POETRY.

SAVE THE FIPS—(BY SNAPS.)

I met a man the other day,
Who, in his own peculiar way,
Said—'Save the fips, for fips make dollars,
And one well made, a hundred follers.'

A pinch of snuff may cost a penny,
That penny spent is gone forever;
Just like lamented Paganini,
Or snow drops falling in the river.

A merchant broke, will lose his credit—
Yes, wiser men than me have said it;
So broken dollars seldom find,
A friend to treat them very kind.

One fip gone, the charm is broken—
Like taking hair from out a locket
These remaining are no token,
They rest uneasy in the pocket.

Many fips, well stuck together,
Are barriers strong 'gainst wintry weather,
And, as the old folks used to say,
Prepare us for a 'rainy day.'

A child may brake some valued ware,
When man, with all his skill, can't mend it,
So of the fips kind friends take care—
A dollar broke, we're apt to spend it.

Ocean.

THE PHILADELPHIA

SATURDAY COURIER.

The Courier is on as firm and independent a basis as any paper issued, at home or abroad, and its ample means will be always employed to make it equal, as a FAMILY PAPER to any journal published. It is a PERMANENT ESTABLISHMENT

The Courier is an independent paper, fearlessly pursuing a straight forward course, and supporting the best interests of THE PUBLIC.

This approved Family Paper is strictly ☞Neutral in Politics and Religion, and the uncompromising opponent of all Quackery.

It maintains a high TONE OF MORALS, and not an article will appear in its pages, which should not find place at every fireside.

The unparalleled patronage, from every section of the country, is the best evidence of its approval. I has spoken and will continue to speak for itself. Its list embraces over 34,000 subscribers, extending from the Lakes to the Ocean, and combining all interests and classes of the republic. Each number of the Courier contains as much matter as would FILL A 12MO. VOLUME. the cost of which alone would be the price of the paper for a whole year. And every Class of our Country.

The Courier may always be depended upon as nothing important is permitted to escape a notice in its columns. It will always faithfully fulfil its agreements.

Our arrangements enable us to draw from the whole range of the current Literature of Europe, and our correspondents at home embrace many of the best Writers of the country. A series of Popular Tales, of unequalled interest and value, will follow in constant succession.

POPULAR MUSIC.

In the Courier is inserted the music of the most popular Airs, Ballads, and Songs, as soon as they are imported, so that country readers may have the most popular music for the voice, the piano, the guitar or other instruments, as soon as published, which if paid for separately would cost more than the price of subscription. This perfected arrangement is to be found in no other journal of the kind.

Our Terms.
