and yarns without however, much improvement in prices.

The London Money Market was dull; money very abundant at 3 1-2 per cent. without any demand for it. American stocks remain without demand, confidence in them being shaken by the recent events in Pennsylvania, and the fear of difficulties between the United States and England on the subject of the Maine Boundary. Some purchases of Ohio, N. York State and City Stocks, have been made for Continental account; but in general, the transactions were limited, except in the United States Bank shares, which had improved a little since the accounts of the recent proceedings of the Pensylvania Legislature with reference to the Bank—being now £15 10s. a 16., at which rates sales to some extent had been effected. The amount of bullion in the Bank of England was gradually increasing.

ARREST OF LEAVIS IN PARIS.—Galignani's (Paris) Messenger contains the following paragraph, announcing the arrest of Hosea Leavis, late Cashier of the Schulkill Bank at Philadelphia:

"The Prefect of Police having been officiall informed on Monday last, that a person named Hosea John Leavis, the Cashir of the banking house of Messrs. Schuykill, at Philadelphia, had absconded from the United States with more than four millions of franks, and was supposed to ave proceeded to Paris, gave such instructions for tracing him that he was arrestd on Tuesday, at No. 3, in the Rue Ieydeau, where he had just arrived from Bordeaux, and was living in a small apartment, with every appearance of parsimon, in order, as it is conjectured, to avoid suspicion. The greater part of the stolen property, and a large quantity of account books and papers were found in his ossession. The prisoner was immediatly taken to the depot of the prefecture and information was sent to the American embassy."

ADJUSTMENT OF THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce, 2d editon of Saturday says.—"It is with heartfelt satisfaction we find that the delicate and difficult question of our North Eastern Boundary, is, in all probability, adjusted. It appears, that the award of the King of the Netherlands which made the river St. Johns the boundary between the two countries, is to be the basis of the new arrangement, and that as an indemnity to Maine, for any supposed rights she may possess to land north of the St. Johns the British Government is to pay her £200 000, or about half a million of dollars. Most sincerely do we rejoice in this compromise,—not so much because it is, or is not, a good bargain in itself, a because it removes a bone of contenton which has long existed, and the right to which each party has claimed with so much confidence, that it was impossible to say when or how the affair could be amicably adjusted. It would ill become us to object to the arrangement said to have been agreed on, since a reference to our files will show that it is exactly the arrangement that we recommended, save that we did not specify the amount which England ought to pay to Maine by way of compromising her claims to the lands relinquished.

ORIGIN OF THE TERMS "HARD CIDER" AND LOG CABIN."

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Republican, a prominent Van Buren paper, speaking sneeringly of Gen. HARRISON, says:

'GIVE HIM A BARREL OF HARD CIDER, AND SETTLE A PENSION OF TWO THOSAND A YEAR, AND OUR WORD FOR IT, HE WILL SIT THE REMAINDER OF HIS DAYS CONTENTED IN A LOG CABIN."
