RESUMPTION.—The Banks of Maryland will resume specie payments on Monday next.

A letter from Cincinnati, to the editors of the National Intelligencer, says that General HARRISON will probably reach Washington about the 7th or 8th of February. The same paper says:—In conformity to usage, we learn that the Senate of the United States has been summoned by the Executive to meet in this city on the 4th of March next, for the transaction of business (being, of course, of an Executive character, connected with the commencement of a new Administration, the formation of a new Cabinet &c)

☞It is rumored that Mr. Fox, the British Minister has requested to be recalled. This, taken in connexion with the present aspect of affairs, would seem to indicate that matters between the U. S. and Great Britain, are approximating a serious crisis.

VIRGINIA U. S. SENATOR—The Hon. William C. Rives has been chosen the U. S. Senator from Virginia.—The vote stood for Rives 85, for Mayson 46, McDowell 30, Scattering 3.

The Secretary of War has applied to Congress for about two and a half millions more of dollars to carry on the Florida war, one million three hundred thousand of which is to pay up ARREARAGES!!!

Our Washington correspondent, under Thursday afternoon's date, says:—Commodore STEVENS, of the Washington Navy Yard, was found dead in his bed this morning. He was well in the Senate Chamber yesterday morning.—Balt Amer. 21st.

RESUMPTION.

By the subjoined proceedings on the part of the Richmond Banks, had within a few days, it will be seen that these banks are unanimous in the purpose of resuming specie payments, simultaneously with the banks in Baltimore, and that in reporting their resolution to that effect, to the banks in this city, they accompany it with the request that "an early day be fixed upon for resumption" In copying these proceedings of the banks in that city, the Richmond Compiler asks—"What says Baltimore?"

We cannot of course speak by authority, in the premises. Nevertheless, we give it as our opinion that Baltimore will say as she has heretofore said, that Maryland and Virginia should act in concert on this question and resumes together Their business intercourse and commercial relations, enjoin this course upon the two States, as both convenient & prudent. And since Richmond "is in the field," not merely for resumption, but for an early resumption, it only remains for the banks in the two cities or states, to "take counsel together" so as to act with sound discretion, In view of their whole duty, and obligations, in fixing upon a day for that purpose.—Balt. Amer.

From the Richmond Comp. of Jan. 19.

RESUMPTION.

The following will show the disposition of the Richmond Banks, on the subject of a resumption of specie payments. What says Baltimore?

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank of Virginia on Saturday, Jan. 16, 1841; the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved, That the Bank of Virginia will unite with the other Banks of Richmond, and the Banks of Baltimore in designating any particular day for a simultaneous resumption of specie payments by the Banks of Richmond and Baltimore; and that the President of this Bank be authorised to communicate with the other Banks referred to, and to enter on behalf of the Bank of Virginia, into the necessary mutual arrangements for carrying into effect the object of this resolution.

At a meeting of the Presidents of the Bank of Virginia, the Farmers' Bank of Virginia, and of the Exchange Bank of Virginia, at Richmond, and being authorised to act in the premises; by their respective Boards, Jan. 18th, 1841:

Resolved, unanimously, That the Banks will resume specie payments simultaneous'y with the Banks of Baltimore; and that the President of the Farmers' Bank be requested to the report this resolution to the Banks of Baltimore, with a request that an early day be fixed upon for the resumption.

[Signed] JOHN BROCKENBROUGH.
WM. H. MACFARLAND,
JAMES CASKIE.

From the Baltimore American of the 25th

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA BANKS.

The Banks of Baltimore have been prompt in naming an early day for resumption, since they have had the assurance of simultaneous action on the part of those of Richmond. At the meeting of the Presidents of the several Banks of Baltimore which was held on Friday last, a resolution was adopted designating the first day of February next, this day week—as the period for the resumption of specie payments simultaneous by the Banks of Baltimore and Richmond; and a communication to this effect was immediately forwarded to the institutions of the latter city. Subsequently, however, the President of the Farmer's Bank of Virginia, who had been constituted the representative of the Richmond Banks, reached this city, and on Saturday morning, when apprised of the proceeding, he announced the readiness of the Banks of Richmond to co-operate with those of Baltimore, in resuming specie payments on the early day which had been named by the latter institutions.

The measure of resumption by the Banks of Baltimore and Richmond will, without doubt be adopted by all the remaining Banks both in Maryland and Virginia, and thus the resumption will be complete in both States.

RESUMPTION IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Harrisburg Intelligencer of the 19th, after three day's proof or experience of the effect of the measure, says:—The Banks of Pennsylvania resumed specie payments on Friday last. We do not believe there was any serious "run" on any of them. The banks of this place paid out a comparatively small amount of the precious metals.

The York Gazette of yesterday remarks on the same subject:—We believe that the resumption of specie payments on Friday last, was general among the banks of Pennsylvania. We have not heard of an exception. In most instances, as far as we have been able to learn, the demand for specie at the counters of the banks, was much less extensive than was expected—and scarcely amounted to what is termed A RUN, if we except the case of the United States Bank.

The York Bank commenced redeeming its issues with specie some days before the time fixed by law—and on Friday and Saturday was not called upon for more than about $700.

The Banks of Wilmington (Del.) have resumed specie payments.

A meeting of the Presidents of the Bank of Virginia, the Farmers' Bank of Virginia, and of the Exchange Bank of Virginia, was held at Richmond on Monday last, and a resolution unanimously passed "to resume specie payments simultaneously with the banks of Baltimore."—Notice to that effect was ordered to be given to the latter institutions, with a request that an early day be fixed upon for the resumption.

We understand that the Governor has nominated Thomas Holliday, Esq. to fill the vacancy in the Orphans' Court of this county, occasioned by the resignation of Dr. Theodore Denny.—[Whig.

ELEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.—The steamer Columbia, belonging to the Cunard's line, arrived at Boston on Thursday last, bringing dates from London to the 8th inst. and Liverpool to the 5th inclusive.

A letter from New York says—The foreign news, not; remarkable for any thing in particular, but interesting all, in its details, made no sensation. What most interests us is the rise in cotton, and the fact that the U. S. Bank has its loan of over a million beyond all peradventure. The cotton market here, of course, has the benefit of this rise, through the price, all expenses of transport paid, was higher here than in Liverpool before the news came. U. S. Bank stock also feels the effect of renewed confidence, the rise today being two per cent. The future agent of the bank in London is to be Morrison & Son.
