POETRY.

From the Madisonian.

THE 'MAGICIAN'S' ADDRESS TO HIS ARMY OF OFFICEHOLDERS.

On vassals! dare ye palter
While the foe is in the field?
Ye are traitors if ye falter—
Ye are ruin'd if ye yield!

The treasures of the nation
Shall furnish you with spoils,'
And wealth, and power, and station,
Reward ye for your toils.

If in this hour of trial,
Ye save me from the scath,
That freedom from her vial
Is pouring out in wrath.

Why pause ye now to hearken
To murmurs of distress?
The clouds around us darken,
Our foes upon us press.

What boots it tho' a nation
In agony implore?
Hark we to lamentation
If we are but secure?

On Kendall! now, or never.
Your mightiest effort make,
The 'spoil's,' are gone forever,
Unless their ranks we break.

On Benton! arch beguiler!
On! for your 'mint-drops' fight!
For Harrison and Tyler
Are looming on my sight!

On Walker! and Buchanan!
Those fierce besiegers meet—
On Grundy! Duncan! Shannon!
And save me from defeat.

I'll gold, or missions yield ye!
To Russia or St. James,
If you will only shield me
From the Hero of the Thames.

HOUSE AND LOT IN OXFORD

FOR SALE.

The subscriber will dispose of, on reasonable terms, the above property, situated in Talbot county, near the junction of Third Haven Creek, with Choptank River. The House is large and commodious, and most conveniently planned. It has been thoroughly repaired, is now in complete order, and has attached to it, entirely new, all the necessary out buildings for a family, viz: a Carriage house, Corn house, Hay house, Granary and Stable—the fencing with a Pump is also new.

It is perhaps, one of the most delightful country residences on this Shore, as it is believed not to be excelled by any for beauty or health, and is surrounded by a fine country—added to which, the Steam Boat Maryland, in her passages to and from Baltimore, twice in every week, stops almost at the door, and not only affords a convenient means of travelling, but also produces an agreeable variety.—The situation, is likewise well calculated for a Seminary of Learning, either Male or Female, and might be most advantageously used for that purpose, by any one calculated to manage it.

Persons wishing to purchase, or examine the property will please call on the subscriber.
