his father for the transfer of the said lands"

Item. To the third interrogatory deponent answers and says "I think I have had the means of knowing the general character of William W. Allen, and from such knowledge I should not believe him on his oath"

Item. From the fourth to the sixth interrogatories waived by consent.

Item To the seventh interrogatory deponent answers & says "I never did"

Item To the 8th interrogatory deponent answers and says "No"

Item. To the ninth interrogatory deponent answers and says "Yesterday William W. Allen admitted that he had offered the patent to John Williams in July 1821, and that John Williams refused to receive it saying that he could do without it.

Item. To the last interrogatory - deponent answers and says "I heard William W Allen say yesterday that he did not bury his title papers but that he had hid them in a down hollow beach, he said it was for the purpose of preventing Peter Guillet, his family or any other person from getting them. I heard him acknowledge at the same time also, that John Williams had never offered him any bribe, or monies to side with him in any case against Peter Guillet, this was in reply to a question John Williams asked him" whether he had offered him any bribe, money or satisfaction to join him against Peter Guillet.

On cross examination of the said Joseph Stevenson upon interrogatories filed and propounded on the part of the complainant, this deponent answers and says as follow.

Imprimis — To the first interrogatory filed on the part of the complainant this deponent answers and says.

"We never had"

Item. To the second interrogatory deponent answers and says.

I do not know of any to the best of my remembrance"

Item. To the third interrogatory deponent answers and says.

"To the best of my remembrance it included all the lands which belonged to the late Jane Shawbridge"

Item. To the fourth interrogatory, deponent answers and says —

"I know that John Williams and William W. Allen entered into an arbitration bond to which I think I was a witness. the bond was for the purpose of determining whether the land now in dispute between the parties belonged to William W. Allen, or John Williams. I know of no other agreement or understanding between them."

Item. From the fifth to the forty second interrogatory inclusive waived

Item To the forty third interrogatory deponent answers and says I lived in his house for upwards of 12 months, and know of one fact which was that William W Allen said his creditors were about to push him, and that he should be compelled to petition, that he would take a false oath to defraud his creditors.

Item — The 44th & 45th interrogatories waived — by consent

Item — To the forty sixth interrogatory deponent answers and says —