Poetry.

From the Philadelphia Saturday Courier.

A WATCH MAKER'S LAMENT.

Ah me! I fear I'm most wound up,
(There's nothing now a doin',)
For by the balance of my books,
I'm on the verge to ruin.

Mine is a dreadful case, no work!
I vow I'm almost sick,
I have no money, and I find
I cannot go on tick.

The pinions of my trade are clipp'd,
The main spring of my shop
Has broke at last, and I find out
That I am forced to stop.

My hands are lying by my side,
For I have nought to do;
I wish that with all other things
The watches would stop too.

But such strange times I never saw,
They're fairly past my gauge,
For only clocks and watches go,
In this suspension age.

With duns each day my creditors
They drill me without fail;
I'm on a pivot where to go,
To Texas or to jail.

I vow I cannot stand this long,
It sees me up nice,—
I should be most inclined to swear,
If't wasn't such a vice.

My mind's made up, I'll go; I ne'er
Was in so bad a fix as
I am now; I'll pack my kit
And brush away for Texas.

And if my creditors should ask
What such a clearing scrape meant,
Just tell them that I'm showing them,
My improvement on th' escapement.

MILLINERY.

MARY & ELIZABETH T. NEALL,
Inform their friends and the public, that they have established themselves in the town of Easton, and are prepared to execute all kinds of work in the Millinery line.

Having obtained a thorough knowledge of the business in Philadelphia, they can promise, without fear of disappointment, to furnish new work and to renew and repair old Hats & Bonnets, to the complete satisfaction of those employing them—they also keep new Florence Braid and Straw Bonnets of the Latest Fashions, together with fashionable Ribbons and Flowers which they will sell on reasonable terms.

They have established a correspondence in Philadelphia and New York, that will enable them to be furnished regularly with the latest fashions in those cities.

Here! Here!!

J. M. FAULKNER, has removed his office to the old stand next door to Mr. Solomon Barrott's Tavern, where he may be found to attend to any business in his line—viz: the settlement of Officers' Fees in his hands as late Deputy Shff, Executions in his hands as late Constable, and Town Taxes as Collector. He will also as heretofore attend to business as agent and private collector; drawing of Deeds, Mortgages, Bills of Sale, Powers of Attorneys, Indentures of Apprentices, Bonds, Insolvent Petitions Leases, Agreements and other instruments of writing.—He again renews his obligations to a generous public for the liberal encouragement he has received—and still hopes to merit a share of their patronage.

Farmers Look at This.

The subscriber re-informs his friends and the public generally, he still carries on at his old stand, on Washington Street, and has commenced Cradle making. He also intends keeping on hand Cradles already made. Persons that want them, are requested to make early application—he flatters himself from his long experience that he will be able to give general satisfaction.

Runaway.

Was committed to the jail of Kent county on the 20th instant as a runaway, by Henry Hurtt, Esq., a Justice of the Peace, a negro woman who calls herself Susan Green—said negro says her mother's name was Sarah Green and formerly belonged to James Ninde, Gay st., Baltimore, and was by him set free and that she was born after the freedom of her mother. Said negro woman is about 26 years of age, of dark complexion, is about 4 feet 8 inches high—has a scar apparently from a burn on the back of her neck on the right side—had on when committed, a painted muslin, a split straw bonnet and coarse lace boots. The owner of said negro woman is hereby warned to come forward and prove property, or else she will be discharged according to law. JOHN USILTON, Sh'ff

A VERY VALUABLE FARM ## FOR SALE.

The heirs and legal representatives of Robert H. Rhodes, late of Talbot county dec'd., have concluded to dispose of that farm situated on the main road leading from Easton to the Trappe, commonly called Milton; purchased by Robert H. Rhodes of Benjamin P. Moore, and now occupied by Mr. Ignatius P. Rhodes.—This farm contains the quantity of 250 acres of land—the land is of excellent quality and the soil kindly and productive, and has inexhaustible marl beds upon it.—There is ample timber for the support of the farm. The buildings and out houses are in tolerable condition and with slight expense may be renewed. A considerable portion of this land binds with the water, fish and oysters may be had by going a very short distance down Third Haven Creek. The premises will be shewn by Mr. Ignatius P. Rhodes to any one desirous of inspecting them. Also, a lot 1 mile from Easton, on the road leading to Centreville, containing 17 acres. The above property can be had at private sale, at any time before the 20th day of July next, and if not disposed of by that time, will be offered at public sale on that day at 11 o'clock, on the Court House green in the town of Easton.—The terms of sale will be—one third of the purchase money on the first day of January 1842—one third in twelve and the balance in twenty-four months, with interest from the first day of January 1842—to be secured by bond and approved security. Possession of any of the above property that may be sold, given on the first day of January next; the above property if not sold will be for rent for the ensuing year.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EASTON GAZETTE.

The Proprietor of the Gazette having engaged the assistance of E. Richardson Hooper, Esq., of Cambridge, Md, and recently Editor of the 'Chronicle' of that place, in the management of the editorial department of the paper, proposes to increase the circulation of the Gazette in the Counties of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester, with the view of promoting the interest of the Whig party in the approaching Gubernatorial canvass. That canvass will doubtless be warmly contested, and the advantages to be gained from having a paper reflecting the sentiments of the Whigs freely circulated among the people, are too obvious to need enforcement from me. The opposition party will undoubtedly make every exertion to increase the circulation of papers friendly to their cause, and should be met by a corresponding effort on the part of the Whigs.

The Gazette is printed every Saturday Morning, on fine imperial paper, with plain type, and, in addition to politics, is devoted to agriculture, literature, and general news. The facilities for obtaining the latest and most interesting items of information are unequalled by any Journal on the Shore.

The papers will be sent to Mr. Hooper's office, in Cambridge, every Saturday morning for distribution.
