Allen, ever since he was born, with William Whittington fifteen or sixteen years, and with Peter Guillet about four years

Item. To the second Interrogatory this deponent answers and says I lived at William W. Allens in 1819 and he shewed me a bond in that year dated 1794. it was a bond of conveyance executed by John Williams to William Davis Allen for the transfer of the land which belonged to the late Jane Shawbridge. I heard William W. Allen say that, that bond was the only one which he ever had or saw, and that, that was all he had to shew for his title to the land.

Item. To the third Interrogatory, this deponent answers and says I have had the means of knowing the general character of William W. Allen having been acquainted with him ever since he was a child, and from such knowledge I should not believe him on his oath

Item. To the last Interrogatory this deponent answers and says I know nothing particularly, except as to the lands in dispute between the parties, I heard William D. Allen say that he had never purchased it from John Williams, and that he had never claimed it.

On cross examination of the said Joseph Porter upon Interrogatories filed and propounded on the part of the com-plainant this deponent answers and says, as follow

Imprimis— To the first Interrogatory this deponent answers and says That William W. Allen and himself never had any difference or misunderstanding that William W. Allen warranted —

warranted him once, and that they have been Always friendly.

Item. To Interrogatory the second this deponent answers and says They have had several differences and misunderstandings but deponent cannot recollect the precise times deponent says they had several disputes in 1818 but would make up in a day or two

Item. To Interrogatory the third this deponent answers and says He does not believe that it did

Item. To interrogatory the fourth this deponent answers and says He never has Item. To Interrogatory the fifth this deponent answers and says The warrant was tried in Mr Barretts office Mr Stanford was the magistrate deponent asked William W Allen if he did not wish to kill some more hogs. William W Allen replied that the hogs which he killed were his own. this was all the abuse which passed deponent recollects of no threatening language.

Further this deponent saith not

Andrew A. Gilchrist of Worcester County being forty nine years of age or there abouts a witness produced and sworn as aforesaid, on the part and behalf of the defendants in this cause, and who being examined by the commissioners deposeth and saith as follow—

Imprimis— To Interrogatory the first filed on the part of the defen-dants this deponent answers and says —