Poetry.

THE CHURCHES OF OUR LAND.

BY MISS MARY ANNE BROWNE.

[The following beautiful verses, were written for a Ladies Fair, in Liverpool.]

They lie in vallies buried deep,
They stud the barren hills,
They're mirror'd where proud rivers sweep,
And by the humbler rills;
A blessing on each holy fane,
Wherever they may stand,
With open door, for rich and poor,
The Churches of our Land!

Ye boast of England's palaces,
Her cities and her towers:
Of mansions where her sons at ease
Dwell midst her greenwood bowers;
But a deeper sense of reverence
God's temples should command,
While knee shall bend, and prayer ascend,
In the Churches of our Land.

Oh! pleasant are the pealing bells,
Heard at the Sabbath time,
Calling to prayer from hills and dells,
With their melodious chime;
And glorious is the sacred song,
Swell'd by a fervent band,
When the organ's note doth proudly float
Through the Churches of our Land.

Talk not of England's "wooden walls,"
Her better strength is here;
Here trust around the spirit falls,
Subduing doubt and fear;
Here her brave sons have gather'd power,
Nerving each heart and hand—
Most fearless prove those who best love
The Churches of our Land.

They stand, the guardians of the faith
For which our fathers died;
God keep those temples still from scathe,
Our blessing and our pride!
Our energies, our deeds, our prayers,
All these should they command,
That never foe may lay them low,
The Churches of our Land.

The Vestry of St. Peter's Parish, being now about to recommence the new Church, takes this method of informing delinquent subscribers, of the necessity of paying up immediately their respective subscriptions. The time according to the terms of the subscription list is long since expired. The Vestry have incurred responsibilities which they are bound to meet, and new ones are about to commence. It is therefore hoped, that further solicitation will be unnecessary, as the subscribers must see the absolute necessity, on their part of payment being made, and on the part of the Vestry of its being decisively required.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EASTON GAZETTE.

A. GRAHAM, Editor and Proprietor.
E. R. HOOPER, Assistant Editor.

The Proprietor of the Gazette having engaged the assistance of E. Richardson Hooper, Esq., of Cambridge, Md., and recently Editor of the 'Chronicle' of that place, in the management of the editorial department of the paper, proposes to increase the circulation of the Gazette in the Counties of Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester, with the view of promoting the interest of the Whig party in the approaching Gubernatorial canvass. That canvass will doubtless be warmly contested, and the advantages to be gained from having a paper reflecting the sentiments of the Whigs freely circulated among the people, are too obvious to need enforcement from me. The opposition party will undoubtedly make every exertion to increase the circulation of papers friendly to their cause, and should be met by a corresponding effort on the part of the Whigs.

The Gazette is printed every Saturday Morning, on fine imperial paper, with plain type, and, in addition to politics, is devoted to agriculture, literature, and general news. The facilities for obtaining the latest and most interesting items of information are unequalled by any Journal on the Shore.

The papers will be sent to Mr. Hooper's office, in Cambridge, every Saturday morning for distribution.

THOMAS D. BELL.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr. Thomas D. Bell for a number of years affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa. has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del., an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

JAMES M. INTIRE, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Elkton, Md.

July 22d, 1841.

The following is an extract from a letter from the Rev. Thomas Love, dated

LOVEVILLE, Del., June 18th, 1841.

"With the system you have adopted, your mode of communicating instruction, the government of your school, and the management of the boarding department—I am highly gratified. With the examination I was so much delighted that I really wished that all parents who have daughters to educate could have been present. The improvement which our daughter made while with you exceeded far my expectations, and I greatly regret that she is not enjoying the privilege of being with you this summer."

EASTON ACADEMY.

The duties of this Institution will be resumed on Monday the 11th inst., when it is confidently expected that a large increase in the number of pupils will afford unequivocal evidence that the Parents and Guardians of Easton and the surrounding country are ready, as in days past, to co-operate in sustaining an institution of such inestimable value to them all. The Trustees have secured the services of able and faithful teachers.

Of the literary attainment of Dr Arnold ample proof has long since been exhibited; of his ability and faithfulness as an Instructor, it is only necessary to refer to the results of his services in the Academy as manifested at the late examination, where the Trustees had full demonstration of the truth and justice of the very high testimonials in his possession from some of the most distinguished gentlemen and scholars in the United States.

In anticipation of a large addition to the number of pupils an Assistant Teacher has been engaged, whose services, we cannot doubt, will prove highly creditable to the Institution and satisfactory to its Patrons.

Mr. Trask, the gentleman thus engaged, is a graduate of Amherst College, and brings satisfactory evidence of the excellence of his moral character, and of his success in the arduous but interesting duties of the profession, which he has chosen. He has letters of recommendation from the President and Professors of Amherst College, from the Presidents of Baltimore and Mount Hope Colleges and, among others, from the Hon Rufus Choate, of the United States Senate and the Hon. Henry A. Wise, in whose district he has recently resided. For the satisfaction of Patrons the Trustees subjoin the two following:

"AMHERST COLLEGE, Sept. 2d, 1840.

Mr. James D. Trask is a Graduate of this Institution, and from my knowledge of his literary attainments and general character, I can cordially recommend him as well qualified to instrion in the branches taught in our Academies. He has paid particular attention to the Studies of my Department.

EDWARD HITCHCOCK, Prof. of Chemistry and Natural History.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24th, 1841.

"I have great pleasure in certifying that Mr. James D. Trask of Beverly, in Massachusetts, is in my judgment well qualified in point of Ability, Learning and Experience for an Instructor of the first class. He is a graduate of a respectable College in Massachusetts, has a good moral character and has pursued the profession of teaching with much success

RUFUS CHOATE."

From the united efforts of the two gentlemen thus eminently qualified and devoted to the duties of their profession, we confidently believe that the highest expectations of the friends of the Institution will be fully realized and we therefore earnestly commend it to the patronage of Parents and Guardians, who desire to bestow on their sons or wards an opportunity of acquiring the inestimable advantages of a thorough and accomplished education.

The Academical year as mentioned in a former advertisement will hereafter consist of two Sessions, commencing respectively on the 2d Monday in October and the first Monday in April, the former to be preceded by a vacation of six weeks, the latter by a vacation of two weeks. At the conclusion of the winter session there will be a public examination of the pupils.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

I will sell at private Sale, my farm, one mile from the Chappel and seven from Easton, adjoining the lands of Jesse Scott and Edward N. Hambleton, Esq's. This farm is beautifully situated on the county road, between Easton and Denton, rendering it convenient both for attending Easton market and hauling wood to Easton There being a great abundance on the farm to spare, independent of a sufficiency to support the farm.

This farm contains 146¾ acres more or less—more than one half of which is in fine

WOOD AND TIMBER

Land. The arable portion of this land is under tolerable good fencing and is susceptible of considerable improvement, with a great abundance of ditch bank and swamp earth, convenient to get at and more than sufficient for each field, which acts finely when spread in the summer and fall previous to cultivation, as has been amply tested by persons in the neighborhood.
