Commissioners. I cannot say that the lands aforesaid were rejected and that the said lands of the said Richard H Handy and Matthias Miles were not surveyed at the time.

By the respondent

To Interrogatory No. 1" was or was not the disputed interest of Jane Strawbridge in the lands included within the description aforesaid as per reference aforesaid to the plat aforesaid valued by the commissioners aforesaid in their return

Answered. I cannot say positively but suppose that it was by there being no exception of it in the return which I have this day seen

To interrogatory No. 2" In what manner did the commissioners value the lands of Jane Strawbridge in the aggregate or by the acre

Answered. I presume it was in the aggregate as the return of the commissioners this day shown me does not specify that it was valued by the acre

By the Complainant

Interrogatory No. 7" In your preceding answers relating to the rejection of part of widows Change have you not in fixing your memory been governed by the face of the return of said commissions this day presented to you

Answer. I was at first under the impression and did believe the lands referred to was rejected by the commissioners but upon examination of the return this day exhibited I am induced to believe I was mistaken and that the return of the commissioners was correct

"I have some faint recollection that he was, but am not certain whether he was or not."

Ans. To the 10th interrogatory deponent answers and says

"I never did make any such assertion, but was under the impression and so expressed myself to several persons, that the land claimed before the commissioners by Richard H Handy & Matthias Miles which I suppose to be the same now in dispute between Peter Guillet and John Williams, was rejected by the commissioners in the valuation of the real estate of Jane Strawbridge, until I examined the return which which the commissioners had made to the court, I could not jerk my memory after the lapse of twenty seven years in competition with that return,"

Ans. To the Eleventh interrogatory deponent answers and says.

"Yes." I should have believed so to this day, but must suppose the return to be correct."

Ans. To the twelvth interrogatory deponent answers and says.

"The return was shown to me by John Williams, some time within one month previous to the taking of my deposition by Benjamin J Handy. I am the only surviving commissioner.
