EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 25.

The proposed meeting to be held in this Town, by those interested in slavery, on Tuesday last, was inadvertently passed over. It is now suggested to all concerned to meet at the Court House on Tuesday next, 28th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend at Annapolis to represent their interests in the Convention.

REPORT OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.—We present to our readers this morning the annual Report of the Postmaster General. It is comparatively brief, yet long enough to contain some very useful and important suggestions.

The gross revenue of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1841, was $4,379, 217 78; the gross expenditures were $4,567,238 39—showing a deficiency of $187 920 61. For the current year a deficit of about one hundred and ten thousand dollars is anticipated.

The Correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot, under date of the 22d says:—"Mr. Clay, I regret to inform you, has been ill for some days—he is much better to-day."

The Postmaster General, who by the way, is one of the most efficient men who ever served the Government, has prepared for the old system of book keeping and intends giving up the plan introduced by Amos Kendall, of "blotters," &c., which are like dust in the eyes, blinding the sharpest sighted from anything like a true record of, or understanding of, the books and accounts of the Department.—Alexandria Gaz.

ARRIVAL OF THE COLUMBIA.

FIFTEEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The British steam packet Columbia arrived in Boston at 12 o'clock Tuesday, bringing Liverpool papers to the 4th and London papers to the 3d instant. The news is not important.

EASTON, Dec. 21st, 1841.

Pursuant to notice, an adjourned meeting of the taxable inhabitants of this District was held at the Court House, on Saturday the 18th inst, at 3 o'clock, P. M. The Chairman of the former meeting being absent, Thomas C. Nicols was, on motion, appointed to take the Chair

After the report of the Committee instructed to inquire into the probable cost of building School Houses, of renting, of purchasing &c., had been read and concurred in, the following resolutions were moved and adopted.

Resolved, That this meeting deem it more expedient to build or purchase Primary School Houses, than to continue to rent as at present.

Resolved, That the Male and Female Primary School Houses, should be located on different lots at a reasonable distance apart from each other.

Resolved, That the House now occupied as the Female Primary School be purchased at the price, mentioned in the report of the Committee.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting a Lot should be bought and a Male Primary School House erected thereon, or a House and Lot purchased, if the same can be obtained on more accommodating terms.

Resolved, That a Levy be made to pay the rents now due for one of the Rooms occupied for the Primary Schools of this District.

On motion the meeting then adjourned to the 15th January next.

THOS. C. NICOLS, Chairman.
HENRY H. GOLDSBOROUGH, Sec'ry.

The Locofoco members of the Senate in Tennessee now refuse to acknowledge the authority of the resolution that had been passed to go into the election of U S. Senators. They refuse to go into convention with the House of Representatives, and it is probable that the State will go unrepresented in the Senate of the United States until either the Locos or Whigs get the ascendancy in both branches.

From the Washington Correspondence of distant papers we now and then obtain information quite as much to be relied upon as any other indications of the feelings and dispositions of parties, both in and out of Congress. From the correspondent of the New York Evening Post, for example—a shrewd and sagacious man, whoever he be—we obtain the following information of the course which the Opposition proper in Congress intend to pursue in relation to the Fiscal Agency:

"Our friends intend to let them [the Majority in Congress] manage this 'fiscal agent,' 'board of control,' or whatever they may please to call it, in their own way, and only endeavor to prevent the Whigs from running riot on this measure. They have the majority, and the entire control of the House and Senate, and they alone are responsible for what is done."

Say you so, good Sir? Well: we trust the "Whigs" will take notice accordingly, and above all, that they will bear in mind this admonition from their opponents, they alone are responsible for what is done.—Nat. Int.

The Grand Jury of the Court of General Sessions in Philadelphia made a presentment a few days since which has excited quite a sensation. The substance of the presentment can be seen from the following extracts therefrom.

"The deliberate opinion of the Grand Jury is that certain officers connected with the U. S Bank have been guilty of a gross violation of the laws; colluding together to defraud those stockholders who had trusted their all to be preserved by them. And that there is good ground to warrant a prosecution of such persons for serious offences, which the Grand Jury do now present to the Court, and ask that the Attorney General be directed to send up for the action of the Grand Jury bills of indictment against—

First. Nicholas Biddle, Samuel Jaudon, John Andrews, and others, (to the Jury unkown,) for entering into a conspiracy to defraud the stockholders of the U S. Bank of the sum or sums of $400, 000, in the year 1836; and endeavoring to conceal the same by a fraudulent and illegal entry in 1840."

"Second. Nicholas, Biddle, Joseph Cowperthwaite, Thomas Dunlap, and others, (to the Jury unknown,) for entering into a conspiracy to defraud, &c. the stockholders of the Bank of the United States during the years 1836, 1838, 1839, and 1840, by which the stockholders have been defrauded out of a sum or sums of money exceeding $300,000."

"The Grand Jury, on their solemn oaths or affirmations, do further ask for a bill of indictment against Alexander Lardner, Thomas Dunlap Richard Price, Lawrence Lewis and George Handy and others, (to the Jury unknown,) for feloniously, &c. conspiring to cheat and defraud the stockholders of the United States Bank of Pennsylvania of the sum or sums of about $130,000, in the year 1840."

Letters from Philadelphia, published in the New York papers, assert that one of the former Directors of the U. S. Bank had committed forgeries to the amount of sixty thousand dollars, and that the fact was known to the officers of the Bank, who permitted over drafts to be made to that amount in order to secure the Director from exposure. This is one of the discoveries alleged to have been made by the Grand Jury, but whether true or not remains to be seen.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham:—Notwithstanding the extreme inclemency of the weather on Tuesday evening last—a fair proportion of our good citizens attended the Introductory Lecture of Dr. Arnold, (Principal of the Academy,) to a course proposed to be continued through the winter.—I did not see you there sir, although I believe you should be excused, as you evinced some inkling towards the experiment by sending the better portion of your household—the ladies. By the way, sir, these kind inducements and powerful stimulates to manly exertion deserve the thanks of the Lecturer and his friends, (and they have them) for the unexpected turn-out among them—for a brighter, better or more intelligent display of the softer sex is seldom witnessed than this interesting occasion in our Town's annals presented. As a lover of all that's fair, noble and elevating, I thank them right heartily,—and in the name of science, would entreat a continuance of their desirable presence.

But in speaking of the Ladies? I had well nigh forgot all else—not excepting even the learned Lecturer who at least deserves the next consideration to them. I think little would be ventured in saying that no one present on Tuesday evening last, regretted the time thus passed—in fact, sir, several gentlemen expressed the opinion that this single introductory would fully compensate for the trifling charge demanded for the course—an introductory to a series must almost necessarily be discussive in its character; and in this case, the topics selected bid defiance to points of time. The Dr. with the confidence of a scholar, told us in a rich and masterly style, of the rise, progress, present condition and advantages of legitimate science—he unfolded the inconveniences attached to ignorance and the elevating, chastening influences of knowledge—he exposed some of the evils resulting from deficiencies in education and dwelt with true eloquence, upon the mighty and glorious developments attending an enlargement of the mind.—Throughout the whole discourse, he evinced a clear acquaintance with History—and his deductions were sound and orthodox—I refrain from enlarging—least I excite you to over-regret for your absence.

On next Tuesday evening—the Lecturer informed his auditory, that the Rev. James Nicols would occupy the same stand. This gentleman is too well known to all around for his talents and eloquence to require any commendation—his name is sufficient to awaken curiosity and excite high expectations. 'Tis hoped the attendance on that evening will prove a high eulogium upon the literary taste of our community, and a just compliment to the distinguished gentleman whose services are engaged for the occasion. In conclusion, sir, for one, (a more looker on in Venice)—I was greatly pleased with the exercises—the enlightened character of the adult portion of the audience—and with the breathless attention with which the pupils of the Seminary listened to the judicious and learned discourse of their Preceptor—it seemed to me to augur well—and I have only to hope "the Lecture-room" may draw to it a cloud of witnesses.

A LOOKER ON AND LISTENER.

By a statement published by Mr. J. V. L. McMahon, president of the Whig Convention last year, in Baltimore it appears that $3,269 49 had been received by him for the benefit of the widow and children of Thomas H. Laughlin, who lost his life during the procession, in May of that year

On motion J. S. Skinner, Esq. Hon. D. H. Lewis, and Hon. H. L. Ellsworth, were appointed a committee to wait upon the Chairman, and solicit a copy of his address for publication

On motion of Mr. Torrey, of Mass. it was

Resolved, That the Board of Control of the Society be instructed to present a petition to the present Congress of the United States to set apart the Smithsonian bequest for the purpose of carrying out the objects of the Society.

Callan, of the District of Columbia, were appointed a Committee to select the Officers of the Society provided for in the Constitution, to serve until the regu election in May next.

MAIL ROBBERY, AND ARREST OF THE ROBBER.—The mail from Buffalo for the West was robbed on Saturday near Freedonia. The robbers were found and arrested within a few hours, and the whole contents of the mail recovered. One of the robbers is named Doty, was convicted of a similar offence last year, and sentenced to the States prison, but was subsequently pardoned by Mr. Van Buren. STEARIC CANDLES.—Under this name a new article, for this country, has lately been brought into market. The oil is expressed from the tallow, and then the substantial matter made into candles—The candles are very hard, not oily at all, and endure a much higher temperature than spermaceti. They burn as beautifully as candles of sperm or wax. They have been manufactured in France for years; but the high duty on candles has prevented them from being imported. They are now manufactured in this city. [N. Y. Jour. Com.

LECTURES
At the Easton Academy.

When the notice that Lectures on Natural Science would be delivered by the teachers, during the winter, was appended to the late advertisement of the Easton Academy, nothing more was contemplated than the delivering of a series of plain and familiar lectures for the benefit of the pupils. In accordance with the expressed wishes of several members of the community, it has since been determined to modify the original plan so as to admit to the proposed lectures such persons of the town and its vicinity as may be disposed to attend them with a view either to rational recreation or intellectual improvement, and at the same time to render them subservient to the interest and usefulness of the Academy In order to add interest and variety to the exercises and to render them at once more attractive and instructive, several gentlemen of literary & scientific attainments have been invited & have kindly consented to participate therein, among whom we have the pleasure to name the Rev. Dr. Mason, Rev. James Nicols, Dr Jenkins, and John Bozman Kerr, Esqr. The pecuniary proceeds of the lectures, after deducting what may be necessary to defray the expense of fuel, lights, &c will be deposited in the hands of the Trustees, to be appropriated to the purchase of Philosophical apparatus for the Academy The introductory lecture will be delivered by Dr. Arnold at the Academy on Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st, commencing at half past seven o'clock.

DRS. DRESBACH KUHN & PRYORS, DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM, &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all. It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy.

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chronic dysentary, diarrhœa or purging, sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints, Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails, would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS.

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals. I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14, 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co. Md., May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insipient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,
THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her.

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

THOS. BARTHOLOW,

To Mr. Hurstons.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Clarksburg, Montg. Co. Nov 30, 1840.

Mr. C Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, And, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits.

WM. WILLSON of Jno.

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor. It has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
