tlement, "paying up old scores," and had actually passed through the hands of twenty four different debtors and creditors, thus paying debts to the amount of $2,400!

A most lamentable Accident occurred in the neighborhood of Quantico, Somerset county, in this State, on Thursday week, which resulted in the death of one lady, and consequences perhaps more deplorable to another. A letter to a gentleman of this city states that Miss Margaret Kennelly, with two other ladies, the daughters of a Mr. Waller, were riding out in a carriage, when the vehicle broke down. The horse immediately became frightened, and in the melee, Miss Kennelly was kicked in the head so as to tear away a portion of the brain. She lingered for three days entirely insensible, and then expired. One of the Miss Wallers, though much injured, it is thought will recover. The other lady, it is stated, is entirely deranged.— Sun.

TEXAS—MURDER—LYNCH LAW —LAST OF THE YOAKUM GANG.

We have been put in possession of the facts in relation to this affair, which is one among the last Texas tragedies.—The citizens of Jefferson county, it appears, have long suffered from their outrages; and, from their numbers and total recklessness of character, it seemed impossible to arrest their injuries by the hand of civil power, Cattle had been stolen, robberies committed, and citizens insulted and murdered; but still, whenever any were arrested on the charge, the gang came forward with perjured oaths, and they were acquitted. "Yoakum" was hardened into the most inveterate degree of crime; and seemed but to reap enjoyment by pursuing the most fiendish acts of robbery and murder. It is a most singular instance of the effects of habit.—He was a rich and affluent planter, and lived in a sumptuous & magnificent manner; kept a splendid equipage; owned over a hundred negroes, and large tracts of land—had constantly about a hundred breeding mares—made a yearly sale of fifteen hundred cattle, and had a large revenue coming in from other sources.—There is no doubt but that he was the richest man in Texas. Yet, with all his wealth, his disposition to plunder knew no bounds.

The cause of his death arose from an abortive attempt to murder Mr. Carey, of Houston county. Mr. C. is a highly respectable and wealthy citizen of the town of Houston, and was at the time staying at the residence of Yoakum.—He was suspected of having a large sum of money with him, and Yoakum determined that he should be murdered while in bed. The plan was properly matured during the day, and every thing placed in readiness for its commission — Nothing remained but the darkness of the night. Then the pulse had to beat its last throb, and the cold hand of death steal away the last expiring breath.—Fortunately, a faithful negro servant of Mr. Carey had heard of the intended murder, and communicated the design to his master in sufficient time to leave him a chance of escape. He managed to do this, and when sufficiently out of the reach of Yoakum made the facts public to the citizens. The people no sooner heard of it than they were satisfied of its truth; for the good character of Mr. C. is proverbial.

A meeting was held which resulted in the formation of an armed corps exceeding one hundred in number, who resolved to drive the whole gang out of the county. This they proceeded to do; but, in the meantime, Yoakum heard of his plot having been detected, and, fearing the indignation of the people, had left his plantation, and in company with some of his gang and negroes, started for the West. When the corps heard of this they immediately gave him pursuit. It was not long before they found out his route; and soon after, both parties met at a place called the Big Cypress, near Houston. Here a portion of his gang resided. The corps shot Yoakum and one or two of the most desperate ruffians of his gang. They then had his negroes bound to trees, and compelled them to unfold the secret acts of their late master. One of them detailed a most horrid catalogue of crime. He stated several murders known to him that his master had committed. Some of these were once citizens of the county, and their sudden disappearance had always been looked upon with a suspicion of foul play.

The corps subsequently examined his residence, when these evidences of murder were fully confirmed. At the bottom of an old well human skulls were seen, where they had no doubt been thrown as each fresh murder occurred.—Among various other things, also, there was a watch found, with a stranger's name in it. This, a negro declared, he had seen on the person of a gentleman who once stayed there all night.—The residence of Yoakum, is called the Pine Island, & is on the road leading to Houston. It is a thoroughfare necessarily frequented by travellers; at his house many have been compelled to stay by the advanced state of the day, bad weather, &c., until it almost became a usual stopping place for travellers. From these circumstances he had ample means for carrying out most extensively a bloody list of tragedies. There can be no doubt but that his fiendish temperament had its full state in flesh, and has sent to the fatal "bourn from whence no traveller returns" the last sad remains of many a valuable life. The rest of the gang have fled, and now ample security and peace exist throughout the county.

A CONVENIENT DAY.—When Charles Fax stopped payment, his creditors had a meeting, as is usual, and desired him to name a day when he would be able to settle with them. They offered him his own election, and he chose the Day of judgment.

"That," said the creditors, "will be too busy a day with us."

"Well, then," said Fox, "let us name the day after— that'll suit all parties!"

DEATH OF A HERO.—Died at his residence, in Randolph, Vt., on the 3d inst. Stephen Herrick, aged 82 years, a soldier of the Revolution, and nine months a prisoner of war on board the ever memorable Jersey ship in New York Harbor. He was a lineal descendant of Sir William Herrick, of Ball manor, England, who in early life became a successful politician, who knighted about the commencement of the seventeenth century, and became an opposition member of the Parliament that legalised the prosecution which drove our Pilgrim fathers to the consecrated rock of Plymouth.

He bore arms through the campaign of '76, was afterwards three years employed in the Quartermaster's department, and then, to complete his education in the calamities of war, made an unsuccessful attempt to enrich himself at the expense of the enemy of his country, on board a privateer. He was soon made a prisoner, as above stated, and though about closing his tuition in the school of human depravity, and made so little proficiency that he was selected from among about thirteen hundred prisoners, for the avowed reason that he was scrupulously honest to officiate as chief cook of the ship. For this service, in case of fidelity, he was promised and received his exchange at the expiration of three months, and soon after commenced farming operations in the town of Hanover, N. H.

He has left to mourn his loss, a wife, eleven children, fifty five grand children, and thirteen great grand children.

A FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

I will sell at private Sale, my farm, one mile from the Chappel and seven from Easton, adjoining the lands of Jesse Scott and Edward N. Hambleton, Esq's. This farm is beautifully situated on the county road, between Easton and Denton, rendering it convenient both for attending Easton market and hauling wood to Easton There being a great abundance on the farm to spare, independent of a sufficiency to support the farm.

This farm contains 146¼ acres more or less —more than one half of which is in fine

WOOD AND TIMBER

Land. The arable portion of this land is under tolerable good fencing and is susceptible of considerable improvement, with a great abundance of ditch bank and swamp earth, convenient to get at and more than sufficient for each field, which acts finely when spread in the summer and fall previous to cultivation, as has been amply tested by persons in the neighborhood

The Improvements consists of a large and comfortable with a dry cellar, which has been thoroughly repaired and put in first rate order, and a new well of excellent water, a very good orchard of fine fruit. There is about 20 acres of this land, which with a very trifling expense might be made a first rate meadow.

If the above farm is not disposed of before Tuesday the 28th day of the present month, it will on that day, be offered at Public Sale at the Court House door in Easton. Persons wishing to see the property will call on Mr. John B. Firbanks, who lives on the opposite side of the road, and will shew the premises. lines, &c. &c. Those wishing to purchase will find me at the store of Mr. Ennals Russell, when the terms will be made known.

DAVENPORT, PATENT HORSE POWER, THRASHING AND WINNOWING MACHINE —The subscriber would respectfully inform farmers and others interested in Agricultural pursuits, that he has purchased the sole right for the use, manufacturing, and vending the said machines for the States of Maryland and Virginia. The thrasher and cleaner are so constructed that it requires no more time or labor in preparing the Grain for market, than ordinary machines do in thrashing only, and but little if any more than it would to cart and stack the same. 250 bushels of wheat or 400 bushels of oats may be done per day, with much ease. Those machines are portable and may be easily transported by one pair of horses, and to be used in the field or barn.

They may truly be said to be LABOUR SAVING MACHINES, four horses being abundantly able to do the work by the week or month with much ease. It is confidently believed they are vastly superior in their model to any other now in use.

Certificates from hundreds of the most extensive and respectable farmers in Pennsylvania and Maryland can be obtained, testifying to their superior excellence, not only to the manner of thrashing and cleaning the Grain, but also for their adaption for service, being very simple in their construction, and not liable to break or get out of order.

It is however, quite unnecessary to say much in regard to their utility, further, than to call public attention to them, as it is presumed every farmer will want to satisfy himself by seeing them in their operations.

The subscriber intends shortly to commence the manufacturing of them and will send them to different parts of the State to be put in operation when those interested may have an opportunity of judging for themselves.

EASTON ACADEMY.

The duties of this Institution will be resumed on Monday the 11th inst., when it is confidently expected that a large increase in the number of pupils will afford unequivocal evidence that the Parents and Guardians of Easton and the surrounding country are ready, as in days past, to co-operate in sustaining an institution of such inestimable value to them all. The Trustees have secured the services of able and faithful teachers.

Of the literary attainment of Dr. Arnold ample proof has long since been exhibited; of his ability and faithfulness as an Instructor, it is only necessary to refer to the results of his services in the Academy as manifested at the late examination, where the Trustees had full demonstration of the truth and justice of the very high testimonials in his possession from some of the most distinguished gentlemen and scholars in the United States.

In anticipation of a large addition to the number of pupils an Assistant Teacher has been engaged, whose services, we cannot doubt, will prove highly creditable to the Institution and satisfactory to its Patrons.

Mr. Trask, the gentleman thus engaged, is a graduate of Amherst College, and brings satisfactory evidence of the excellence of his moral character, and of his success in the arduous but interesting duties of the profession, which he has chosen. He has letters of recommendation from the President and Professors of Amherst College, from the Presidents of Baltimore and Mount Hope Colleges and, among others, from the Hon Rufus Choate, of the United States Senate and the Hon. Henry A. Wise, in whose district he has recently resided. For the satisfaction of Patrons the Trustees subjoin the two following:

"AMHERST COLLEGE, Sept. 2d, 1840.

Mr. James D. Trask is a Graduate of this Institution, and from my knowledge of his literary attainments and general character, I can cordially recommend him as well qualified to instruct in the branches taught in our Academies. He has paid particular attention to the Studies of my Department.

EDWARD HITCHCOCK, Prof. of Chemistry and Natural History.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24th, 1841.

"I have great pleasure in certifying that Mr. James D. Trask of Beverly, in Massachusetts, is in my judgment well qualified in point of Ability, Learning and Experience for an Instructor of the first class. He is a graduate of a respectable College in Massachusetts, has a good moral character and has pursued the profession of teaching with much success

RUFUS CHOATE."

From the united efforts of the two gentlemen thus eminently qualified and devoted to the duties of their profession, we confidently believe that the highest expectations of the friends of the Institution will be fully realized and we therefore earnestly commend it to the patronage of Parents and Guardians, who desire to bestow on their sons or wards an opportunity of acquiring the inestimable advantages of a thorough and accomplished education

The Academical year as mentioned in a former advertisement will hereafter consist of two Sessions, commencing respectively on the 2d Monday in October and the first Monday in April, the former to be preceded by a vacation of six weeks, the latter by a vacation of two weeks At the conclusion of the winter session there will be a public examination of the pupils.

TERMS.

For instruction in Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and History, &c.

For the winter session	$9 50
For the summer session	7 50

For additional instruction in the various branches of Mathematics, as Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Surveying, Natural and Moral Philosophy, &c with Latin, Greek and French.

For the winter session	$14 00
" summer "	12.00

A course of lectures upon the various branches of natural science will be given by the Teachers, and every effort made to make the institution equal to any in the State. The institution, under the provisions of the act of 1833, is open to eight boys.

DRS. DRESBACH, KUHN & PRYOR'S DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM, &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all. It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy.

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chronic dysentary, diarrhœa or purging, sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints, Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals. I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14, 1840:

Mr C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease
JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev T. H. W. Monroe.

Libertytown, Frederick Co Md, May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its last ient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies is vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully
THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dgesbach, Kuhn & Pryors Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md Sept 1840

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic. She thought she would have died—I was alarmed, In the description given of your medicine, named Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

Mr. C Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryors Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, And, believing it ought to be publicly known, a give this voucher of its merits.

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley.

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor. It has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
