EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 5.

Congress meets on Monday next, and in a few days we may expect to receive the last—the very last Message of President Van Buren—We have no doubt our readers will be anxious to see it,—we will therefore endeavor to spread it before them with all possible despatch.

SCRAMBLE FOR OFFICE.—We invite attention to the articles upon this subject in another column of to day's paper.

U. S. SENATOR.—We copy the following articles from the Baltimore American, recommending several gentlemen to fill the vacancy in the U. S. Senate, occasioned by the death of our lamented Senator, the Hon. Dr. Spence.

Gentlemen—keep cool—which we should suppose would be no hard matter at this season.

OUR U. S. SENATOR.—The vacancy occasioned by the recent death of Dr Spence, imposes upon the Legislature the duty of selecting from the Eastern Shore, a gentleman of talents to fill that high station. The names of several have been, for some time past, mentioned in a private way—but the Legislature will so soon meet, that although the choice belongs exclusive to this enlightened body—still the people cannot but feel a deep interest in the result of their deliberations The name that has been most prominently mentioned, as far as I am aware, is that of our greatly respected fellow citizen, JOHN LEEDS KERR, of Easton.—This gentleman during his service in Congress, made friends of all around him, by his great discretion, his high intelligence, and his very courteous and fine manners. The Eastern Shore has done so nobly in the recent canvass for the presidency—and Mr. Kerr, as Elector for the State at large, so zealously discharged his duty, that I trust the choice will fall upon him who stands as high in the affections of his fellow citizens of the Western Shore as he so deservedly does with those on the Shore of his nativity.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

To the Editors of the American.

GENTLEMEN.—A writer in the American of this morning over the signature of "One of the People," nominates JOHN L. KERR, Esq. of Easton, as a suitable person to fill the vacancy in the Senate of the United States occasioned by the demise of the late Dr. Spence. As the names of the several distinguished gentleman "have been for some time past, mentioned in a private way," it was hoped and expected by the friends of some of those gentlemen, that the selection would be left to the quiet and impartial action of the Legislature, without any attempt, to influence that action through the medium of the public press. "One of the people," however, having thought proper to depart from this course, if you will permit me, through the columns of your paper, to designate a gentleman in whom I believe are combined all the requisite qualifications for that distinguished station I will name Gen. THOMAS EMORY of Queen Anne's County. As a politician he has always been firm and consistent; his views of our domestic policy, both with regard to the State and National governments, have been liberal and enlightened; of untiring industry, and honest in purpose, he has through a long political career pursued the even tenor of his way; amid all the changes of party he has never wavered, neither has he ever sacrificed his avowed principles on the shrine of popular favour. During a public service of many years that which he believed to be the true interests of his country has been the polar star that guided his course; as a member of the House of Delegates, as one of the Executive Council, as a member of the Senate of Maryland—his services have been many and valuable. Indeed there are few gentlemen in Maryland, if any, whose public services are more advantageously known, or whose private worth is more highly esteemed.

I beg it may be understood that these remarks are not intended to disparage the claims of any gentleman whose name has been, or may hereafter be mentioned for this vacancy. I doubt not that on whomsoever the choice may fall, the duties of the station will be filled faithfully and ably, with honor to the Senator elected, and advantage to his Country; but that the election of Gen. Emory to fill the vacancy would be generally acceptable to the people of Maryland is the sincere opinion of

AN EASTERN SHORE WHIG.

Nov. 30th, 1840.

U. S. SENATOR.—Messrs. Editors—One of the most important duties that falls to the lot of our State Legislature is that of selecting a representative for the Senate of the United States. Such will be the duty of the Legislature about to convocate. The question then arises, who is the proper person to fill the vacancy occasioned by the decease of our worthy representative, the late Dr. Spence? The duties pertaining to this high station require the exercise of talents of a high order, stern judgment and inflexible patriotism. These are necessary to render a Senator useful to his country, and such we believe to be the qualifications of our true friend JAMES ALFRED PEARCE. In presenting Mr. Pearce's name to the consideration of the members of the legislature, we deem it unnecessary to recoun his public acts, or his devotion to the success of the Whig cause in the State. No individual that can be named stands fairer in point of moral character before the people of the Eastern Shore, and no one comes before them having stronger claims for preferment. We wish not to forestall the action of the Legislature upon this object; we wish them to be free to choose from among those who have been put forward by their friends for appointment. We hope, therefore, that it will not be considered premature for Cecil to speak for her favorite, in consideration of her late glorious victory. The appointment of James A. Pearce will certainly meet the unanimous response from old

CECIL.

NORTH CAROLINA—WHIG U. S. SENATORS—The Raleigh Star of the 25th inst. states that on the preceding day the Hon. Willie P. Mangum, and Hon. William A. MARYLAND ELECTORAL COLLEGE.—The PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS met yesterday at 11 o'clock in the Senate Chamber at Annapolis—all present. The Electoral College was temporarily organized by calling Gov GEO HOWARD, of Anne Arundel county, to the chair—when on motion of Hon. J. P. KENNEDY, of Baltimore, a committee of three was appointed to report on the permanent organization of the College. The chair appointed Messrs. KENNEDY, KERR and BOWIE, who soon reported that the officers be appointed by ballot; which report was adopted.

Gov. HOWARD was elected President of the College. He offered his acknowledgments for the honor thus a second time conferred upon him, in an appropriate address. (Gov. H. was President of the Electoral College in 1836.)

Col. J. U. NICHOLSON, of Annapolis, was then unanimously elected Secretary.

Hon. JOHN LEEDS KERR, of Talbot then nominated WM. H. HARRISON, of Ohio, for President of the U. States—who received ten votes. Col. WILLIAM F. WOOTTON, of Prince George then nominated JOHN TYLER, of Virginia, for Vice President, who also received ten votes. After having attended to the various requisite formalities, the College adjourned sine die, about half past two o'clock,

From the New York Express of Friday.

DEATH BY SUICIDE OF AN EMINENT BANKER.—Wall street was thrown into quite a sensation this morning from a report spread that Nathaniel Prime, Esq. had committed suicide this morning at his residence near Hell Gate. This extraordinary act will overwhelm a very numerous and highly respectable family in the deepest affliction. Mr. Prime retired from the House of Prime, Ward & King a few years since, with a large fortune. He has since resided at his fine mansion in the city and at his country seat at Hell Gate. Possessed of a splendid fortune, with a family numerous and among our first citizens, at the advanced age of about 74, and with all the comforts of life around him—beloved by his family and respected by the public,—there can be no accounting for the act but by a temporary aberration of mind.

NAVAL.—The U. S. Frigate Constitution, Com. Claxton, and Schr. Shark, were at Callao, July 23d, having the small-pox on board. The St. Louis was daily expected from Mazatlan.

A NEW SECT, called 'COME OUTISTS,' the Christian Journal says, has recently sprung into being in Massachusetts.—Their leading, or sectarian views are. 1st. Opposition to a regular ministry.—Every one should be his own priest. 2. Opposition to the regularly organized churches. Every one is a church by himself. 3. A disregard of the Sabbath, all days are alike. Meetings have been established at Centreville, Cape Cod and Lynn. Their object seems to be to preach against preaching, to organize against church organizations, and to hold meetings on the Lord's day to put down the Christain Sabbath.

SMELLING A RAT.—The Cincinnati Public Ledger relates the case of a lazy fellow in the market who was busily engaged in selling "fine, fat, dressed squirrels," as he called them. Saturday the tail of one of the little animals which the fellow had neglected to curtail when skinning it, was observed to be sticking "out a feet." A bystander remarked that "that was a curious looking tail for a squirrel to have," and upon a "close examinin" the squirrels all turned out to be RATS. It seems they have been in the habit of trapping these filthy animals and selling them to the citizens as squirrels for some time past.

A HERO FOR BULWER.—The Cincinnati Republican gives the particulars relating to the discovery of the jewelry, stolen from the store of Mr. McGrew, in that city, and states that when the Marshal had traced the clue to Harvie's house, upon entering, the wife immediately said—

"I presume you are an officer, and I know what you came for, there are the goods"—pointing to them—She is represented as quite an intelligent and interesting woman, says she is from Philadelphia, and that she married Harvie after the Oneida bank robbery.—She did not appear disposedto conceal anything in relation to the burglary. She said her husband had no accomplices in the business, that he went to the store between 7 and 8 o'clock, and brought home one handkerchief full, and then returned and brought home another, all before 8 o'clock. She said he had been employed frequently since then, in marking and packing the goods, in the day time, when if persons had come up they must have seen him

When questioned why she continued to live with such a man, she said—

He had been kind to her, he was intelligent and a gentleman in his manners, and that her attachment for him was such that she could not leave him. She said she had often talked to him of the danger to which he exposed himself, but all to no purpose.—When something was said in her presence, of the probability of Harvie having been the person who had stolen the cloaks and coats that have recently been taken from various houses in the city, she repelled the charge with apparent indignation, and said her husband never engaged in such petty thefts.

A very large bunch of keys was found in the house, and unless he is apprehended, he will doubtless pursue his business in some other place, for according to the Republican he is a most cool and determined villain and a perfect adept in the burglar's art.

MARRIED

In Baltimore, on Tuesday morning, Dec. 1. by the Rev. P Rescoil, George Dudley, Esq. to Miss Hannah Mackey, both of Talbot county.

On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Dr. H. M. Mason, at Jackson Hill, Dr. William Hemsley, to Miss Harriet, daughter of Edward Martin, Esq. all of this county.

In this county on Thursday last, by the Rev. Dr. Spencer, Dr. J. A. Muse, of Cambridge, Dorchester county, to Miss Mary, daughter of the late Dr. Rogers, of this county.

DIED

At his residence near the Chapel, on Dec. 3, 1840, Mr. Thomas Frampton in the ninety sixth year of his age; being among the oldest inhabitans of the county.

OBITUARY.

Died at his residence in Dorchester county, on the 29th day of October, Mr. James Willson, in the 94th year of his age, leaving behind him a widowed wife, eighty five years of age, and with whom he had lived sixty nine years.

It is seldom that we are called upon to record the death of one so full in years, and who, for so long a period, discharged all the relative duties of husband, father master and neighbour.

This Patriarch on the day of his decease, left descendants, consisting of children, grand and great grand children, amounting to more than two hundred persons.

During life no man stood fairer in the community in which he lived than the deceased. He was perfectly honest in all his dealings with his neighbors, kind and affectionate at home, and whether at home or abroad, the true and sterling christian.

Hence, when called upon to give an account of his stewardship, he had nothing to do but to "gather up his feet, and depart in peace and be with Christ which is far better."—May our end be like his.
