And William W. Allen ever since he was a boy say five or six years."

Item. The second interrogatory waived by consent

Item. To the third interrogatory deponent answers and says.

"I think I have had the means of knowing William W. Allens general character, having had some dealings and intercourse with him myself, and having heard persons speak of him whom I could believe. I should not rely on his oath as soon as that of some other persons with whom I am acquainted."

Item. From the fourth to the ninth & last interrogatory inclusive waived by consent

And further this deponent saith not, brop examination waived for the present.

George W. Porter, a witness who was on the sixth instant produced on the part of the defendants, being again called in this day at the instance of the complainants and recxamined, on crop examination deposeth and saith as follow.

Imprimis — To the sixty fourth interrogatory deponent answers and says.

I think that Levin Woolford and John Stewart were the witnesses to the bond, but am not positive whether they were witnesses to the bond or deed, the last time that I saw the bond it was in the hands of the attorneys on the trial between Peter Guillet and John Williams"

Item. To the sixty fifth interrogatory deponent answers and says

"As well as I recollect the date of the bond was in 1794. I do not recollect whether the witnesses to the bond and the deed were the same — And further the deponent saith not —

The counsel for the defendant John Williams. intimated that he had for the present closed the examination of the witnesses on his part

The counsel for the complainant then presented to the commissioners a list of interrogatories. to be propounded to the witnesses produced on his part and behalf — and on the examination of Isaac Harris one of the witnesses produced to them by and on the part of the said complainant, upon the interrogatories exhibited by the respective parties, the following deposition of the said Harris was taken, to wit —

Isaac Harris of Somerset County being fifty seven years of age or then about, a witness produced and sworn as aforesaid on the part and behalf of the complainant in this cause, and who being examined by the commissioners deposeth and saith as follow.

Imprimis — To the first interrogatory filed on the part of the complainant this deponent answers and says.

"I know all the parties, I have known Peter Guillet about three years John Williams since the year 1765. William W. Allen from his infancy and William Whittington about seventeen years.

Item — To the second interrogatory deponent answers and says

"I know nothing about it"

Item. To the third interrogatory deponent answers and says.

I was present at the time and on the land when the commissioners acted under the commission stated in the interrogatory and that the piece of land now in dispute which was then estimated at forty three and three quarter acres, was thrown out and rejected by the commissioners in the execution of the commission in consequence of that piece being claimed before them by Matthias

Miles