MAINE.

Exceedingly close. Whig gain in 40 towns, in Cumberland, York and Lincoln 172.

NEW JERSEY. O. K.

VIRGINIA.

Whig majority in more than two-thirds of the State 2579, which will probably be reduced some. Gain so far over spring election 1840, and election in 1836 where no contest in the spring.

We are sorry to state that the dwelling of the Rev. Mr. Bayne was destroyed by fire on Monday last, with its contents—we understand the fire originated in a spark from the chimney.

NEW JERSEY.—The Legislature of New Jersey met on Tuesday the 27th ult and re-elected Gov. Pennington, for the ensuing year, by a vote of 53 to 12—a signal proof of the approbation of his fellow citizens.

The Whigs of Easton having been invited by their Whig brethren of Easton Point, to join them in celebrating the redemption of Maryland, from corruption and misrule, assembled in front of our office last evening at 7 o'clock. The Marshall was then called for and Wm W. Higgins, Esq presented a small banner in behalf of a matron of our town. In doing this, he made a short Address, which was responded to by Sam'l. Hambleton, Jr., Esq. and received by the Whigs with three cheers for the ladies.

The whole affair was handsomely gotten up.—A variety of transparencies bearing appropriate inscriptions, and miniature Log Cabins illuminated, were to be seen in the ranks.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

We commence a record of the result of the election of the States for electors of President and Vice President. The following are decided.

	Harrison.	Van Buren
CONNECTICUT,	8
OHIO,	21
MARYLAND,	10
RHODE ISLAND,	4
NEW HAMPSHIRE		7
NEW JERSEY.	8

RHODE ISLAND SENATOR.—The Hon. James F Simmons has been elected a Senator in the Congress of the United States from the State of Rhode Island, in the place of the Hon. Nehemiah R. Knight, whose term of service expires next March. The selection seems to give much satisfaction to our political friends in that State.

MAINE ALL RIGHT!

The question in regard to which party polled the greatest number of votes at the recent election in Maine, has been settled by the Loco Foco Governor and council. On Tuesday last Gov. Fairfield and his Loco Foco Council, opened and counted the ballots given at the recent election for members of Congress, and have officially declared the following result.

For the Whigs	45,347
For the Loco Focos	45,110
Whig majority	237

This includes all the scattering votes given by Whigs on both sides—but if all the scattering votes, even those given to the Whigs, were counted for the Loco Focos, the Whigs would still have a majority! This settles the question in regard to Maine.

TWELVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE BRITANNIA.

The steamship Britannia, Captain C. E. Judkins, arrived this morning at half past 8 o'clock, having sailed from Liverpool on the afternoon of October 20, making her passage in 13¼ days. We give below a summary of the most important ant intelligence.

The Eastern Question.—In confirmation of the news published in this morning's Atlas, our papers received per Brittannia announced the probability of a pacific arrangement of Eastern affairs.—But we should state that this probability is, after all, only an opinion upon which people in general, and merchants in particular, decline acting: and that although the general tone of the press is pacific the accounts of actual occurrences in the East are very contradictory.

Another attempt to assassinate the King of the French.

Paris, Thursday evening, 9 o'clock.

Another attempt has been made to assassinate the King of the French. At six o'clock this evening, as the royal carriage was leaving the Tuileries, returning to Saint Cloud, he was fired at, but neither he nor any person of his suit was wounded. The assassin was instantly seized, and the King, who displayed his accustomed coolness and courage, ordered the postillions not to stop, and continued his route to St. Cloud.

The assassin is a young man, a native of Marseilles, who avows his criminal intention, and manifests much regret at having failed. He declares that he has no accomplices, and that he is not connected with any secret society. When examined as to his motives he says he wished to rid his country of a tyrant, and that he had no other object than his country's good.

The Brittania arrived at Liverpool Oct. 15, at 2 A. M. The British Queen arrived off Cowe on the morning of the 17th September.

EASTON ACADEMY.

The subscriber having been elected Principal of this Institution, commenced the duties of his office on Monday the 12th October. An official notice of his appointment and of the time when the School was to re-open having appeared over the name of the President of the Board of Trustees, there seemed no immediate necessity for an advertisement by the subscriber. This has therefore been deferred to the present time, in consequence of the urgency of engagements attending the removal of his family and their settlement in his new habitation. He now begs leave to offer his services to such of the inhabitants of Easton and the surrounding country as have sons or wards for whom they desire an opportunity of procuring a sound and liberal education. His long experience as an instructor and his uniform success, of both which he is prepared to exhibit abundant evidence, unite to inspire a confident belief that in his present situation he will also be enabled to afford, if not universal, at least general satisfaction. At the same time he would respectfully remind parents that the result of the teacher's efforts must ever depend very much on the measure of their co-operation.

The pupils are under the care or supervision of their teacher so small a portion of their time that unless his exertions are constantly aided by corresponding efforts on the part of parents, there is little reason to anticipate very happy results. The course of instruction in the classical department, of which the subscriber has special charge, will embrace the classics, mathematics and the other branches of learning, which with the former serve to constitute a sound and thorough education. With regard to the classics, though unacquainted with the peculiar ideas of individuals in this section of the Union, the subscriber is aware that in many other parts of the country a very general apathy prevails: this indifference, however, he cannot but believe, is confined to those who are themselves destitute of classical knowledge or to those, (including many, who in early life, received instruction in the elements of classical literature,) who have not reflected on the immense advantages that result, not indeed from the acquisition of the ability to read and translate an ancient language, but from the course of mental training incident to the acquirement of this knowledge, from the exercise and cultivation of those intellectual faculties, which are in constant requisition during the progress of a thorough and systematic course of study in the ancient languages. It is with the faculties of the mind, as with the muscles of the body; they both require, and in an equal degree, active and frequent exercise to affect their development and promote their strength and vigour. Whatever system of education then, or course of instruction is best adapted to call into action the various faculties of the youthful mind, and in the highest degree to accomplish not only their developement, but their growth in strength and vigour, must commend itself to the favour of every reflecting parent. That a thorough course of classical instruction is eminently adapted to the attainment of these ends, might, with great ease, be most clearly demonstrated but the advertisement being already long, the further consideration of this particular subject will be deferred to some future occasion. Let it not be supposed from any of the preceding remarks that undue, much less exclusive, attention will be devoted to the classics; the mathematics will, in all cases, receive that attention which is due to their paramount importance, nor will any of the English branches be neglected. Elocution, and composition in the English language will be particularly attended to. The rate of tuition and the general regulations remain as under former teachers.

The French language will be taught to those who desire it, during an hour that will not interfere with the other recitations, at an extra charge of $5 per quarter to pupils of the school and of $7 per qr. to others.
