And further this deponent saith not.

The commissioners having examined all the witnesses upon their oaths, that were produced to them, as well by and on the part of the complainant as ~~with~~ the defendants in this cause, and their depositions being taken down in writing in conformity to the said commission, it was therefore determined by and with the consent, and the written agreement of the counsel for the said parties (accompanying this return of proceedings, and identified by being marked with the letter B. and signed by the commissioners) that the said commission should now be closed.

And the Commissioners directed that an account of the expences, costs and charges, attending the execution of the commission aforesaid be made out by the clerk, and inclosed with the commission &c. to the Judges of Somerset County Court in Chancery - that an order of the said Court for the payment thereof may (if necessary) be procured - agreeably to the act of assembly in such cases made and provided: which is accordingly done -
