EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday, Morning, July 10.

MARYLAND ELECTION,

DEMOCRATIC WHIG NOMINATION

FOR GOVERNOR,

WM. COST JOHNSON.

Election, Wednesday, 6th October, 1841.

CONGRESS.

The Senate is still engaged on Mr. Buchanan's resolution calling on the President for a list of removals since March 4th, 1841, and a motion to amend by Mr. Mangum, by adding from March 4th 1837, to March 4th 1841—and Mr. Clay's bill for a Bank of the U. States. The House of Representatives is occupied with the bill of Mr. Wm. Cost Johnson for the distribution of the proceeds of the Public Lands.

We are sorry to state that during the storm on Tuesday night last, between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock, the dwelling house of Mr. Howes Goldsborough of this county, was struck by lightning. The electric fluid entered the top of the West chimney, tearing off part of it, and then separated in five different streams, it would seem from the damage done that end of the building. One of the window frames in the garret was started from its position, the casing around the window forced off and driven in every direction some of the pieces forced through the ceiling with great violence. It then entered the brick wall between that window and the window in a chamber on the second floor, which it completely demolished, throwing the frame and the sash in the yard, tearing up the window seat and scattering the casing in every direction with much violence—a bedstead in this room which had been occupied the night previously by Mrs. Goldsborough's sister and her infant was broken. One portion of the fluid came down the wainscotting over the mantle piece, which it broke, another down the chimney, from thence it descended to the first floor, demolishing the window frame & injuring the casing round it. Providentially none of these rooms were occupied at that time. A front chamber on the second floor occupied by Mr. G.'s two sisters was entered by the fluid in two places, one down the chimney, the other by the side of the fire place, the wainscotting and floor sustained trifling injury, some window glass in this room was broken, the bedstead occupied by these ladies was within a few feet of where the fluid entered, and although they both sensibly felt the shock, yet, they were miraculously and providentially preserved. From thence the fluid descended to the dining room below which sustained trifling injury. Ninety odd panes of glass were broken.

THE LATE ANNIVERSARY

Of American Independence was celebrated in this Town on Saturday the 3d inst., in a manner which will long be remembered by those who witnessed the proceedings of that day. At sunrise the usual salute of 13 guns was fired; and about the same time "THE EASTON GUARDS" made their appearance on the Court House Green, and from thence passed through several of the principal streets. They exhibited by their soldier-like appearance, and the precision with which they went through the exercises, much military tact. At half past 10 o'clock, the sound of Martial music, summoned, not only the "Guards," but also the Temperance men to the "Green," where the latter were formed in procession under the Marshals of the day, and escorted by the "Guards" through the principal streets, to the M. E. Church; where a large concourse of Ladies and gentlemen had already arrived. The services were commenced by an address to the throne of Grace by the Rev. Mr. Spry.—The Declaration of Independence was then read by Capt. G. W. Sherwood; at the close of which, Theodore R. Loockerman, Esq. delivered, a handsome and appropriate Oration, embodying the principles of our National Independence, and those also of the great Temperance reformation. The services were closed with the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Mitchell; and the procession re-formed and marched in front of the Court House where it was disbanded.

At 3 o'clock the Temperance Society met in the large and shady yard of Mr. S. B. Hopkins on Dover street—There was assembled a large and respectable meeting, perhaps numbering 1000 people, of both sexes, and of all ages. The President of the Society called the meeting to order, and introduced the Rev. J. S. Mitchell, who spoke in advocacy of the great reformation now going on.—He was followed by the Rev. Mr. Spry and Mr. Conelius Clark. These gentlemen all recommended Total Abstinence to all present who had not already taken that ground. The meeting was served with refreshments, such as cake, nuts, raisins, lemonade and ice water, and the best feelings appeared to animate every bosom. The pledge was circulated, and 54 signatures obtained—The exercises closed late in the afternoon, and the day was spent, without one single incident to disturb the enjoyment and happiness of those who had assembled to commemorate the great National Birth day, of our beloved country. There was an exemplification of some of the happy results which arise from Total Abstinence; and every humane and patriotic heart will assuredly beat high with the hope that in future our National Anniversaries will be so celebrated, that our mothers, wives, daughters and sisters may, as on this occasion assemble with us to commemorate the day so dear to every American bosom.

COMMITTEE.

On Monday the 5th instant, the PRESIDENT'S HOUSE was hospitably open for the reception of his friends, and many of them of both sexes, residents, of Washington and strangers, availed themselves of the opportunity to pay their respects to the Chief Magistrate.

The memorial for the establishment of a United States Bank, presented yesterday in the Senate by Mr. Tallmadge of New York, was of such a nature and character that we feel justified in calling public attention to it, apart from the many others on kindred subjects.

This memorial from the city of New York was brought to Congress by a highly respectable committee of three gentlemen from the Board of Trade. It is about two hundred feet long, and has on it the names of fifteen thousand voters.

The apparition of such an immense, and, in this country, of course, so extraordinary a petition, naturally attracted much attention in the Senate as it was unrolled and spread out.

This memorial is, moreover a demonstration of what public opinion is in the commercial metropolis of the Union, and therefore well deserves, as it will no doubt have, the respectful attention of the body to which it was directed.

OFFICIAL.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.

By and with the advice and consent of the Senate

Brigadier General WINFIELD SCOTT, Major General by Brevet, to be Major General June 25, vice Major General ALEXANDER MACOMB, deceased.

The National Intelligencer of Monday says—"We learn unofficially, that, during the sitting of the Senate on Saturday, Philip R. Fendall, Esq previously nominated by the President was confirmed in the appointment of Attorney of the United States for the District of Columbia."

THE WHIG NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

Correspondence relating to it.

BALTIMORE, June 3, 1841.

To the Hon. Wm. Cost Johnson:

Dear Sir—As the President of the Gubernatorial Convention which assembled here this day, I am instructed to inform you that you have been unanimously selected as the Whig candidate for the next Governor of Maryland. Allow me to present to you my personal congratulations upon this result, and to assure you of the very high consideration and respect with which I have the honor to remain

Your friend and obedient servant,
SAMUEL SPRIGG.

WASHINGTON, June 15, 1841.

Dear Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 3d current, informing me, as President of the recent Whig State Convention of Maryland, of my nomination as the Whig candidate for Governor.

This evidence of respect and high confidence by my fellow citizens I appreciate with the profoundest gratitude.

Although I had no aspirations for so distinguished an honor, and would have been most happy had the Convention selected some other gentleman, the harmonious manner of its decision will not allow me to hesite in accepting the nomination.

I will but add, should I be elected, I will endeavor so to administer the duties of the high trust as to promote the interest and prosperity of the State.

For your kind expression of friendly regard, accept, I beg you, the assurance of the profound respect of your friend and obedient servant,

WM. COST JOHNSON.

To Gov. Samuel Sprigg, near Bladensburg, Md.

PARDON.—Governor Grason has responded to the recommendation of the City Court and others in behalf of Eliza Christopher, convicted of larceny. The pardon came to hand yesterday by a special messenger, and the unhappy girl was soon after released from imprisonment.—Balt. Pat.

DIRTING.—The Loco Focos of the U. S. Senate, according to reports of their letter writers, are in training, to improve their wind, preparatory to the discussion on the fiscal bank bill. Mr. Benton is represented to be in good order, and a letter in the New York Evening Post, says he "is prepared, by strict regimen, to speak all day, and all night too, if need be," and Mr. Allen of Ohio, as if anticipating martyrdom from Benton's speech, is represented, by the same writer, as having announced his readiness "to die in his seat!" It is proposed that after Benton is put in tip top order that he be backed against any bull calf in the county.—Balt. Patriot of July 2.

As an evidence of the brotherly spirit which presides among the Loco Foco members of the Editorial corps, we copy the following complimentary notice taken by the Portsmouth (Va.) Old Dominion, of his friend the editor of the Globe:

"Is the Washington Globe demented?—has the editor caught the hydrophobia?—Else how are we to account for the uncalled for, injudicious attack of the editor of that paper upon the Message of President Tyler? If the editor disliked its recommendations, disagreed with its positions, he could at least have said so in decent language; he might at least have made some slight show of common courtesy upon the occasion; instead of which he thought it a proper and fitting occasion to give vent to all the spleen that has been accumulating since the Senate took away from that establishment the public printing. I know of nothing which has more greatly astonished me than the policy which has been pursued by the Globe in relation to this matter. If that editor is desirous of keeping the democratic party in a minority for the next ten years, he is taking an effectual course to produce this effect."

THE LAND BILL PASSED.—By a reference to the proceedings of the House of Representatives yesterday, given in another column of our paper to day, it will be perceived that Mr. Johnson's Bill, for a distribution of the proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands among the States, was finally acted on in that body and passed by a vote of 116 to 108 Should this Bill become the law of the land, by its passage through the Senate and its approval by the President, Mr. Johnson, from whom it emanated and by whom it was ably defended and sustained in debate, in its ordeal through the House, will merit the highest praise.—We regard it as a measure fraught with the best consequences to the people of Maryland, who are fortunate in having, at this important juncture, in the councils of the nation, a representative so competent and ready to perform his duty.

[Balt. Pat. of July 7.

THE BANK BILL IN SENATE.

The Senate has got so far upon the Bank Bill as to express its opinion upon the Branch question, having yesterday rejected the amendment proposed by Mr. RIVES (requiring the assent of the State to the establishment of branches therein) by a vote of thirty-eight nays to ten yeas. Of the yeas eight were Whigs and two Oppositionists. Of the nays twenty were Whigs, and eighteen Opposition members.—[Nat. Intel.

ONE HOUR SPEECHES.—An important resolution, in regard to the despatch of public business, was yesterday adopted in the House of Representatives. By referring to the report of the proceedings, it will be seen that Mr. Warren of Georgia, succeeded in getting before the House his resolution for limiting each member to ONE speech, and that of not more than an hour, on any subject, and the resolution was then adopted by a vote of yeas 111, nays 75. The House was soon furnished with an example of the advantage of this rule, as, under its operation, Mr. Gordon, of New York was cut short in a very foolish and altogether irrelavent speech which he undertook to make on the Loan Bill.—[Balt.
