It assumed that they would submit to such treatment from Gen. Tilghman—whereas we feel sure, that if he had acted towards them as this report stated, they would have left his employment & sought work elsewhere in this land of free and equal rights. This report of improper treatment of mechanics by Gen. Tilghman was never used on the stand—never breathed in public, when he could face the assertor of it indignantly on the spot—Oh no—it was reserved for dark, secret inuendo and insinuation in remote parts of the county—many who told others of it, wound up by saying "we are sure it must be a mistake, but the report is very current"—ready way this to spread it, without assuming the responsibility. But we trust now the story, its authors and circulators are impaled by this handbill, and will look for some thing elee to urge against our worthy candidate.

One word, by the way in conclusion, respecting the boast of our opponents that they run mechanics on their ticket and we do not—and that therefore the mechanics should sustain them. We ask who were Bruff, Dudley and Mullikin, all three for many years on the Whig ticket? Were they not all three mechanics! Who were Messrs. T. O. Martin and Boyle? were they not of the same valuable class of citizens! and does not our present candidate Harrington belong to that class of citizens? Away then with such cant.—Our ears are stunned nightly with this slang from opponents and we think the above facts must close their bold assertions on this subject too.

We attended the Whig meeting in Easton on Tuesday last—owing to the busy season and the prevalence of sickness to some extent, the meeting though a highly respectable one, was not as numerously attended as usual. It was addressed by Mr. Henry H. Goldsborough in a clear and lucid speech, detailing the disorders of the times and tracing them clearly to the mal-administrations of Jackson and Van Buren. He was followed by Gen. Tilghman, who gave universal satisfaction by the able and powerful effort made on the occasion. He gave a luminous review of the work of the Extra Session of Congress. The mass of important bills passed by the Whigs in 12 weeks—Showed that they had done more in this short time for the honor, safety and defence of the nation, than their predecessors had in 12 years—This review of State matters, political and financial, was able and satisfactory also. We wish every Whig in the county could have heard him.

The Candidates of the opposite party, through an accredited organ, made known that they, in case of their election, would go for the repeal of the Tax Bill—but no means of paying principal or interest was suggested. The interest would be added to principal, and pay-day must arrive at some period, or Maryland practice nullification, or the McNutt, Mississippi sponging, wiping out system of paying debts. What Marylander desires to see his State covered with degredation by either of these systems or plans of payment. It may do well enough to talk of or rant about; but when it comes to the test, as in Mississippi, its rancorous and misguided advocates will shrink from the avowal of such doctrines. As in that State, though the Loco Focos may get the majorities in Meryland, Bond-paying resolutions would be passed, here also. They dare not do otherwise—honor, faith, integrity, every noble sentiment of human nature revolts at a different course. We all regret the State debts, brought about alike by the votes of Whigs and Loco Focos. No party is properly chargeable with this debt. The combined votes of both have produced it, and let us as honest citizens, as Marylanders pay it faithfully and act more wisely and prudently in future.

☞To the people of Maryland the election for Governor is fraught with an immense amount of weal or woe. Should the successful candidate possess narrow and contracted views—be a pliant tool to the dictates of party, & sacrifice the public welfare upon its unholy shrine, his administration will be an incubus upon the state—and ill-omined pall upon her growing prosperity; while, on the contrary, should he entertain enlarged and statesman-like views, and, rising, superior to the despotism of party, endeavor to administer the government with an eye single to the welfare of the whole State, the people would have cause to rejoice, and the universal prosperity that would prevail—the increased activity in all the business pursuits of life—and the development of the resources of the State, would constitute a monument to his fame more enduring than brass or marble.

There are two candidates before the people for the high and responsible office of Governor—both of whom have served for a long time in the councils of the State and nation. It is therefore to their public acts the people should look for an earnest of their ability and fitness to discharge the duties of the distinguished office to which they aspire, with honor to themselves and advantage to the State at large. Search the Journals of the State Legislature and of Congress, and see if you can discover one great or salutary measure which Mr. Thomas ever originated, or a wise legislative amendment which was suggested by him. Do his public acts and speeches stamp him as the statesman of enlightened and comprehensive views—the profound thinker or patriotic citizen? Is his name blazond upon the page of history as a public benefactor? No. You would search in vain for the evidence of his wisdom as a legislator, or his patriotism as a citizen.—His whole public life has been devoted to the vile purposes of party and self-aggrandisement. Avarice and ambition have been the leading passions of his soul and the governing principle of all his actions. He has always objected to every measure of his opponents, even when he knew their influence would be benificial and has pursued a captious, fault-finding course with the view of attaining a notoriety, even though it were an infamous one. Successfully has he glided along upon the current of events, shielded from suspicion by his sanctimonious mien but the ass's ears have at last protruded through the lion's skin, and the corruption which he has so adroitly practised are laid bare to the public gaze.

How brightly does the high and honorable course of William Cost Johnson contrast with the low intriguing policy of Mr. Thomas? Whilst a member of our State Legislature, Mr. Johnson recommended the construction of the Rail Road from Baltimore to Washington, and sustained his views by such unquestionable facts and sound arguments, that the State was induced to undertake the work. The work was finished, and has proved by far the most profitable work of Internal Improvement in which the State has embarked. The history of the times shews that Mr Johnson was regarded as one of the ablest members of our State Legislature. As a member of Congress, he has earned for himself unfading laurels. His course has ever been marked by a faithful and unflinching adherence to his country's best interests. His wisdom, sagacity and foresight as a Legislator have elicited the praise of the whole country his unswerving fidelity to the constitution and the principles of republican government, have endeared him to every patriotic soul. A faithful sentinel on the ramparts of the Constitution he has jealously guarded it from the assaults of demagogues, and long will it be before many of them forget the blows inflicted by his bold arm At the present session he reported the bill for distributing the proceeds of the sale of the public lands among the States and by the most untiring industry and perseverance succeeded in effecting its passage through the House of Representatives. For this crowning measure of his usefulness he merits and will receive a nation's gratitude and thanks.

Taking their relative usefulness to the state and country as the criterion by which the people should be governed in making their choice between the two candidates for governor, we think there is no cause to fear the result. There is a spirit of patriotism among the people which may be mis-directed and led astray for a while by designing demagogues, but which unerringly prompts them again to take the right path when they discover their error. They are disposed to encourage merit and reward exertion. All we ask, then, is that they will examine the public acts and character of the two opposing candidates for governor, and our life upon it, they will discover that while Mr Thomas has been laboring for his own preferment, Mr. Johnson has been devoting his noblest energies to the service of his country.

TO PREVENT SMUT IN WHEAT.

Mr. Graham:

As the season for seeding wheat is near at hand I send you for publication a receipt for preventing smut in Wheat—It is taken from a letter which I received a few days ago from a gentleman, who is one of the most celebrated wheat growers in the State of New York.

Your obedient servant.

T. TILGHMAN.

"Soak your seed wheat for 12 hours in strong brine; then drain out the brine and add 2 quarts of newly slacked lime to the bushel and mix it well. After 12 hours sow your wheat on dry ground and you will have no smut."

A JUDGE SHOT IN A DUEL.—It was stated a few days since, that a duel was to have taken place on the 6th inst. opposite Princeton, Mississippi, between Judge Tenny and Mr. Rowley, both of Louisiana; weapons rifles, distance thirty steps. It took place according to arrangement, and Judge Tenny was killed at the first fire. The parties, we understand, stood back to back, and the Judge, through mistake, wheeled too quick Discovering his error, he was in the act of resuming his position when the word was given, and he received his adversary's death-shot in the back.—Sun.

SENATORIAL NOMINATION.—William Frick Esq., was yesterday evening put in nomination as the Democratic candidate for Senator, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Hon. B. C. Howard, by a unanimous vote of the Convention.—Balt. Sun of yesterday.

TO THE MECHANICS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

Having understood that sundry unfounded and calumnious stories are in circulation with regard to the manner in which Genl. Tilghman, one of the Whig candidates, has treated mechanics when in his employment, we feel compelled as well by a sense of justice to him as in duty to ourselves to give a prompt denial to these false and ungenerous reports.

We have been several times employed by Gen. Tilghman and in every instance have been treated by him in the most gentlemanly manner. At no gentleman's house have we been better accommodated and we feel sure that his enemies have hatched these stories for want of something else against Gen. Tilghman.

Half past 2 o'clock, P. M.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. On motion and vote the following resolution was passed unanimously.

Resolved, That this Convention view with much satisfaction the course pursued by the Candidates of both political parties in Talbot County, in pledging themselves not to use directly or indirectly any intoxicating liquors, in the electioneering canvass, and do hereby express their fervent hope that this praise-worthy example may be followed by all Candidates throughout the State.

And on further motion and vote, Resolved. That the Secretaries furnish a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of each Society represented in this Convention.

The Committee to prepare business for the action of the Convention reported a series of resolutions, which on motion and vote were acted upon singly.

The following were passed without debate.

1st. Resolved, That we esteem it a matter of rejoicing that the cause of Total Abstinence has met with such unparalleled success throughout the U. States, that we feel ourselves bound to give thanks to the giver of all our mercies for his blessings which have attended our efforts.

2d. Resolved, That the vital interest and complete success of the Temperance cause demand that in all the efforts of the friends of that cause against the use of ardent spirits no substitute except pure water be recommended as a drink.

And the next resolution in order occasioned considerable debate, which continued until a motion was made and carried to adjourn until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

THURSDAY MORNING, 10 o'clock.

The Convention met, and was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Cazier—after which the roll was called and the proceedings of yesterday read and received. The discussion on the resolution under consideration yesterday was continued this morning, and the resolution was finally adopted in the following form, viz:

3d. Resolved, That intoxicating liquors used as a beverage are a poison, the drinking of which is highly injurious to the bodies and minds of men.

The following resolution was then adopted, without debate.

4th. Resolved. That the influence of the female sex, in favor of the Temperance cause, has had a highly salutary effect upon all classes in the community, and especially upon those who are the hope of future generations, the children and youth, and that should the influence to which they are so justly entitled, be united and universally exerted in favor of this cause, they would do much to perfect and perpetuate the moral renovation of the whole human family.

The Convention then adjourned to meet again at half past 2 o'clock.

Half past 2 o'clock, P. M.

The Convention met, and took up the following resolutions which after some debate were adopted.

5th. Resolved, That the tendency of all intoxicating drinks to derange the bodily functions, to lead to drunkeness to harden the heart, sear the conscience, destroy domestic peace, excite men to the commission of crime, waste human life and destroy souls and the rebukes and warnings of God, in his word and in relation to them in connection with every law of self preservation and of love, impose upon all men a solemn moral obligation to cease forever from their manufacture, sale and use as a beverage, and do unitedly call upon us as men and christians not to pause in our work until such manufacture, sale and use shall be universally abandoned.

6th. Resolved, That the recent successful efforts of the Washington Temperance Society of Baltimore, has dawned as a new era in the temperance reformation and proved to the world that the principles of total abstinence are as extensive and effectual in rescuing our fellow men from the degradation of intemperance as the evil was alarming and terrible and that no case is so hopeless, as to despair of entire reformation and none so secure, as not to be exposed to like danger from moderate or temperate drinking.

7th. Resolved, That this Convention highly approve of the pledge adopted by the Maryland State Temperance Society and believing that uniformity in this respect will be greatly promotive of the common cause, do therefore recommend that the Societies in this State and elsewhere, adopt the same.

8th. Resolved, That the united testimony of most physicians, to the hurtful nature and destructive tendency of intoxicating liquors, has been a powerful auxiliary to the temperance cause: and should that respectable and influential class of our citizens all exert their influence to induce the whole community to abstain from their use they would render themselves more eminently useful.

Some other resolutions were debated and rejected. The following were then passed unanimously.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Convention be published in the papers printed in this town and in the Temperance Herald.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the Trustees of the M. E. Church for the use of the Church on this occasion.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be presented to the officers thereof, for the able manner in which they have discharged their duty.

On motion and vote the Convention then adjourned sine die.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr. Thomas D Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa. has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del, an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

JAMES M'INTIRE, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Elkton, Md.

July 22d, 1841.

The following is an extract from a letter from the Rev. Thomas Love, dated LOVEVILLE, Del., June 18th, 1841.

"With the system you have adopted, your mode of communicating instruction, the government of your school, and the management of the boarding department—I am highly gratified. With the examination I was so much delighted that I really wished that all parents who have daughters to educate could have been present. The improvement which our daughter made while with you exceeded far my expectations, and I greatly regret that she is not enjoying the privilege of being with you this summer."

TO RENT.

The subscriber is desirous of renting his farm on Wye Island, for one or two years, to a good tenant; either for a grain or monied rent.
