POETRY.

From the Greensborough (N. C) Patriot.

THE GUILFORD LOG CABIN.

BY A LADY FORMERLY OF HAGERSTOWN.

TUNE—"Star Spangled Banner."

Oh! what is the home in the land of the free?
That the honest and brave hearted patriot chooses,
Where he gathers the babes of his love on his knee,
And lights up his pipe, and so tranquilly muses;
Where he trains the gourd vine 'neath the dark waving pine,
And hard cider quaffs for the choicest of wine,
'Tis the simple Log Cabin, oh! long may it stand,
The Home of the Free, and the Pride of our Land.

It comes, oh! it comes our Log Cabin, and we,
The sons of Old Guilford, to conquest are pressing,
We lift up our voice with the brave and the free,
And vow, Heaven helping, to guard freedom's blessing.
Should they who laid low the proud head of the foe,
Leave sons that could shrink from their duty? oh no!
But the Guilford Log Cabin, oh! long may it stand,
The Home of the Free, and the Pride of our Land.

The trees from the spot where the first of the slain,
A brave son of Guilford,* lay gasping and bleeding,
The trees that have waved o'er his heart's hallow'd stain,
In Cabin logs now, are triumphantly speeding,
Not less be their worth, that the place of their birth,
Was the deep forest shade of the blood-moistened earth.
And the Guilford Log Cabin, oh! long may it stand,
The Home of the Free, and the Pride of our Land,

Many many, oh! many young scions arise,
From sturdy old trunks, by which storms pass unheeded,
And spreading their branches aloft to the skies,
Be ready for use, when Log Cabins are needed,
In peace or in war, oh! give us no more
Than a Cabin with a latch, and a string at the door,
And the Guilford Log Cabin, oh! long may it stand,
The Home of the Free, and the Pride of our Land.

*Capt. Forbis.

all which we offer low for cash, our friends and the public are generally invited to call and examine our assortment.

We the undersigned having associated ourselves together, some 12 months past, as the firm of SMITH & WILLSON, did come to the conclusion to sell for cash only, we therefore beg leave to inform our friends & customers that we still continue to sell on the same terms, & therefore we hope every person calling for any article in our line will and must expect to pay down the cash, when delivered. We would trust the people of Caroline county as far as any people, and farther, provided we were disposed to do a credit business, but knowing as we do our limited circumstances, is one of the principal causes of our selling for cash and cash only. We would most respectfully remind our friends and customers who have made small bills with us for the present year, as also for the last, to come forward and pay them off, these bills too by the by, have been made with the promises to be paid off the next week, and it appears next week has not yet come, we would therefore in a friendly way, inform them that they must come forward by the last day of June next, and pay them off, otherwise they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. Persons we are indebted to, their custom will be considered as cash

HOUSE AND LOT IN OXFORD FOR SALE.

The subscriber will dispose of, on reasonable terms, the above property, situated in Talbot county, near the junction of Third Haven Creek, with Choptank River. The House is large and commodious, and most conveniently planned. It has been thoroughly repaired, is now in complete order, and has attached to it, entirely, new, all the necessary out buildings for a family, viz: a Carriage house, Corn house, Hay house, Granary and Stable—the fencing with a Pump is also new.

It is perhaps, one of the most delightful country residences on this Shore, as it is believed not to be excelled by any for beauty or health, and is surrounded by a fine country—added to which, the Steam Boat Maryland, in her passages to and from Baltimore, twice in every week, stops almost at the door, and not only affords a convenient means of travelling, but also produces an agreeable variety.—The situation, is likewise well calculated for a Seminary of Learning, either Male or Female, and might be most advantageously used for that purpose, by any one calculated to manage it.

Persons wishing to purchase, or examine the property will please call on the subscriber.

WM. H. GROOME.

VALUABLE MILL PROPERTY

For Sale.

The subscriber wishing to quit the Milling Business, offers his beautiful and substantial Grist and Saw Mill for sale upon accommodating terms.—The situation of these Mills, located as they are, at Easton Point, Talbot county, Maryland, need no comment. Persons disposed to purchase Mill property cannot do better, and are respectfully invited to come and examine for themselves, where every satisfactory evidence will be given to satisfy the most sceptical mind of the value and worth of this valuable property.—The subscriber having had the entire oversight and management of the constructing and building of these Mills, challenges the scrutiny of the mechanic or the manufacturer of flour to produce a mill more substantially built or better calculated for the Milling business.

JOSEPH K. NEALL.

Easton Point, June 27th, 1840.

Delaware Journal, and Kent News will copy the above 4 times and forward accounts to this office for collection.

A FARM FOR SALE.

The subscriber will dispose of the farm on which he now resides, called 'Lower Dover,' situate on Choptank river, within three miles of Easton. This farm contains upwards of 300 acres, about 130 of which is in timber with the sole privilege of the use of a large marsh adjoining.—The farm is of good quality, contains upon it a large quantity of marl, easily to come at, which renders it very susceptible of improvement.

The improvements consists of a good framed Dwelling, kitchen, meat house, corn house, stables, carriage house, granary, &c. &c., with an excellent well of water in the yard—It is presumed persons wishing to purchase will view the premises, which will be shewn them by the subscriber and the terms made known.

Should the above described farm not be disposed of before the 18th day of August next, it will on that day be sold at public sale, at the Court House door in the town of Easton, between the hours of 10 o'clock, A. M., and 4 o'clock, P. M., of that day.

Farm for Sale.

The subscriber will dispose of that well known farm called "LITTLE DOVER" on which he now resides. It is situate about 3 miles from Easton, and is convenient to water communication to Baltimore or elsewhere, being within 3 4 of a mile from the great Choptank. It contains about of Land, with a sufficiency of wood. It abounds with marl easily obtained, and possesses advantages which render it a desirable purchase.

The improvements are ample and in very good condition. The terms will be moderate.

Persons desirous of purchasing are invited to call and view for themselves.

The meadow lands attached to it are not inferior to any in the county.

JOSEPH B. PERRY.
