HOME.

BY B. BARTON.

Where burns the loved hearth brightest,
Cheering the social breast?
Where beats the fond heart lightest,
Its humble hope possessed?
Where is the smile of sadness,
Of meek-eyed patience borne,
Worth more than those of gladness,
Which mirth's bright cheek adorn?
Pleasure is marked by fleetness
To those who ever roam,
While grief itself has sweetness
At home, dear home!

There blend the ties that strengthen
Our hearts in hours of grief.
The silver links that lengthen
Joy's visits when most brief;
There eyes in all their splendor
Are vocal to the heart,
And glances gay and tender,
Fresh eloquence impart;
Then dost thou sigh for pleasure?
Oh! do not wildly roam!
But seek that hidden treasure,
At home, dear home!

Does pure religion charm thee,
Far more than aught below?
Wouldst thou that she should arm thee
Against the hour of wo?
Think not she dwelleth only
In temples made of prayer;
For home itself is lonely
Unless her smiles be there.
The devotee may falter,
The bigot blindly roam;
If worshipless her altar
At home, dear home.

Love over it presideth,
With meek and watchful awe;
Its daily service guideth,
And shows its perfect law;
If there thy faith shall fail thee,
If there no shrine be found,
What can thy prayers avail thee,
With kneeling crowds around?
Go, leave thy gift unoffered
Beneath religion's dome,
And be her first fruits proffered
At home, dear home!

HEALTH.

Cleanliness promotes health: & therefore our citizens are respectfully and earnestly reminded at the present season, to pay particular attention to their cellars, yards, gutters, &c It will be well to have them all well cleansed, and kept so, during the warm season. By attending to these matters, much may be gained in the way of health and comfort, and by neglecting them much may be lost by sickness and death.—The Commissioners of the Town therefore most earnestly request the inhabitants to get to work immediately, and have all matters calculated to produce bad smells, &c. removed from about their premises, and thus promote the health of their own families and the town generally. By order

PROSPECTUS.

THE EASTON GAZETTE.

A. GRAHAM. Editor and Proprietor.
E. R. HOOPER, Assistant Editor.

The Proprietor of the Gazette having engaged the assistance of E. Richardson Hooper, Esq., of Cambridge, Md., and recently Editor of the 'Chronicle' of that place, in the management of the editorial department of the paper, proposes to increase the circulation of the Gazette in the Counties of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester, with the view of promoting the interest of the Whig party in the approaching Gubernatorial canvass. That canvass will doubtless be warmly contested, and the advantages to be gained from having a paper reflecting the sentiments of the Whigs freely circulated among the people, are too obvious to need enforcement from me. The opposition party will undoubtedly make every exertion to increase the circulation of papers friendly to their cause, and should be met by a corresponding effort on the part of the Whigs.

The Gazette is printed every Saturday Morning, on fine imperial paper, with plain type, and, in addition to politics, is devoted to agriculture, literature, and general news. The facilities for obtaining the latest and most interesting items of information are unequalled by any Journal on the Shore.

The papers will be sent to Mr. Hooper's office, in Cambridge, every Saturday morning for distribution.
