cents, yielded the boy a profit of a dollar and a half each day.

Our friend has favored us with a 2nd letter from his valued correspondent in Baltimore—which we hope will cheer the hearts of the Loco Focos, as it appears there has really been ONE change in their favour.

8th WARD, BALTIMORE, June 29, 1840.

Dear Sir,

I said in my last, that I had not been able to hear of a single change from the Whig to the Van Buren side, in the city. I have now to inform you that I yesterday heard of ONE such change; and I believe the information to be correct—for though my informant is a Loco Foco, I know him to be a man of honest, intentions, and above falsehood in every thing. In a conversation between him and several Whigs, he frankly admitted that there had been changes in favor of our party, and that four or five of these, were within the range of his personal acquaintance. When asked if he knew of any changes the other way, he replied rather hesitatingly,—"Y—e—s—I—I—know—one—there's * * * * in the 12th Ward, formerly an active Whig, who's changed." From the account he gave of the individual, I presume that this important acquisition to the Government party, is one of those so pompously announced by the rhodomontade correspondent of the "Whig."

In sober seriousness, there is no this take in the matter;—the changes here have been many,—very many,—but, generally speaking, all one way,—that is, in our favor. Among the Irish hucksters, carters, common laborers, &c. a class of people hitherto so firmly relied upon by the Van Buren party, there has been a revolution of sentiment as welcome as it has been unexpected. Mayor Leakin's noble defence of the Carmelite nunnery last year, against an infuriated mob, first opened the eyes of these honest sons of the Emerald Isle to the fact, that a Whig Magistrate might not only be the friend of the poor man in general, but of the poor Irishman in particular. Since that time the good cause has been steadily gaining favor with them; and you may depend upon it, that the countrymen of Emmet and Grattan, will lend a powerful arm in the cause of salutary reform next fall.

But the German more than the Irish emigrants, have been counted upon here, to prop the declining cause of Van Buren. Three years ago I heard it openly and triumphantly vaunted by an office holder under the General Government: "The city is ours and we will keep it so; For within three years we shall naturalize not less than FIVE HUNDRED OF THE DUTCH, which will ensure us the majority, in spite of any probable change of the native population."—Well—they have naturalized and naturalised as fast as they could, and now let them see the fruits of their own work! "The German Tippecanoe Club" of this city numbers now TWO HUNDRED AND NINETY FOUR! nearly every man of whom were hostile to us last year. But supposing, what is not true, that 94 of these were with us at the last election, the remaining 200 will shew a difference in our favor of 400 at the fearful footing up in October and November next.

Yours very respectfully

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham:

Sir:—I see the scurilous "Whig" about once a month, and I do not think that I ever took it up, without noticing the word "Piebald," in some Editorial paragraph. It must be either a very favorite word with the Editor, or one that is so indelibly fixed on his recollection of certain connecting circumstances in the neighborhood of the "Hole in the Wall," that he cannot restrain from the use of it. If the former, he has certainly made a bad selection of a favorite word, and if the latter, he is to be pitied, as no man ought to be answerable for or censured for the acts of another, although a connexion, so long as he refrains from insinuations calculated to revive recollections and induce those who are acquainted with, to recur to them; but if he applies this favourite word of his, improperly and for party purposes, he must abide the consequences. I hope it has not found its way into the address he is to deliver on the 4th inst., it may occasion a smile from some knowing and unconnected or an indignant frown from others, whose feelings might be touched by a recollection of their connexion with the orator.

CLEAR GRIT.

THE SLANDER NAILED.—The Alexandra Gazette says: "We are authorized by a friend of Mr. R. M. T. Hunter, the speaker of the House of Representatives, to say that he has not declared himself in favor of Mr. Van Buren."

QUERY.—What victory did Gen. Harrison in person achieve?—New Era.

Ask Col. Johnson; read J. M. Niles' Life of Harrison; send to Ritchie for files of the Richmond Enquirer of 1812-13; and finally go to the old battle ground of Tippecanoe and the Thames, and enquire of the grey-haired men in their vicinities 'what victory did Gen. Harrison achieve?' Say nothing of his being a coward, however, in that region, lest you should be compelled to follow in the footsteeps of a brother libeller, whose 'case' is thus detailed in the St. Louis Republican.

SHIP BURNED.—The vessel reported to be on fire, in Mobile bay, on the 17th inst. proves to have been the ship Arab, of New York. She had on board 1800 bales of cotton. She was lying in the lower bay, and when first the smoke was discovered issuing from the run where the fire originated, boats loaded with the crews of the surrounding vessels pushed off to her assistance, but all that was saved were some 80 or 90 bales of cotton lying on deck, and her sails. When the steamboat Commerce, which took from the wreck the officers and crew, left the lower bay, she was nearly burned to the water's edge. The Arab was loading for Liverpool.

In the Charleston Courier of the 23d inst. we find the following extract from a letter from the Hon. W. C. PRESTON in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Baldwin county, Ga. to a dinner given to the Georgia State Rights Convention.—Speaking of the manner in which the opponents of Gen. HARRISON carry on the warfare against him, Mr. P. says,

"They denounce him as an abolitionist, and with fury which counteracts itself, they accuse those men from the centre of the South, who are his friends, as abolitionists. The whole charge is as true as any part of it, and fixes the degree of credibility due to witnesses who make such declarations.

"No man who has examined into Gen. Harrison's opinions on this subject, can doubt that they are stronger in favor of the constitutional rights of the South, than Mr. Van Buren's, and that he maintained them under circumstances, to the severe test of which Mr. Van Buren has never been subjected. The Missouri question was the only one upon which they both acted—how they acted it is not necessary for me to state. If any man out of the slaveholding states has given proof of his devotion to their rights—if any man has vindicated them boldly and efficiently beyond our own borders, it is Gen. Harrison. He did not signalize his courage and firmness more conspicuously in his brilliant military career, than in the civil conflict to which he exposed himself in the maintenance of the constitutional rights of the South, in the face of an exasperated community. On this subject, there is no comparison between him and his competitor."

CHURCHES IN PHILADELPHIA.—According to Tanner's Philadelphia City Guide, for the current year, the following is the number of Churches in that city, as set forth alphabetically, in detail:—African 7; Baptist 11; Catholic 5; Congregational 1; Dutch Reformed 2; Episcopal 14; Friends Meeting Houses 4; German Reformed 1; Independent 1; Jews Synagogue 1; Lutheran 4; Methodist 15; Moravian 1; Mariner's 3; New Jerusalem 1; Presbyterian 26, Unitarian 1; Universalist 2.—Total 100.

We understand that on the occasion of the late Whig meeting at Delaware city, the steamboat Ohio carried and had on board of her at one time, fourteen hundred and forty-five passengers.—This, we venture to say, was the largest load of humanity ever known to any steamer on the Delaware. It was enough to push the wearied engine into a state of 'strike.'—Phil. Gaz.

A Match Race for $10,000.—The owners of Gano have offered a challenge of $10,000, four mile heats, over the Lafayette Course, next fall. The owner of Boston has accepted the challenge.—[Richmond Whig.

TO THE WHIGS OF MARYLAND.

Fellow Citizens,—

The undersigned Committee in conformity with certain Resolutions adopted at a Whig Meeting, held at Easton, in Talbot county, on the 16th instant, most respectfully call upon and invite all good Whigs, throughout the State, and all the friends of Harrison, Tyler and Reform, to attend a Convention to be held at Easton, on the Eastern Shore, on Wednesday, the 15th day of July next.

The important object of this Convention will be readily understood by every patriotic citizen, who has observed the course and progress of the existing Administration of the General Government; and, in the proposed Assembly—in safe counsel with some of our wisest and most upright Statesmen and with experienced and eloquent citizens, whose presence we hope to procure, we will, with patriotic freedom, interchange opinions and sentiments upon the condition of our public affairs, and, since reasoning and remonstrances on the part of the People and their Representatives have proved vain, resolve to exert our might, in one great and united effort, through the ballot box, to ensure Reform and Redress.

The undersigned, in further compliance with the duty assigned them, request the attendance of all the Whig Candidates of Maryland for the Electorship of President and Vice President of the United States; and they invite the "Tippecanoe Clubs" and all like patriotic associations formed in the State for the support of Harrison and Reform, to come to their friends, with their Emblems, Banners and Badges.

The Committee beg leave to inform their Whig friends, that the Convention will be opened at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that Committees will be ready to receive and conduct them, as they arrive in Easton, to the place of meeting, and to advise and aid them in procuring suitable quarters.
