WALDIE'S

SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY & MONTHLY JOURNAL OF POLITE LITERATURE — The proprietor of this popular and well known periodical has the gratification of replying to the many affectionate inquiries after its resumption, and announces to his kind friends and patrons—friends and patrons in the true meaning of the words—that he will resume the publication next January. Restored by a beneficient Providence once more to active life, he hopes again to be able to give that superintendence to the publication which was his pride and pleasure for seven years. He anticipates, with inexpressible satisfaction, the renewal of associations with thousands of families, with either of which an acquaintance is an honor. During his protracted indisposition, the intensity of suffering was greatly mitigated by the generous expression of sympathy and regard received from his kind-hearted patrons; and the gloom and tedium of a sick room were much lightened by the rays of genuine friendship emitted from every quarter. This egotism, he hopes, will be judged of mildly—he certainly has no wish to make a display—but the impulse of grateful acknowledgment for such disinterested kindness was irresponsible, and he could not announce the resappearance of the work without yielding to it.

To those friends he addresses himself, solicitous for their continued support, and hopes to have the Library once more introduced among their families, see it honored again with a place on their centre tables, and become a welcome weekly visiter. He is at the same time very desirous to extend his acquaintance and form new friends.

From the arrangements made, dictated by experience, the Library, it is believed, will in every respect, be improved The type will be more distinct, the monthly sheet continued, and a weekly cover beside The cover will be made so as to avoid the extra postage — The monthly Journal he hopes to make a sheet of abiding interest, so combining original and selected articles, of foreign and domestic literature, science and art, and from such resources of respectability, as to make it a work of authority and reference.

The regularity of its former publication, not a failure in seven years, will be taken as a guarantee for the future punctuality of the Library; but there is only one way to make that permanent, viz: by payment in advance This is an indispensable pre-requisite from all at a distance. The losses by deviating from this rule formerly, are too heavy to be forgotten soon and a little reflection may satisfy any one of the reasonableness of the request. The reasons are too obvious indeed, to require much discussion. Five dollars are all that a subscriber risks but the publisher risks thousands by crediting. The publisher is in the city and can be reached without trouble. A subscriber lives perhaps a thousand miles off, and how is he to be reached? It might cost six times the amount to collect the trifle. Payment in advance, then as all may perceive is a reasonable request, and sad experience compels the proprietor to make it absolute. The few who paid in advance for 1840 will be supplied for 1841, unless otherwise ordered.

An early remittance of names is respectfully urged, so as to enable the proprietor to make proper calculations about the quantity to be printed, as he will print very few over the number absolutely subscribed for. To this he would call particular attention.

To his brethren of the press, throughout the country, the proprietor returns grateful thanks for former favors, and hopes the work will be again so conducted as to warrant a renewal of their friendly assistance. A few copies of the Port Folio are still on hand, a year of which will be forwarded in payment for advertising as much of this announcement as they may think an equivalent; or two years will be sent for publishing the whole.

TERMS —The Library will be published weekly, on a double royal sheet, sixteen pages quarto each, on new type, and printed in the best style of book work. Each number enveloped with a neat cover.

2. Price Five Dollars a year if paid at or remitted to the office. Six Dollars if collected by an agent.

3 A Monthly Journal of Polite Literature consisting of original communications and selections from foreign and domestic periodicals, printed uniformly with the Library —This will be a valuable addition to the original plan

4. Subscriptions commence with January and no subscriptions taken for less than a year.

☞ A few complete sets of the Library, and odd years to perfect subscribers' sets, on hand and for sale.

PRIVATE SEMINARY.

The subscriber, having resigned his situation in the Academy, at Easton with an intention of retiring to his farm, and exchanging the arduous duties of his Public Profession for the more congenial quiet of the country takes this method of tendering his grateful acknowledgments to the citizens of Easton and its vicinity, for the very liberal patronage they have extended to him for the last twelve years. It was the intention of the subscriber, when he offered his resignation, to retire, at the close of the year, from his Professional duties. Through the solicitations, however, of several of his patrons, he has consented to open a PRIVATE SEMINARY at his residence, where he will be prepared to accommodate a few boarders on very reasonable terms. To those who may prefer a private institution for the education of their sons, this Seminary may, perhaps, offer some inducements.
