Punctual attendance is requested, as matters of great weight are to be brought up to the attention of the meeting.

MANY WHIGS.

July 31, 1841.

☞The following gentleman were, on Monday last, elected Directors of the Branch Bank of the Farmers Bank of Md. at Easton for the ensuing year.—

For Talbot County—Wm. H. Groome, Samuel Mackey, Theo. R. Loockerman, John L. Kerr, Henry Hollyday, John Stevens, Nicholas Martin.

Caroline County—George T. Martin.

Queen Ann's County.—Robert Goldsborough.

Kent County.—James E. Barroll.

Worcester County.—Ara Spence.

Cecil County—John C. Groome.

CONGRESS.—The Senate on Wednesday last got through with the amendments on the Fortification bill and it was ordered to be engrossed on Friday (yesterday.)

IN THE HOUSE—The Fiscal Bank Bill was under discussion and will be brought to a close to-day, and we have no doubt will pass the House.

Congress says the National Intelligencer will adjourn on or about the 10th of September.

The ship Akbar from Canton in 109 days arrived at New York on Wednesday last, brings 15 days later intelligence from Canton and a full cargo of fresh teas and reports 8 or 10 American vessels on their way home—we have no space for extracts.

Alluding to the order recently given to Commodore Morris to anchor the U. S. ship Delaware off Annapolis, the National Intelligencer says—

It is supposed that, besides the Members of Congress, the President of the United States, (the Commander-in-chief of the Navy as well as the Army,) with the Members of his Cabinet, will embrace the opportunity to inspect a ship, to whose officers and crew he has committed, in part, (and very safely, we are sure, as far as depends on their gallantry and courage,) the keeping of the rights and honor of their country.

THE REVENUE BILL was ordered to a third reading on Friday, and as will be seen by the proceedings in another column, finally passed the House of Representatives on Saturday.—Balt. Amer.

The National Intelligencer says:

The Bank Bill which has gone from the Senate to the House, and which we trust and believe will become a law, founds the power for establishing branches for local discount on the consent of States respectively.

If any State objects, there can be no such branch within her limits.

If she assents expressly, or if after one session of her Legislature, she is found not to object, her assent is to be presumed; and this seems reasonable, because if she have opposition, she will express it, and her silence may imply either her wishes, or that she has no objection.

In this respect the bill appears to have followed the provisions of the laws of the United States on other subjects.

At a meeting of the Whig Convention of Prince George's county, held at Upper Marlboro', on Tuesday last the following ticket was nominated for the House of Delegates:—Robert W. Bowie, William H. Tuck, John M. S. Maccubin, Samuel Hambleton.

Mr. Thomas' friends claim him in Allegany County, as an advocate of the Internal Improvement system, and in other portions of the State they represent that he is opposed to it, and both positions are supported by facts and arguments.—The only way of avoiding the difficulty thus presented will be to support Cost Johnson. He has had no connection with the matter in any way.

Frederick Examiner.

Mr. LOUIS GASSAWAY, of Annapolis, has been appointed to the office vacated by the decease of the late Ramsay Waters, Register of Chancery court.

Melancholy.—Passed Midshipman D. Ross Crawford was drowned from the U. S. Schooner Nautilus, in the Delaware on Tuesday last. A man accidentally fell overboard, and Mr. C. with several of the crew leaped into the boat to save him. Unfortunately the boat upset, and Mr. Crawford sunk to rise no more. He was an officer of much promise.

PENNSYLVANIA INTEREST.—The Philadelphia National Gazette of Monday has the following:

This day the specie is ready for the payment of interest on the State debt falling due. The discharge of this obligation ought to raise the stocks of this State in the market at home or abroad to the level at least of those of any other State of the Union. A sense of the imperative need of maintaining her credit appears now to be entertained by all classes of citizens, and the consequence of a single lapse of a few hours in providing funds to pay her interest, has proved a lesson which neither the government nor the people can forget. The present difficulty being past, it is time to look forward to the means of making the resources which are ample, available in future. A better feeling prevails among all parties on this subject and apprehensions of dishonor to the commonwealth have, we trust, no longer any just foundation.

The interest to the amount of $600,000 was duly paid. The U. S. Gazette of Tuesday says—the money was paid in bank notes and an allowance of three per cent. made for specie. The county we believed, allowed two and a half per cent. The amount received will aid the pockets of the receivers, and tend to supply the channels of trade with its true sinews.

TOBACCO CROPS.—The following notice of the appearance of the growing crop of Maryland Tobacco in Prince George's county—the largest producing county in the State—is from the Marlboro' Bulletin of Thursday:—

"The Tobacco crop in the immediate vicinity of Marlboro', and the Forest of this county, it is said, promises to be a good one; while from the lower section of the county as also as in the adjoining lower counties, we learn that nothing like a full crop can be made.—Therefore while in some parts of the State the crop will be an average one, in others there will be a considerable falling off; and on the whole we are inclined to the opinion that the yield will be much less than last year.

There will not be half a crop of Corn made in the lower part of this county.—On some plantations there has not been corn enough for the last two months to wet the roots of the Corn.

General orders have been issued in Florida, striking Capt. G. C. Hutter from the army list, for disobedience of an order to join his company in Florida; and dismissing 1st lieutenant R. C. Asheton from the service with disgrace, for deserting his regiment and embezzling public and private funds entrusted to him for disbursment.

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT WESTERN.

The Steam Ship, Great Western, arrived at New York on Thursday the 29th ult. bringing European dates ten days later. The most important part of the news received by this arrival is the result of the elections in England—the defeat of the Ministerial party, which will no doubt cause a change of Ministers and of course a change of policy—the landed interest will now be predominant the Corn laws will not be repealed, but remain as heretofore. It appears great corruption was practised during the election, votes were openly bought for 300 pounds for three and 50 pounds were given for a single vote in doubtful districts. The manufacturing districts suffer from reduced wages and the high price of breadstuffs—great discontent naturally prevail.—Fears were felt for the Crops—the weather had been cold and unpleasant.

The Rev. William Dawson, a well known and very popular clergyman belonging to the Wesleyan Methodist Church, died suddenly on the 30th of June; he was in the 68th year of his age.

The Queen of Hanover died on the 29th of June. The King had dissolved the Chamber of Deputies for its stubborn resistance to his projects.

Mr. Hume, the redoubtable champion of free trade, a candidate for Leeds, was defeated by the Tories in the election in that town.

The great repealer and agitator, O'Connell, was also defeated in Dublin by a Tory majority of 168 votes; he has however, been retained for Meath.

The revenue returns for the year and quarter ending July 5 show a decrease of £524,649 on the year 1840, and on the quarter a decrease of 23061. The great decreases on the year is in the customs, £857,991. On the taxes there is an increase of £649,471.

There had been a serious disturbance at Toulose in France, in consequence of which the soldiery had been ordered to act, and many lives were lost. It grew out of the proceedings taken by the Government to obtain fuller returns of the door and window taxes, which was resisted by the people The excitement continued for two or three days, but at the latest dates the disturbance was considered at an end.

There is no later intelligence from China—and none of any moment from the continent.

THE METHODIST CLERGY. A large and influential portion of the Wesleyan Methodist Clergy in England, it is said, are in favor of wearing sacerdotal robes. We see it stated in a Halifax paper, that the Rev. Mr. Bunting, an English Wesleyan Methodist, lately appeared in full robes, similar to those worn by the Episcopal Clergy, as also another clergyman of that church, the ladies of whose church had presented him with a full suit and in addition the London Wesleyan Methodist Magazine for last month is embellished with a portrait of the Rev. Matthew Richey, Wesleyan Missionary at Toronto, Canada in full robes and collar.

CONGRESS.

Saturday, July 31, 1841.

The Senate did not sit to-day.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

In the House of Representatives, after some business of no general interest

The House adopted a resolution from the Committee on Naval Affairs, directing an inquiry into the cost and expediency of aiding companies in fitting out armed steamers, and for selecting dock yards on the bays, lakes, and rivers of the United States.

The Bankrupt Bill was read twice, and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The Revenue Bill then came up on third reading.

Mr. Proffit opposed the haste with which the Bill had been forced through the House.

The previous question was called, and seconded, and the Bill passed, yeas 116, nays 101.

Mr. Wise upon the reading of the title, rose to amend it by striking out and and inserting, "A bill to violate the compromise act of the third of March 1833"

He said the bill should fit the caption. He said the House had unmuzzled itself, and put itself under the dominion of Shrewsbury clock. He said the bill taxed the cotton bagging of Kentucky twenty per cent., and if cotton could stand this, yellow corn could. The rule was a rule to cover up the irresponsibility of the administration. He said the bill would injure the commercial interests and would be repealed in less than twelve months.

Mr Fillmore and Mr. Barnard called Mr. Wise to order for debating the subject and not the title of the bill.

Mr. Wise said he knew what he was about He was showing how the bill violated the compromise act, and why it should have a proper title. He said it was time this humbug of titles was exploded A deposite bill distributed the amount of twenty-eight millions among the people in 1837. He said this bill, if passed, would bring a protective tariff upon the country. He said there were some men in the House that he would not lead, for they would drag so heavy that they would keep a giant back. He compared Mr. Stanley to a Pope at the Vatican, fulminating his paper bulls of Excommunication, and was glad that he had found some charity for him. He now withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Bidlack of Pennsylvania sent to the Chair an amendment to the title of the bill:

"And lay a tax on the producing classes to make up the contemplated deficiency in the Treasury arising from the anticipated distribution of the proceeds of the public domain for the benefit of stockjobbers, loan holders and speculators

Mr. Bidlack briefly expressed his opinion of the bill.

The previous question was then called, and the bill passed by its reported title.

The House then adjourned —Globe.

MARRIED

In this county on Thursday last, by the Rev. Mr. Bell Mr. Noah Jefferson. to Mary Ann Ball, all of this county.

On the same day by the same, Mr. William Wright, to Martha Ann Jane Welch, all of this county.

On the 5th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Bell, William Henry, to Susan Draper, all of this county.

DIED

In this town on Wednesday last, Mary Jane, infant daughter of James and Mary Barrett.

In this town on Wednesday the 28th ult. Ann Eliza, infant daughter of Robert and Eliza Ann Collison.

Departed this life very suddenly on Monday night last, JAMES NEALL, in the 66th year of his age. The subject of this brief notice was a native of Talbot County and descended from respectable parents of the Society of Friends—After obtaining the age of manhood he settled in this town, where for many years he was actively and industriously engaged in his pursuits. He subsequently removed to Philadelphia where he resided several years and within a few years had returned with his family to this place.—It is sincerely believed that James Neall bore the character which he justly merited, of an honest man, a kind husband and affectionate father and relative. He was on Wednesday last followed to his grave in the burying ground of the Friends, near Easton, by a deeply afflicted widow, and sorrowing children, who shared largely the sympathies of numerous neighbours and friends who accompanied them.

On Tuesday the 13th of July last, at her residence in the Bay Side, Mrs. ANN D. HADDAWAY in the 45th year. In her life and in her death she was a testimony and a proof of the influence of the Christian religion over the vicissitudes and trials of this vain and transitory world; camly and with full reliance upon the merits of her Saviour, she gave up her spirit to her maker and cheerfully went to meet her God; and though the heartfelt sigh will be often breathed at the memory of her worth, "yet weep not, she is at rest.

From misery and madness and all strife
In the graves' peaceful breast.
Aye though her memory is green,
In the fond heart where love for her was borne
Yet weep not! she shall soar
As the free'd eagle of the skies that pined
But pines no more, for her own mountain wind
And the old ocean shore;
It mounts, it mounts, Oh spread
The banner of gay victory—and sing
For the enfranchised—and bright garlands bring
But weep not for the dead.
