EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, June 20.

FOR PRESIDENT
William Henry Harrison,
OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT
John Tyler.
OF VIRGINIA.

WHIGS OF MARYLAND, EASTERN & WESTERN SHORES, AND ALL OTHERS TRULY DEVOTED TO THE PRINCIPLES OF CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTY—ONE AND ALL ATTEND.

A grand rally will be held at Easton, Talbot County, Maryland, on the 15th July next, devoted to the patriotic purpose of aiding in the rescue of our country from the present misrule and wickedness, which like a night-mare now paralizes the energies of a free and enlightened people. It is hoped and expected that several of the most distinguished and patriotic Statesmen of our Country will be present—such as Clay, Webster Preston and other illustrious champions of the liberty, honour and prosperity of their country—again we say, one and all come to the rescue of your country and a hearty, Eastern Shore welcome will meet you.

THE GREAT CENTRAL WHIG CONVENTION FOR THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Talbot County, held by adjournment, this 16th day of June 1840, at the "NORTH BEND" in Easton, the following Resolutions were unanimously passed, and ordered to be inserted in all the Whig papers of the State:—

1st. Resolved, that the Whigs of Talbot county, do adopt the plan, heretofore suggested by the State Central Committee and recently approved at a Convention held at Centreville, in Queen Ann's county, on the 3rd inst. for holding a general Whig Convention, on the Eastern Shore, at the Town of Easton.

2d Resolved, further, that the Whigs throughout the State and all the friends of HARRISON and TYLER be, and they are hereby invited to assemble in Convention, at Easton, on Wednesday morning, the 15th day of July, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of deliberating and interchanging sentiments on the present condition of the Country and to listen to the opinions and counsel of able and distinguished patriots and statesmen who shall be called to meet and mingle with their fellow citizens for the great purpose of Reform.

3d. Be it further Resolved, that Edward N. Hambleton, George Dudley, Spry Denny, Tench Tilghman, John H. Harris, Joseph Bruff, Thos. C. Nicols, Nicholas Goldsborough, Wm. H. Groome, Samuel Mackey, Jacob C. Willson, Samuel Hambleton, jr. John B. Kerr, Dr Solomon M. Jenkins, Dr. James Dawson, Thomas Tenant, John Stevens, Wm. R. Trippe, John Harrington, Thomas O Martin and Dr. Sydenham T. Russum, be and they are hereby appointed a Committee for carrying into effect the foregoing Resolutions, to nominate and appoint other committees; to provide a suitable and convenient place, in or near the Town of Easton, for the meeting of the Convention and for the reception, not only of their political friends of the Eastern Shore, but of such as may come from any part of the State.

4th Resolved, That the said Committee give invitations in behalf of the Whigs of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, to some of the most able, upright, and patriotic Statesmen and citizens, who, by their wise counsels or eloquent appeals to the hearts of Freemen, may give an impulse to the Great Good cause of the People, in opposition to the Tyranny and misrule of the existing administration.

5th Resolved that the Whig candidates, for the Electorship of President and Vice President of the United States, for the State of Maryland, be especially requested to attend the Convention, and that all the "Tippecanoe Clubs" and other like patriotic associations in the State, be invited to come with their Emblems, Banners and Badges.

NS. GOLDSBOROUGH, Chairman.
Test, SOLOMON M. JENKINS, Sec'ry.

TO THE WHIGS OF MARYLAND.

Fellow Citizens,—

The undersigned Committee, in conformity with certain Resolutions adopted at a Whig Meeting, held at Easton, in Talbot county, on the 16th instant, most respectfully call upon and invite all good Whigs, throughout the State, and all the friends of Harrison, Tyler and Reform, to attend a Convention to be held at Easton, on the Eastern Shore, on Wednesday, the 15th day of July next.

The important object of this Convention will be readily understood by every patriotic citizen, who has observed the course and progress of the existing Administration of the General Government; and, in the proposed Assembly—in safe counsel with some of our wisest and most upright Statesmen and with experienced and eloquent citizens, whose presence we hope to procure, we will, with patriotic freedom, interchange opinions and sentiments upon the condition of our public affairs, and, since reasoning and remonstrances on the part of the People and their Representatives have proved vain, resolve to exert our might, in one great and united effort, through the ballot box, to ensure Reform and Redress

The undersigned, in further compliance with the duty assigned them, request the attendance of all the Whig Candidates of Maryland for the Electorship of President and Vice President of the United States; and they invite the "Tippecanoe Clubs" and all like patriotic associations formed in the State for the support of Harrison and Reform, to come to their friends, with their Emblems, Banners and Badges.

The Committee beg leave to inform their Whig friends, that the Convention will be opened at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that Committees will be ready to receive and conduct them, as they arrive in Easton, to the place of meeting, and to advise and aid them in procuring suitable quarters.

July 20th, 1840.

The Rust and Scab have done great injury to the Wheat crop in this county—many fields will not pay the expence of cutting, and this too on some of the best land in the county. Our Farmers say, Talbot will not yield half a crop this season.

GREAT CELEBRATION AT FORT MEIGS.—The Hon. Thomas Ewing, who presided over the deliberations of the vast multitude assembled at Fort Meigs, passed through Albany on Tuesday morning. He stated to the editor of the Evening Journal, that Gen. Harrison addressed the people with great effect. He spoke an hour and a quarter, with such clearness and strength of voice as to have been distinctly heard, in the open field, by from twenty to thirty thousand people.

ANOTHER SCREW LOOSE.—We have already chronicled the backing out of three Van Buren candidates for elector in Tennessee. A fourth, W. G. Childress has just followed in the footsteps of his retreating predecessors.—N. Y. Times.

ROCKVILLE, Montgomery County, (Md) JUNE 13—Evening.

The county Convention assembled in force to day, and nominated Messrs. Gitting, Gaither, England, and Goit, for the Legislative ticket. The Whigs of Montgomery are united, and she will add to her former majorities of three hundred for the Whigs, Harrison and Reform.

FROM MICHIGAN.

A Letter received in this city from a gentleman in Michigan, under date of May 29, says: "I have just returned from a tour through the southern and middle tiers of counties in our State and a portion of Northern Indiana, and can assure you that converts from the Destructives are coming over to the hero of Tippecanoe. In Kalamazoo, Calhoun, Jackson and Washtenaw, they are turning almost by scores."

Another letter from the interior of the State, says:—"All's well."—[Nat. Intel.

The Philadelphia North American says—Col. Isaac Wayne, who presided at the late Harrison festival, in Chester county, is the only son of General Anthony Wayne. He has represented his native county several years in the State Legislature and in Congress, and was an active and strenuous supporter of General Jackson, in 1828. It was owing very much to his influence that that county then gave its vote to General Jackson, and we are pleased to find that the same influence is about to be exerted against his successor. The enfeebled health of Col. Wayne has prevented him from taking an active part in political life, and nothing but the belief that it is the duty of every man in the community to exercise such influence as he possesses to change the present state of affairs, could have on the present occation drawn him from his retirement.

The same paper says—

We are informed by a respectable gentleman from Chester County, that of the 150 Delegates from Phœnixville to the great whig gathering at West Chester on Tuesday last, forty two had seceded from the Van Buren ranks since the 1st of April last.

The Richmond Whig says,—we observe at the head of a Federal paper in Pennsylvania, in the interest of Kendall, the following tickets:

1840.

For President, M. Van Buren.
Vice President, R. M. Johnson.

1844.

For President, T. H. Benton,
Vice President, Amos Kendall.

For the Easton Gazette.

A great deal has been said about the fusing of Iron with Anthracite Coal, in the Philadelphia and other papers in that neighbourhood. Many persons favorable to the mechanic arts, have taken a ride of some miles to witness the operations of furnaces erected for that purpose, and speaking of them in the most favorable terms, which is very laudable and right and should always be done on the introduction and application of every useful and important discovery.

Now it appears to me that, it will be equally right and proper for it to be made known that the enterprising machinists, the Messrs Oxenham's, have erected and have now in operation in this town, an Air furnace for the fusing of Iron with Anthracite Coal and are prepared to furnish all the castings and to do all the work in their line, needed by the Agriculturalists and others.

I have witnessed the operations of their machinery, examined their fixtures and castings, and take pleasure in saying, that they appear very complete, and that such Citizens are an acquisition to any place in which they may be located, and hope they will receive the encouragement to which they are entitled.

Correspondence of the Balt. Clipper.

Washington, June 15, 1840.

This morning in the House, as soon as the journal had been read, Mr. Jones of Va. was upon his feet, and moved a suspension of the rules for the purpose of going on with the Independent Treasury Bill.

Mr. Wise asked his colleague to give way one moment to allow him an opportunity to offer a resolution fixing the period of adjournment on the 11th of July.

Mr. Jones being afraid that others would also wish to ask favors, refused to give way. The House then went into committee of the Whole on the above bill and ex-Governor Pope, of Kentucky, illuminated his hearers with his ideas of the currency.

In the Senate they are discussing the propriety of rechartering our District Banks. There appears to be a strong prejudice against them, and if they are really rotten, they will get no mercy.

It is the general impression that the opposition in the House will allow the Sub-Treasury. Bill to be reported sometime this week.

Correspondence of the Balt. American.

Washington, June 18th, 1840.

Mr. Bell addressed the House till a late hour last evening, and closed his speech in opposition to the Sub-Treasury bill.

In the Senate, the bill designed to prevent the Slave Trade under the American flag and in American vessels was ordered to be engrossed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House met at 10 o'clock this morning. Mr. Curtis immediately after the reading of the Journal, made known the death of the Hon. ANSON BROWN, of New York. The announcement was a plain, simple and eloquent record of the talents and virtues of a man highly distinguished, and truly amiable in all the walks of life. The House, after adopting the resolution to wear crape for thirty days as a mark of respect, adjourned.

ANOTHER STORM AT NATCHEZ.

Another storm visited Natchez on the 6th instant, causing considerable damage to the neighboring plantations, destroying fences, corn, negro quarters, gins, &c.

The Pennsylvania Legislature finally adjourned at 1 o' clock on Friday morning.—Speaker Hopkins, of the House, delivered a valedictory, in which he stated it to be his intention to retire from public life

WHALE FISHERY. The Nantucket Inquirer has just published a table, from which it appears that upwards of five hundred American vessels are engaged in the whale fishery, of which 364 belong to ports in Massachusetts, with an invested capital of $9,800,900.

REFORM! REFORM!!!

GIVE US A REFORM OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE GOVERNMENT!

LET US HAVE A RETRENCHMENT OF EXPENSES!

Look even to your own State, and within your own borders, and see if it is not IMPERIOUSLY DEMANDED.

At Annapolis, in Maryland, the salary expenses and disbursements, of the Revenue officers, two we think in number, amounts to the sum of $2,002,75, and the whole of the Revenue collected by them amounts to $164,75!

At St. Mary's, the salaries and so on amount to $1,351,45, and the Revenue collected to $106,31.

If their services are worth their salary to their party, ought the whole PEOPLE to be taxed to pay them? Ought we not, fellow citizens, to have a change?

Much value is attached by the Globe and its friends to a letter by Mr. R. N. Wickliffe. We thought it to be from the eminent citizen of Kentucky of that name, such was the admiration bestowed upon it. It seems from the New York American that it is the production of a young man of Kentucky, whose expressed modesty should save him such laudation as he has received merely from his defection to the Whigs and sustenance of the administration—Nat. Gazette.
