POETRY.

From the New Monthly Magazine.

THE FORSAKEN.

He never meets me as of old,
As friends, less cherish'd meet me;
His glance is ever calm and cold,
To welcome, or to greet me.
His sighs ne'er follow where I move,
Or tells what others' sighs do,—
But though his lips ne'er say 'I love,'
I often think his eyes do!

He never turns amid the throng,
Where colder ears will listen;
Or gives one thought to that poor song,
Once made his eyelids glisten:
But sometimes, when, our glances meet,
As looks less warm—more wise do,
Albeit his lips ne'er say 'tis sweet,'
I often think his eyes do!

Oh! brighter smiles than mine may glass
His hours of mirth and sorrow;
And fairer forms than mine may pass
Across his path to-morrow:
But something whispers solace yet,
As stars through darken'd skies do;
His lips ne'er say, 'I don't forget,'
I often think his eyes do!

Wool Carding.

The subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Caroline, Talbot and Dorchester counties, that his

is now in complete repair, and that he is now ready to receive all orders for carding wool, the prices for carding are once through six cents, twice through eight cents.

All orders left at the store of Mr. J. W Cheezum, in Easton; Mr. Isaac Dickson, Dover Bridge, or at the machine a Upper Hunting Creek, Caroline county, will be thankfully received and punctually attended to.

The wool should be put in good order.—Having employed an experienced carder, he solicits a share of public patronage.

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

The heirs and legal representatives of Robert H. Rhodes, late of Talbot county, dec'd, have concluded to dispose of the Valuable Real Estate left by him, and therefore offer at private sale, the following property.

All that Farm or Plantation called 'Landaff,' on which the late Ignatius Rhodes in his life time resided, situate in Bailey's Neck, of Talbot county, and on a branch of Third Haven Creek; immediately adjoining the Lands of the late Thomas Hayward, and within five miles of the town of Easton. This farm contains about 350 acres of land, and has inexhaustible marl beds upon it. The arable land is now in a high state of cultivation.—There is ample timber for the support of the farm. The buildings and out houses are in tolerable condition and with slight expense may be renewed. The fertility of soil, beauty of situation and salubrity of this farm renders it a most desirable purchase, for any one wishing to settle on the salts.—Oysters and fish abound and may be found, almost at the very door of the House.—Mr Wright, the gentleman living on this property, will shew it to any one desirous of purchasing.

—Also—

That Farm situate on the main road leading from Easton to the Trappe, commonly called 'Milton,' purchased by Robert H. Rhodes of Benjamin P. Moore and now occupied by Mr. Harrison Austin.—This farm contains the quantity of 242 acres of land.—The land is of excellent quality and the soil kindly and productive. There are ample marl beds also on this farm. The buildings and out houses may be put in order with slight expense. This farm adjoins the first named estate and a purchaser desiring a large tract the two farms might be easily and advantageously united. A considerable portion of this land binds with the water also. There is ample timber land attached to this farm. The premises will be shewn by Mr. Austin to any one desirous of inspecting them.

—Also—

That House and Lot in the town of Easton adjoining the residence of Samuel Mackey Esq., and now occupied by H. L. Edmondson, Esq. The house is commodious and in good repair, and the property offers inducements to any one desirous of settling in the town.—There is an office attached to the premises—good stables, meat-house, &c. all in good repair.

Also,

A Lot 1 mile from Town, on the road leading to Centreville, containing 17 acres.

—ALSO—

Two tenements in Ivy Town, with a portion of timber and cleared land attached to them. Good and indisputable titles to the above named property will be given. The above property can be had at private sale, at any time before the 14th day of July next, and if not disposed of by that time, will be offered at public sale on that day at 11 o'clock, on the Court House green in the town of Easton.—The Terms of Sale will be—one third of the purchase money cash—one third in twelve, and the balance in twenty four months, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond and approved security.

Possession of any of the above property that may be sold given on the first day of January next. The above property if not sold, will be for rent for the ensuing year.

NOTICE OF THE SALE OF LANDS

The President and Directors of the Branch Bank of the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, at Easton, will offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, the fourteenth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and forty, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, in the forenoon of that day, at the front door of the Court House, in Talbot county, a parcel of land, commonly called The Deep Branch Farm, and another parcel of land thereto adjoining, commonly called the Ogden Farm, both lying in Talbot county, and belonging to the Bank.—The Deep Branch Farm contains about two hundred and fifty-five acres of arable land, and about one hundred, forty six and a quarter acres of valuable wood and timber land.—The Ogden Farm contains about one hundred and sixty seven and an half acres of arable land, and about seventy and an half acres of wood land—all these lands lie not more than two miles from navigable water, and are at this time occupied by tenants—possession will be given to the purchaser, or purchasers at the end of the present year eighteen hundred and forty. The terms of sale are, that the purchaser, or purchasers, must pay the purchase money, by equal instalments, at the end of one, two, three and four years from the day of sale, with interest on the whole principal sum, or sums of money, from the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-one, until the whole be satisfied—satisfactory security for the payment of the purchase money and interest will be required, and no conveyance will be made, before the payment of the purchase money and interest.

New Grocery AND CONFECTIONARY STORE.

The subscribers thankful for past favours and the liberal encouragement extended towards them by their friends and customers generally, beg leave to inform them that they have some eight or ten days past, returned from Baltimore with a fresh supply of goods, in their line such as

GROCERIES,

of every description. Confectionary and fruits of different kinds and quality, with a good supply of

PAINTS AND OILS,

together with a small assortment of

Patent and Thompsonian

all which we offer low for cash, our friends and the public are generally invited to call and examine our assortment.

We the undersigned having associated ourselves together, some 12 months past, as the firm of SMITH & WILLSON, did come to the conclusion to sell for cash only, we therefore beg leave to inform our friends & customers that we still continue to sell on the same terms, & therefore we hope every person calling for any article in our line will and must expect to pay down the cash, when delivered. We would trust the people of Caroline county as far as any people, and farther, provided we were disposed to do a credit business, but knowing as we do our limited circumstances is one of the principal causes of our selling for cash and cash only. We would most respectfully remind our friends and customers who have made small bills with us for the present year, as also for the last, to come forward and pay them off, these bills too by the by, have been made with the promises to be paid off the next week, and it appears next week has not yet come, we would therefore in a friendly way, inform them that they must come forward by the last day of June next, and pay them off, otherwise they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. Persons we are indebted to, their custom will be considered as cash

HOUSE AND LOT IN OXFORD FOR SALE.

The subscriber will dispose of, on reasonable terms, the above property, situated in Talbot county, near the junction of Third Haven Creek, with Choptank River. The House is large and commodious, and most conveniently planned. It has been thoroughly repaired, is now in complete order, and has attached to it, entirely new, all the necessary out buildings for a family, viz: a Carriage house, Corn house, Hay house, Granary and Stable—the fencing with a Pump is also new.

It is perhaps, one of the most delightful country residences on this Shore, as it is believed not to be excelled by any for beauty of health, and is surrounded by a fine country—added to which, the Steam Boat Maryland, in her passages to and from Baltimore, twice in every week, stops almost at the door, and not only affords a convenient means of travelling, but also produces an agreeable variety.—The situation, is likewise well calculated for a Seminary of Learning, either Male or Female, and might be most advantageously used for that purpose, by any one calculated to manage it.

Persons wishing to purchase, or examine the property will please call on the subscriber.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber expecting to leave this State, offers his farm for sale. Possession given at the end of this year, with the privilege of seeding wheat or hauling manure any time through the year; this farm is beautifully situated on the waters of broad creek in Talbot county, two miles from the Royal Oak, being bounded on the north entirely by said creek which needs no fencing, it abounds with wild fowl, fish and oysters, the latter of the first quality, can be had in the most severe frost by cutting through the ice and taking them up with rakes, and within a few rods of the house; the land is in a high state of cultivation and first rate wheat land. The buildings are a DWELLING OF BRICK, two stories and Brick Kitchen adjoining, a quarter; 40 foot barn, stable, carriage house, corn house, workshop, smoke house, ice house & poultry house, all but a few years old & in good repair, so that the purchaser has nothing to do but enter into a profitable cultivation; it is laid off in six shifts contains 350 acres, including wood land or thereabouts, has been well limed and clover seeded this spring, a locust nursery which in a few years will be profitable; young apple and peach orchards, of different kinds of fruit, with pears, cherries, and other fruit of good quality, a plenty of timber land, two bricked wells of first rate water not surpassed in the county, very healthy; to prove which my physicians bill for 17 years has not exceeded 30 dollars for the whole time with 15 in family. an industrious man who could raise half the purchase money, could be indulged with annual payments for the balance so that it could be met by the profits of said farm—if it is not sold at private sale before Tuesday the 9th of June next—it will on that day be offered at public sale, at the Court House door in Easton, Maryland.
