A DREAM OF CHILDHOOD.

BY JAMES BURTON.

I had a dream, which was not all a dream.—[BYRON.

I had an hour's dreaming
When busy Fancy's train
Brought, in its pleasant seeming,
The happy past again!
I roamed accustomed places,
A little child once more;
I saw again loved faces
All smiling as of yore!

I saw beside the wildwood,
Our pretty rustic cot,
Just as it stood in childhood,
That fairy-haunted spot!
I saw my father sitting,
When sultry day was o'er;
My aged mother knitting
Her stocking at the door.

There came my gentle sister—
Alas! long since inurned—
Yet there she was—I kissed her,
I felt her kiss returned!
I heard my brother's prattle,
His merry laugh once more;
Although he died in battle,
Long since, on some far shore!

My eyes wept on till aching
With such excess of joy;
Alas! that truth and waking
The charm should all destroy,
Strange freaks of fancy showing—
I was in that brief span,
A child with light locks flowing
I awoke a gray old man.

Here! Here!!

J. M. FAULKNER, has removed his office to the old stand next door to Mr. Solomon Barrott's Tavern, where he may be found to attend to any business in his line—viz: the settlement of Officers' Fees in his hands as late Deputy Shff, Executions in his hands as late Constable, and Town Taxes as Collector. He will also as heretofore attend to business as agent and private collector; drawing of Deeds, Mortgages, Bills of Sale, Powers of Attorneys, Indentures of Apprentices, Bonds, Insolvent Petitions, Leases, Agreements and other instruments of writing.—He again renews his obligations to a generous public for the liberal encouragement he has received—and still hopes to merit a share of their patronage.

Notice.

The Vestry of St. Peter's Parish, being now about to recommence the new Church, takes this method of informing delinquent subscribers, of the necessity of paying up immediately their respective subscriptions. The time according to the terms of the subscription list is long since expired. The Vestry have incurred responsibilities which they are bound to meet, and new ones are about to commence. It is therefore hoped, that further solicitation will be unnecessary, as the subscribers must see the absolute necessity, on their part of payment being made, and on the part of the Vestry of its being decisively required.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EASTON GAZETTE.

A. GRAHAM, Editor and Proprietor.
E. R. HOOPER, Assistant Editor.

The Proprietor of the Gazette having engaged the assistance of E. Richardson Hooper, Esq., of Cambridge, Md., and recently Editor of the 'Chronicle' of that place, in the management of the editorial department of the paper, proposes to increase the circulation of the Gazette in the Counties of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester, with the view of promoting the interest of the Whig party in the approaching Gubernatorial canvass. That canvass will doubtless be warmly contested, and the advantages to be gained from having a paper reflecting the sentiments of the Whigs freely circulated among the people, are too obvious to need enforcement from me. The opposition party will undoubtedly make every exertion to increase the circulation of papers friendly to their cause, and should be met by a corresponding effort on the part of the Whigs.

The Gazette is printed every Saturday Morning, on fine imperial paper, with plain type, and, in addition to politics, is devoted to agriculture, literature, and general news. The facilities for obtaining the latest and most interesting items of information are unequalled by any Journal on the Shore.

The papers will be sent to Mr. Hooper's office, in Cambridge, every Saturday morning for distribution.

'Female Institute of Easton.'

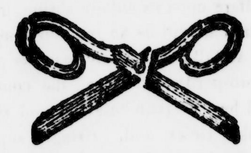

This Institution, under the direction of a Lady in every respect highly qualified, has been in successful operation since the early part of June last. The trustees avail themselves of this opportunity, (the approach of the vocation.) to recommend this school to the favorable consideration of parents and guardians, who are desirous of affording their children and wards, the facilities of a complete education. All the usual branches taught in the most approved seminaries are thoroughly taught in this—Music also at an extra charge of $10 per quarter. The academic year is divided into three terms, the first of which begins on the first day of October. The charge for the two first terms each is $7.50, and for the last term $6, including fuel. The vacations are, one week at Christmas, two days at Easter and Whitsuntide, and the whole month of September. The vacation will take place on the 27th of this month and the school will be reopened on the first day of October—Board in very respectable families may be had at a moderate rate. There are at this time a few vacancies in the School and those disposed to send their children had better make an early application to T R.
