to see whether they were in his pocket or not and they were there. Mr. Pollitt talked of presenting him to the grand jury but deponent prevailed on him not to do so. deponent impiarled this circumstance not even to his wife. William W. Allen told deponent that he had done such days work. as he the deponent knew no man could do. from these circumstances deponent could not give credit to his oath

On cross examination of the said Josiah Warwick upon interrogatories filed and propounded on the part of the complainant. this deponent answers and says as follow.

Imprimis: To Interrogatory the first deponent answers and says
To my knowledge we never had upon any subject whatever

Item To the second interrogatory deponent answers and says
I know of no difference between them at any time, I have only heard there was.

Item The third interrogatory was waived by consent

Item To the fourth interrogatory deponent answers and says
I never did

Item From the 5th to the 13th interrogatory inclusive waived by consent

Item To the fourteenth interrogatory deponent answers and says
It has been three years or more since William W Allen took the flints. deponent thinks he was then twenty one years old or upwards he was frequently in Pollitts store he had been drinking but knew what he was doing—

Item To the fifteenth interrogatory deponent answers and says
John Williams informed him that Pollitt told him. John Williams then called on me and I told him

Item. To the sixteenth interrogatory deponent answers and says
It was in saving fodder time. William W Allen told deponent that he had cut tops from twenty thousand corn hills in one day. deponent replied that he did not, nor could not do it. William W. Allen then swore that he had done it. the conversation did not appear to be in jest. deponent told Allen that if he swore to that till he became as black as he was then white, he the deponent would not believe him. William W. Allen was not on oath administered by an authorised officer.

And further this deponent saith not.

Littleton Pollitt of Somerset County being Thirty six years of age or there abouts, a witness produced and sworn as aforesaid, on the part and behalf of the defendants in this cause, and who being examined by the commissioners deposeth and saith as follow.

Imprimis— To the first interrogatory filed on the part of the defendants the deponent answereth and says.
I know all the parties. I have known Mr. Guillet ever since he came here, John Williams for about five years. William W. Allen about ten or twelve years and William Whittington for 18 months or two years

Item To the second interrogatory deponent answers and says