EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Morning, July 3.

MARYLAND ELECTION,

DEMOCRATIC WHIG NOMINATION
FOR GOVERNOR,

WM. COST JOHNSON.

Election, Wednesday, 6th October, 1841.

We are requested to suggest to our citizens the propriety of suspending business to day, as it is intended to celebrate the National Anniversary.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The following are some of the arrangements for the celebration of the anniversary of our Country's Independence, which will be observed in this town to-day, (3d July.)

The "Easton Guards" are ordered to parade on the Court House square at sunrise, fully equipped. The members of Temperance Societies will meet at the Court House at 10 o'clock, A. M. and proceed to the Methodist E. Church, when the Declaration of Independence will be read by Capt. G. W. Sherwood, and an Oration delivered by our eloquent fellow-citizen, Theo. R. Loockerman, Esq. At 3 o'clock, P. M. they will reassemble in Mr. Hopkins' yard on Dover street, to partake of refreshments provided for the occasion. It is expected several addresses will be delivered—the public are generally invited to attend.

TEMPERANCE CELEBRATION.
Order of Procession.

The following order of procession will be observed this day—viz:

The Easton Total Abstinence Society, with all other Temperance Societies in attendance will leave the Court House square at 10½ o'clock, A. M. under the escort of the "Easton Guards," in sections two deep, and proceed down Washington street, to South street, down South to Harrison, up Harrison to Dover, down Dover to Aurora, up Aurora to Goldsborough, up Goldsborough to Harrison, down Harrison to Dover, and up Dover to the M. E. Church. After the ceremonies at the Church are ended, the Procession will re-form, and march up West street to North, up North to Washington, and down Washington to the Court House, where the several societies will be dismissed.

MODERN COURTESY.—For an Editor to receive and notice in his paper, that "An Old Democrat will appear in our next," and then without rhyme or reason to mutilate and finally reject the article.

D.

The names of the signers of the New York memorial in favor of a U. S. Bank, extend over a sheet of two hundred feet in length.

The Madisonian says:—"It is reported in the city that General Scott was on Tuesday nominated by the President to be General-in-Chief of the United States Army, in the place of General Macomb, deceased."

The Merchants' Bank of Baltimore has declared a dividend of 3 per cent. for the last six months.

The Western Bank has declared a dividend of 3 per cent. for the last six months.

The Citizen's Bank has also declared a half yearly dividend of three per cent.

THE STEAMSHIP PRESIDENT.—The New York Express says:—"The Insurance Companies, that underwrote on the cargo of the Steamer President, have paid the full amount of the loss. This is conclusive evidence of what the underwriters think of her fate. The amount insured in this city, was Thirty Thousand Dollars."

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF THE LATE REV. GEORGE G. COOKMAN.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted at the second Quarterly Meeting Conference of the Wesley Chapel Station for the present year, held on the 7th day of June, 1841:

Whereas it has been ascertained that our beloved brother, GEORGE G. COOKMAN, who so lately labored among us as a minister in holy things, and who, we trust, has bore many seals to his ministry, left this country on the 11th day of March last, in the steamship President, to pay a filial visit to his native country; that since his departure nothing definite has been either heard from him or the ship in which he sailed, and that it is highly probable she with all on board has, in the dispensation of Providence, been lost: therefore,

1. Resolved, That, as in all probability our beloved brother G. G. Cookman has been taken from us by an allwise though inscrutiable Providence, we bow with humble submission to His holy will: who giveth life and taketh it away, and whose holy name we feel bound to praise and adore, though we at the same time deeply lament that one so useful, so vigorous, so eloquent in the cause of God, should be among us no more to call to "come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty," and and though his body sleeps beneath the surface of the ocean, we trust his spirit is now redeemed, regenerated, and with his Saviour, in whose cause he so zealously labored.

2. Resolved, That we, as a body and as individuals, who well knew the worth of our beloved brother and the ardent affection he entertained for his family, do deeply and sincerely sympathize with that family in their affliction and the irreparable loss they have in all probability sustained.

3. Resolved, That we offer our most affectionate condolence to the family and friends of our late beloved pastor, and pray fervently that the grace of God may be sufficient to sustain them under this deeply afflictive dispensation; that all may work together for their ultimate good, and that a happy meeting may be in reservation for them in the kingdom of eternal bliss.

4. Resolved, That, while memory lasts, we will bear testimony to the faithful manner in which he discharged his duty as a pastor while he labored among us, and to the earnest and eloquent appeals he made to sinners to "flee the wrath to come."

5. Resolved, That, in testimony of our sincerity in what we have above expressed, we earnestly and affectionately invite a cooperation of his brethren and friends elsewhere in making provision for the proper care and nurture of his afflicted family.

6. Resolved, That a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be forwarded to sister Cookman and to his father, and that the same be published in the papers of this city and in the Christian Advocate and Journal of New York.

EDMUND DORSEY, P. E.
JOHN DAVIS, Pastor.
B. K. MORSELL, Secretary.
Washington, June 19, 1841.

DEATH OF GEN. MACOMB.—We regret to announce the death of Major General Alexander Macomb, the General-in-Chief of the United States Army, which occurred at Washington city at half-past two o'clock on Friday 25th.

DR. ABERCROMBIE.—The death of this aged divine is thus announced in the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette of Monday:

The Rev. Dr. Abercrombie died at his residence in this city on Saturday evening. This aged and venerable divine has for a long time been unable to discharge the public duties of his sacred office, and has been of late chiefly confined to his house. In addition to the veneration and respect due to Doctor Abercrombie as a clergyman of piety, learning and great eloquence, he will long be remembered as a faithful and eminently successful teacher of youth.

Dr. Abercrombie was for many years one of the associated pastors of Christ Church, St. Peters and St. James.

FREDERICK COUNTY BANK.—The Frederick Herald says that nearly all the legitimate issues of the Frederick county Bank have been returned to the Bank, and suggests that those "who have yet any of them in possession had better bring them in pretty soon or they may find them included among those from which 'the odor' of suspicion is found to emanate."

From the Baltimore American.

FREDERICK COUNTY BANK.

The money stolen some weeks ago from this institution has been recovered in New York, with the exception of $10,000 in gold, which the rogue, by compromise, was permitted to retain in consideration of surrendering the balance of the property stolen. The negotiation which terminated in this result, was, it appears, managed through the intervention of a lawyer of New York.

Since the above was in type we see it stated in the Patriot that all the money was recovered except twenty eight thousand dollars, under the following circumstances:

Some time ago, the directors of the bank received a communication from a person in New York named Wiley, who represented himself as a lawyer, and stated that he had professionally become acquainted with such facts as would enable him to secure the restitution of the stolen proper upon certain terms. Dr. Wm. Bradley Tyler, one of the directors of the Frederick County Bank, and Wm. M. Beall, esq. the cashier of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Frederick county, repaired to New York and, after a good deal of negotiation, succeeded in recovering the whole amount, with the exception of the sum above stated. We understand that the gold and the notes of banks other than the issues of the robbed institution were retained, and the lawyer who was the agent in compounding the felony, charged a commission of some ten thousand dollars for his services. No information was given that could lead to the detection of the robbers, although Mr. Wiley, upon being questioned upon that point by Dr. Tyler, said that he (the Doctor) had seen the principal of them several times during his visit to New York.

FREDERICK COUNTY BANK.—The account of the arrangement for the restitution of the notes of the Frederick County Bank, reached New York in time for a very brief notice in the papers received by this morning's mail. We give the following from the New York American.

[Balt. Patriot of July 1.

"It is extraordinary that a scene of this sort should be passing in our city, and yet the first intelligence of it should reach us from Baltimore.

It is extraordinary that the Bank after announcing that the legitimate circulation of the Bank was nearly all in, should sacrifice $28,000 in coin and good bank notes, to get back some $155,000 of its own notes, which, after the notification of the robbery, were worthless in the hands of the robbers.

And it is extraordinary that any professional man should lend himself to such a transaction, and make $10,000 by it.

We take it for granted the Bar will feel it due to themselves to inquire whether there be any such lawyer as Mr. Wiley, and, if so, whether he has done what is alleged.

The only Wiley we remember, connected with the law, is Wm. Wiley, a ward justice for the 3d district.

THE ROBBERY OF THE FREDERICK COUNTY BANK.—the Frederick Examiner of Tuesday says.

"In the transactions which resulted in the recovery of part of the funds stolen from the Frederick County Bank, there was no promise of indemnity or impunity—no pledge to relax the efforts of justice no intimation that exertions to apprehend the robbers and bring them to punishment, would be in the slightest degree diminished—no permission to keep the funds not delivered—and in a word, no compromise of any kind was made nor was anything done or said by the agents of the Bank that would not bear the test of public scrutiny."

A WRECK—Possibly a part of the President.—The New Orleans Picayune says the ship North Bend, Ferdinand A. Croker master, arrived at that port on the 21st ult. from Boston, passed a wreck on the 3d ult., which in the opinion of the Captain and some intelligent passengers on board, may have been a portion of the wreck of the ill-fated steamship President. The following was entered in the log book at the time:—"At half past 12 P. M. (3d June,) passed the broad side of a large vessel; her decks beams burned off in the centre and canted up, so as to present two iron daggor knees, which evidently made fast the lower deck of some large vessel. Her water ways were painted red, and the upper part of the iron knees showed her to have been a three deck vessel. Her water ways were apparently new and not long in the water."

THE WHEAT CROP.—Two gentlemen of long experience in grain growing, and who have just returned from masting the tour of the Western counties of Virginia and of Frederick and Washington counties in this State, represent the present prospects for a full yield of Wheat as very cheering. The recent rains, from which damage to the growing crop was anticipated, have had a very beneficial effect generally in bringing up the under heads and in increasing their size and fullness. If the present favorable state of the weather continues for a week or ten days, the crop will not only be a full average one in quantity, but the quality also will be very superior. In some places the straw does not stand as thick on the ground as in some former seasons, but the size of the heads will fully make up for any deficiency from this cause.—In the Middletown and Pleasant Valleys in this State and in the Winchester Valley in Virginia particularly, the prospects are very good. We are also informed that a much larger quantity of wheat was sown last Fall than usual, the farmers having to a considerable extent substituted it for rye. The production of the latter article will consequently be reduced, but this deficiency will be more than made up by the increased quantity of wheat raised. Some very fine specimens of Mountain wheat have been handed to us, taken promiscuously from a field of 40 acres in Washington County, which, it is estimated will yield forty bushels per acre.—Balt. American.

From the Baltimore American.

GENTLEMEN:—Will you have the goodness to inform a subscriber, whether the law passed the 3d of April, 1841 requires a man to pay taxes on all bonds, notes and accounts due him, whithout deducting the amount he may owe, and also on the whole amount of his stock of goods on hand, whether they are paid for or not? This appears to be the construction put upon it by some of the Assessors, and if it is the true construction, the law is an absurdity,—because a man may have due to him one hundred thousand, dollars, and may owe ninety thousand, consequently he is worth ten thousand, yet he is required to pay taxes on $100,000. This cannot be the case.

Again—A sells to B $1,000 worth of goods which A owes for in England.—He takes B's note. B sells to C, and takes his note; so if the assessors are right A pays a tax on B's note, and B pays a tax on C's note, and if C. lives in the State of Maryland and has the goods on hand, or has sold them to the farmers on open account or for their notes, C must also pay a tax on the same $1,000 worth of property. Consequently it may be assessed three times in different hands, and taxes levied thereon. How absurd!

The intention of the law I presume to be, that a man is required to pay a tax on his actual capital and no more. Thus—He has goods, notes and accounts to the amount of $100 000
He owes 50,000

Consequently he is worth $50,000

Which I understand to be the amount of his capital or what he is actually worth, and on which he is required to pay the tax. Am I correct in my construction of the law?
