OLD TIPPECANOE.

SUNG AT THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION—MAY 4.

AIR—Rosin the Bow.

Ye Vanites of wide Pennsylvany,
Of every old State and each new;
Take warning, come out with the many,
And vote for old Tippecanoe.

We've a multitude here past endurin,
Blair and Rives both begin to look blue;
They see there's no chance for Van Buren,
In a fight with old Tippecanoe.

New York and New Jersey are ours,
Massachusetts, Connecticut too;
And Vermont, with her green mountain flowers,
Will flourish for Tippecanoe.

We'd a brush in Rhode Island but lately,
Just to shew 'em what Yankees could do;
And we flogged 'em all round most completely
In the name of old Tippecanoe.

In old never tire Virginny,
They have found of good Whigs not a few
She's a State, sirs, I'll hold you a guinea,
Goes hollow for old Tippecanoe.

Who flies to the rescue? Kentucky,
Full of hearts, gallant, loyal and true;
We shall beat them with brave men and lucky,
Harry Clay and old Tippecanoe.

Illinois, Indiana, Ohio,
Their towns and green prairies go through;
And you'll hear, in each nook of the trio,
Loud shouts for Tippecanoe.

On Michigan's shores, in Missouri,
The ball is in motion i s true;
But Benton cries out, in a fury
'Tis rolling towards Tippecanoe.

Mississippi and Louisiana,
Tennessee, Alabama, here view;
They, from each noble hill and Savannah,
Send voices for Tippecanoe.

Should I name all the people are for us,
It is plain I should never get through;
Then rejoice in the prospect before us,
Huzza! for old Tippecanoe!

But before I quite finish my ditty,
Let me claim, patriot Maryland, you;
And hail! noble monument city,
Where we gather for Tippecanoe.

Trustee.

To the Public.

The subscriber has settled himself in Easton for the purpose of carrying on the

TAILORING

BUSINESS,

in all its various branches. He has just returned from Baltimore with a new and improved system for cutting garments, which he can safely say is superior to any other now in use. He would therefore invite his old customers and the public generally to give him a call, as he feels confident that he will be able to give general satisfaction. Should any garment fail to fit, another of equal value will be furnished in its place. His work shall not be surpassed for style and durability by any, as he is determined to give his business his entire attention and study. He has made arrangements to receive the Fashions as soon as they are published. His shop is at the old stand next door to the Easton Hotel and nearly opposite the store of Messrs Loveday and Mullikin.

AN ORDINANCE to prevent the parading Ungelded Horses on the public square or along the streets of Easton

Whereas it has been represented to the board of Commissioners by Petition, that the citizens are desirous that an ordinance should be passed prohibiting persons from leading and parading ungelded horses along the streets, to the great danger and annoyance of persons in the streets, Therefore be it Enacted and Ordained by the Commissioners of Easton duly elected and qualified, that from and after the publication of this ordinance it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, to lead and parade for show, any ungelded horse, in or along any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the town of Easton, or on the public square near the Court House and if any person or persons shall from and after the publication hereof, lead and parade for show any ungelded horse, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay such sum, not to be less than five, nor more than fifteen dollars, as shall or may be imposed by the Commissioners for each and every offence.

And be it further enacted and ordained, that if any person so offending as aforesaid shall be a slave, the penalty or fine aforesaid, shall, and may be demanded, sued for, and recovered from or against the master, mistress, or employer of such slaves in like manner, as if the said master, mistress, or employer had been guilty of the offence.

A Supplement to the Ordinance, entitled an ordinance to prevent the parading ungelded horses on the public square or along the streets of Easton.

Whereas, it has been found by experience, that the original ordinance to which this is a supplement, is not sufficiently rigorous to prevent persons from parading ungelded horses for show within the limits of the town.

Be it therefore enacted and ordained by the Commissioners of the Town of Easton duly elected and qualified, that from and after the publication of this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, to lead, ride, or parade any ungelded horse for show on the public square, or along any of the streets, lanes or alleys within the limits of the town.

And be it enacted and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that if any person or persons, shall presume to lead, ride, or parade any ungelded horse, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, every person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay all such fines and forfeitures as are imposed by the original ordinance, to which this is a supplement.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Town of Easton on Thursday April 23, 1840 the foregoing ordinance and supplement thereto, were ordered to be printed in both papers published in this town.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber expecting to leave this State, offers his farm for sale. Possession given at the end of this year, with the privilege of seeding wheat or hauling manure any time through the year; this farm is beautifully situated on the waters of broad creek in Talbot county, two miles from the Royal Oak, being bounded on the north entirely by said creek which needs no fencing, it abounds with wild fowl, fish and oysters, the latter of the first quality, can be had in the most severe frost by cutting through the ice and taking them up with rakes, and within a few rods of the house; the land is in a high state of cultivation and first rate wheat land. The buildings are a DWELLING OF BRICK, two stories and Brick Kitchen adjoining, a quarter; 40 foot barn, stable, carriage house, corn house, workshop, smoke house, ice house & poultry house, all but a few years old & in good repair, so that the purchaser has nothing to do but enter into a profitable cultivation; it is laid off in six shifts contains 450 acres including wood land or thereabouts, has been well limed and clover seeded this spring, a locust nursery which in a few years will be profitable; young apple and peach orchards, of different kinds of fruit, with pears, cherries, and other fruit of good quality, a plenty of timber land, two bricked wells of first rate water not surpassed in the county, very healthy; to prove which my physicians bill for 17 years has not exceeded 50 dollars for the whole time with 15 in family, an industrious man who could raise half the purchase money, could be indulged with annual payments for the balance so that it could be met by the profits of said farm—if it is not sold at private sale before Tuesday the 9th of June next—it will on that day be offered at public sale, at the Court House door in Easton, Maryland.
