out of fifty-one were present, and all voted for the bill. This Revenue and Relief measure is at length carried out, and I may add that it is considered one of the most important bills passed by the Legislature of this State, for years. Great and increasing uneasiness had been felt throughout the State, in reference to legislative action on this subject, especially as the Governor appears to be so exceedingly obstinate and self willed.—The mere fact, therefore, of the passage of a Revenue and Relief Bill, as it becomes known to the people, will give great 'relief.' Both Houses adjourn sine die, this day.

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.

DEMOCRATIC WHIG NOMINATIONS.

SECOND DISTRICT.
JAMES A. PEARCE.

FOURTH DISTRICT.
JOHN P. KENNEDY,
ALEXANDER RANDALL.

SIXTH DISTRICT.
EDWARD A. LYNCH.

SEVENTH DISTRICT
AUGUSTUS R. SOLLERS.

Election on MONDAY, the 17th day of May, 1841.

TO OUR PATRONS.—In order to increase the circulation of the Gazette, in the Counties of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester, with a view of promoting the interest of the Whig party in the approaching Gubernatorial canvass, the Editor has made arrangements with E. R. HOOPER, Esq. late Editor of the Cambridge Chronicle, to assist him in the Editorial department of his paper—Mr. H. is a young gentleman of talents and favourably known as a chaste and easy writer, and of sterling Whig principles—this arrangement, he thinks, will give general satisfaction, as it will enable him to lay before them the earliest correct intelligence of anything of importance that may transpire in these counties—Mr. Hooper being a resident of Dorchester—thus rendering the Gazette more interesting to its patrons and the public generally.

We observe in the last Star a letter from the Hon. P. F. Thomas, wherein he formally declines the proffered nomination of the Loco Foco Convention lately held in Centreville. This confirms previous rumour. At first, we could scarcely believe that the "champion" of the Party would be so easily driven from the field—but when we cast our mind over the "causes" why he should not run the gauntlet—we were as well satisfied with his prudence, as convinced of his disinterested democracy when we read his letter. We believe the Hon. Frank Thomas, of the Western Shore also declines a re election—perhaps this also might have served to influence Francis the lesser—but we leave them to their whims—Next Monday week, our James A. Pearce will walk the course unless some sudden movement be made by our opponents. We should keep wide awake for every emergency—We have a good candidate for this important station, and we trust our friends will turn out manfully, and give him such a vote as he deserves. We are threatened with an exterminating war at the Gubernatorial election Prudence, at least, would prompt us to keep our arms and forces in all readiness. The Congrssional election-day should serve us for a general training.—Let it not be lost sight of then—as our very camps are threatened.

HON. P. F. THOMAS.—This gentleman, we learn, has accepted the partial nomination for Congress, and is now fairly before the people. We would ask the Easton Gazette if he has resigned his situation as Judge of the Land Office? If he has not, we suppose the honorable gentleman looks upon his chance as rather desperate.—Kent News.

☞Mr. Thomas has not resigned his situation as Judge of the Land Office, but has acted more wisely by declining to accept his partial nomination by the Loco Focos for Congress.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The representation in Congress will stand 10 Whigs to 10 Opposition, and Mr. Hunter, who cannot strictly be classed with either party. The nett Whig gain is 2 members.

OFFICIAL.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

PHILO C. FULLER, of Michigan, to be Second Assistant Postmaster General.

JOHN S. SKINNER, of Maryland to be Third Assistant Postmaster General.

REVENUE APPOINTMENT.—S. W. Spencer has been appointed Measurer in the Revenue Service of the port of Baltimore, vice John W. Wilmer.

THE CROPS.—Accounts from Western New York, represent the growing wheat crop, as very fine in that quarter. The same favorable report is had, in regard to the wheat crops in the neighborhood of Richmond, and James River.

KENT NEWS.—The establishment of the "Kent News," has passed, by transfer of ownership, into the hands of Mr. George Vickers, who declares in his initiatory address, published in the papar of Saturday, that the politics of the News shall be Whig, as heretofore. In other respects, his object will be to so conduct the "News," as to render it a useful and pleasant family newspaper.

The Annual Meeting of the Easton Total Abstinence Society was held on Monday evening the 4th inst. in the M. E. Church. The officers of the Society for the ensuing year were elected, and are as follows, viz:

THOMAS C. NICOLS, President,
WM. H. TILGHMAN Vice President,
N. G. SINGLETON, Secretary,
S. B. HOPKINS, Treasurer.

MANAGERS.

H. E. Bateman, Joseph K. Neal Samuel H. Benny, Charles Robinson Joseph Graham, T. R. Loockerman, Garrison Austin, Geo. W. Sherwood.

It appears from a report made by the Secretary, that the numbers of the Society have been increased recently upwards of a hundred per cent. and the cause is rapidly advancing in this place. The meetings of the Society are held weekly, and there is seldom a meeting held without having some persons to sign the pledge. At the annual meeting 13 signatures were obtained; and on Tuesday evening the society held a meeting on board the Steam Boat Maryland, at which 3 signatures were obtained. This meeting passed off delightfully; as the evening was fine, and the circumstance of meeting on board the Boat was novel; the speakers on the occasion acquitted themselves well, and all moved on with a spirit which augners well for the cause. We invite our fellow citizens to come with us, and attend our meetings, which are held every week. We invite them particularly to attend on Tuesday evening next, at half past 7 o'clock, in the Methodist Protestant Church.

S. & McN.

Newark College,
DELAWARE.

The Summer term of this institution will commence on Wednesday the 12th of May, and continue till the 4th Wednesday of September.—Students are requested to be punctual to the day

Several new arrangements have been made by the Board of Trustees for the benefit of the College. Valuable additions are to be made to the Library.—A Professorship of MODERN LANGUAGES has been added, and an able Professor elected. So that those who wish to study French, Spanish, Italian or German, need not henceforth, as heretofore, be compelled to go for that purpose out of the State.

A new and large ACADEMY has been erected, and the Preparatory Department is to be put on a new and greatly improved foundation It will be henceforth under the charge of WILLIAM S. GRAHAM, who has given such popularity within a few years past to the Academy at New London

While the course of students will be full, and not beneath that of our best Colleges, the charges, compared with many other Colleges will be extremely low.

The bill for the Summer Term of 20 weeks for Board, Tuition, Room Rent, Library, Janitor's wages, Incidentals, copy of the Laws, &c, will be 63 dollars.

Entrance fee for new Students, 5 dollars.

The above sum of 68 dollars must be paid, in all cases, in advance.

In the Preparatory Department, the expenses are about 10 dollars less.

The students room and board in College, and must furnish their own rooms with Bed, Bedding, towels, tables, chairs, glass and such articles as they need—Most of these things can be purchased second hand from the steward.

Provision is made for IRREGULAR STUDENTS i. e., those who wish to pursue SELECT BRANCHES without joining a regular class.

For each of the Modern Languages, an extra fee of 6 dollars per quarter will be charged.

A large patronage is pledged to the College, and its prospects of increase in number and prosperity, were never so promising as at the present hour.

Situated in a pleasant and healthful village, in the beginning of the hill country of Delaware, on the great Rail Road from Philadelphia to Baltimore, and about equi-distant from those cities, this rising Seminary, with confidence, invites the patronage of Pennsylvania, West Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. E. W. GILBERT, President.
