THE FALL OF THE OAK—AN AUTUMN SCENE.

BY G. HILL.

From the Knickerbocker.

A glorious tree is the old gray oak,
He has stood for a thousand years,
Has stood and frowned
On the woods around,
Like a king among his peers.
And round their king they stand, so now,
When the flowers their pale leaves fold,
The tall trees round him stand, arrayed
In their robes of purple and gold.

The autumn sun looks kindly down,
But the frost is on the lea,
And sprinkles the horn
Of the owl, at morn,
As she hies to the old oak-tree.
Not a leaf is stirred,
Not a sound is heard
But the thump of the thresher's flail,
The low wind's sigh,
Or the distant cry
Of the hound on the fox's trail.

The forester, he has whistling plunged,
With his axe, in the deep wood's gloom,
That shrouds the hill
Where low and chill
The sunbeams struggling come:
His brawny arm he has bared and laid
His axe at the root of the tree,
The old gray oak
And, with lusty stroke,
He wields it merrily:
With lusty stroke:
And the old gray oak,
Through the folds of his gorgeous vest
You may see him shake
And the night owl break
From her perch in his leafy crest.
She will come but to find him gone from where
He stood, at the break of day;
Like a cloud that peals as it melts to air,
He has past, with a crash, away.

Though the spring in bloom & the frost in gold
No more his limbs attire
On the stormy wave
He shall float and brave
The blast and battle fire:
Shall spread his white wings to the wind
And thunder on the deep,
As he thundered when
His bough was green
On the high and stormy steep.

Mamma Kitty's SALVE,

NOW FOR THE FIRST TIME OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

The good effects of this salve have been known among the friends of the now proprietors upwards of fifty years, and was introduced by a worthy & benevolent old German lady who was for many years known in the city of Baltimore by the name of Mamma Kitty, from whom the salve took its name. Mamma Kitty came to this country about sixty years ago with a German physician who settled in the city of Philadelphia, under whose direction she made this salve, and used it with great success. Afterwards she moved to Baltimore, and lived as a nurse in the family of the late Lewis Pascault, Esq. & continued to use her salve in that family and among her friends until her death, previously giving to the now proprietor, the receipe of the preparation together with some of her salve, which has only been used in his family and among his friends until this time. But having found a great demand for it at home and abroad, and through the earnest solicitation of physicians and friends, we are now induced to offer it to the public.

The above salve is confidently recommended in all cases of old unhealthy sores and ulcers. See the accompanying recommendations

DR. CHATARD'S CERTIFICATE.

DEAR MADAM:—I was well acquainted with Mamma Kitty—she was a benevolent old woman, who more than once related to me the wonderful cures operated by her salve—And I believe she was incapable of telling an untruth. I can certify (so far) by the good effect that salve has produced in my own family, that it is an excellent composition. And the best proof I can give you of my faith in its curative power, is to desire you to send me five boxes of it for the cash here enclosed, $5

Very respectfully,
Your most ob't ser't,
P. CHATARD, M. D.

Baltimore, May 2nd; 1841.

DR S. T. RUSSUM'S CERTIFICATE

I have for fourteen years past been intimate & the family physician, in Mr. L. C. Pascult's family, and have frequently had the opportunity to observe the good effects of a salve made by Mrs. Pascult, (called Mamma Kitty's salve) and do not hesitate to say, that it is an excellent DIGESTIVE preparation, and is worthy the attention of medical men as well as others, in all cases of SANIOUS SORES OR INDOLENT ULCERS.

SYDENHAM T. RUSSUM, M. D
Wye Mills, 27th June, 1841.

MRS. PASCAULT:—Madam.—This is to certify, that I was bitten by a dog on my ancle the third day of January, 1837, and was attended by three eminent physicians until August, 1839, and made use of a variety of popular applications, all of which failed in giving relief. When I heard of Mamma Kitty's salve I procured some from you, and in seven weeks from the time I commenced using it, my leg was healed over; the sore extended from the end of my toes nearly to my hip, and was swollen to three times its natural size, and I expected it would have to be cut off—indeed, the Doctors thought so. I am now seventy years old, and my leg feels as well as ever it did. My faith was so great in the healing qualities of your salve, that one of my family had a bone film, and her child a tetter worm on its head—they applied the salve, which made a perfect cure. One of my grandchildren has had very sore eyes from its birth inted them with the salve, and it has taken the inflammation out.

Yours, with respect,
MARY LEWIS.

NEWARK FEMALE SEMINARY, DELAWARE.

THIS institution, now conducted by the Rev. Samuel Bell, will on the first Wednesday of November next be transferred to the care of the subscriber, who will continue to pursue the course of instruction, plan of discipline and general management which has been universally approved in Oxford Female Seminary under his direction. And while excellence in every department will be chiefly aimed at; in order to bring a good education within the means of persons in moderate circumstances, the charges will be unusually low.

MUSIC will receive more than ordinary attention. The principles of the science will be thoroughly taught by familiar lectures accompanied by suitable illustrations and regularly progressive exercises; while great care will be taken to form an accurate and effective style of performance.

The French, Spanish, and Italian languages will be taught by the Professor of modern languages in Newark College; and the subscriber will be enabled to avail himself of the advice and assistance of the present experienced principal of the Seminary.

TERMS—Tuition in the English branches and vocal music board, fuel, washing, lights, &c. per session of 22 weeks. $60

Extra charges to those who pursue the following studies—Ancient and Modern languages each per quarter, $5. Music on the piano, with the use of the best instruction books and the most appropriate and fashionable music, per quarter, $8. Use of instruments, $2. Small extra charges also for Wax Flowers, Needlework &c

Books and Stationary will be furnished at a rate below the ordinary retail prices; or pupils who prefer it will be supplied with all necessary stationary and the use of the text books for $2 for the first quarter, and $1 for each subsequent one; making the whole necessary expenses for a year's education in this Seminary only $125.

Further information may be obtained and places secured, by addressing the subscriber at Newark.

Newark College and the superior Academy connected with it, will be very convenient for parents having children of both sexes to educate.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr Thomas D Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa. has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del., an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities of [illegible] and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

JAMES M. INTIRE, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Elkton, Md.

The following is an extract from a letter from the Rev Thomas Love, dated

LOVEVILLE, Del., June 18th, 1841.

"With the system you have adopted, your mode of communicating instruction, the government of your school, and the management of the boarding department—I am highly gratified. With the examination I was so much delighted that I really wished that all parents who have daughters to educate could have been present. The improvement which our daughter made while with you exceeded far my expectations, and I greatly regret that she is not enjoying the privilege of being with you this summer."

THE EASTON GAZETTE.

A. GRAHAM, Editor and Proprietor.
E. R. HOOPER, Assistant Editor.

The Proprietor of the Gazette having engaged the assistance of E. Richardson Hooper, Esq., of Cambridge, Md., and recently Editor of the 'Chronicle' of that place, in the management of the editorial department of the paper, proposes to increase the circulation of the Gazette in the Counties of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester, with the view of promoting the interest of the Whig party in the approaching Gubernatorial canvass. That canvass will doubtless be warmly contested, and the advantages to be gained from having a paper reflecting the sentiments of the Whigs freely circulated among the people, are too obvious to need enforcement from me. The opposition party will undoubtedly make every exertion to increase the circulation of papers friendly to their cause, and should be met by a corresponding effort on the part of the Whigs

The Gazette is printed every Saturday Morning, on fine imperial paper, with plain type, and, in addition to politics, is devoted to agriculture, literature, and general news. The facilities for obtaining the latest and most interesting items of information are unequalled by any Journal on the Shore.

The papers will be sent to Mr. Hooper's office, in Cambridge, every Saturday morning for distribution.
