Which being read and heard and the sufficiency in the said Bond being by the Court here approved It is therefore ordered by the said Court here that the record & proceedings aforesaid with the plea aforesaid, with all things thereunto relating be transmitted to the Court of Appeals of the said State, and the same are transmitted to the said Court accordingly.

Attest Benj. Chambers Clk

Kent County ss. I hereby Certify that the aforegoing is truly taken from the record & Proceedings of the said County Court of Kent aforesaid. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the public seal of my office this third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & fifteen and in the thirty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America

Benj. Chambers Clk of Kent County Court Md.

And now comes into the Court of Appeals here as well the said Gordon & Sacks by Henry Tilghman, Esquire their Attorney, as the said John T. Kennard by James L. Barroll Esquire his Attorney thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their Attorneys aforesaid & by order of the Court here thereon is continued under the last Monday of November next

At which day, to wit, the last Monday of November eighteen hundred and fifteen came again into the Court of Appeals here the parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid: And the said John T. Kennard by his Attorney aforesaid saith, that in the record & proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid it appears that the Judgment aforesaid on the plea aforesaid was given for the said Gordon & Sacks against the said John T. Kennard when by the law of the land that Judgment ought to have been given for the said John T. Kennard against the said Gordon & Sacks, therefore with that there is manifest error and he prays that the Judgment aforesaid for that error and others being in the record and proceedings aforesaid may be reversed annulled & held entirely as void, and that he the said John T. Kennard may be restored to all that he hath lost by occasion of the said Judgment & that the said Gordon & Sacks may reply to the errors aforesaid &c. And the said Gordon & Sacks by their attorney aforesaid say there is no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid, and they pray likewise that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the record and proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid by the said John T. Kennard above for error assigned, and that the said Judgment may be in all things affirmed &c. Whereupon it is prayed by the Court here that the matters in controversy between the parties aforesaid be argued and fully discussed as well on the part of the said John T. Kennard, as on the part of the said Gordon & Sacks before the Judges of this Court here &c. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their attorneys aforesaid and by order of the Court here thereon is further continued until the first Monday of June next

And now here at this day, to wit, the last Monday of May eighteen hundred and sixteen, being the day to which the Court of Appeals here, by virtue of an Act of Assembly in such case made and provided was changed, continued and adjourned, came again into the Court of Appeals the parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid: Whereupon as well the Record and proceedings aforesaid and the Judgment given in form aforesaid as the matters aforesaid by the said John T. Kennard above for errors assigned being seen and fully understood by the Court here and mature deliberation thereupon had, for it appears to the Court here that there is no error, either in the record & proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving of judgment aforesaid, therefore it is considered by the Court here that the Judgment aforesaid given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect the said causes for error above assigned & alledged in any wise notwithstanding, and it is further considered by the Court here that the said Gordon & Sacks have execution against the said John T. Kennard as well for the debt, damages Costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto them in the said County Court of Kent, as also the sum of Ten Dollars sixteen and two thirds Cents adjudged unto the said Gordon & Sacks by the Court here for their Costs and charges which they have sustained by occasion of the delay of the execution of the Judgment aforesaid, by pretence of the prosecution of the said appeals by him the said John T. Kennard of and upon the Judgment aforesaid prosecuted.
