THE FAMILY MEETING.

BY CHARLES SPRAGUE.

We are all here,
Father, Mother,
Sister, Brother,
All who hold each other dear.
Each chair is filled—we're all at home!
To-night let no cold stranger come:
It is not often thus around
Our old familiar hearth we're found.
Bless, then, the meeting and the spot:
For once be every care forgot;
Let gentle peace assert her power,
And kind affection rule the hour.
We're all—all here.

We're not all here!
Some are away—the dead ones dear,
Who thronged with us this ancient hearth,
And gave the hour to guiltless mirth.
Fate, with a stern relentless hand,
Looked in, and thinned our little band:
Some like a night-flash passed away,
And some sank lingering day by day:
The quiet grave-yard—some lie there—
And cruel ocean has his share—
We're not all here.

We are all here,
Even they—the dead—though dead, so dear;
Fond Memory, to her duty true,
Brings back their faded forms to view.
How life-like, through the mist of years,
Each well remembered face appears!
We see them, as in times long past.
From each to each kind looks are cast;
We hear their words, their smiles behold,
They're round us as they were of old—
We are all here.

We are all here,
Father, Mother,
Sister, Brother,
You that I love, with love so dear.
This may not long of us be said;
Soon must we join the gathered dead,
And by the hearth we now sit round,
Some other circle will be found.
O! then, that wisdom may be known,
Which yields a life of peace below;
So, in the world to follow this,
May each repeat, in words of bliss.
We're all—all here.

DAVENPORT, PATENT HORSE POWER, THRASHING AND WINNOWING MACHINE.—The subscriber would respectfully inform farmers and others interested in Agricultural pursuits, that he has purchased the sole right for the use, manufacturing, and vending the said machines for the States of Maryland and Virginia. The thrasher and cleaner are so constructed that it requires no more time or labor in preparing the Grain for market, than ordinary machines do in thrashing only, and but little if any more than it would to cart and stack the same. 250 bushels of wheat or 400 bushels of oats may be done per day, with much ease. Those machines are portable and may be easily transported by one pair of horses, and to be used in the field or barn.

They may truly be said to be LABOUR SAVING MACHINES, four horses being abundantly able to do the work by the week or month with much ease. It is confidently believed they are vastly superior in their model to any other now in use.

Certificates from hundreds of the most extensive and respectable farmers in Pennsylvania and Maryland can be obtained, testifying to their superior excellence, not only to the manner of thrashing and cleaning the Grain, but also for their adaption for service, being very simple in their construction, and not liable to break or get out of order.

It is however, quite unnecessary to say much in regard to their utility, further, than to call public attention to them, as it is presumed every farmer will want to satisfy himself by seeing them in their operations.

The subscriber intends shortly to commence the manufacturing of them and will send them to different parts of the State to be put in operation when those interested may have an opportunity of judging for themselves.

THOMAS D. BELL.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr Thomas D Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa. has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removed to Newark, Del., an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination.

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

The following is an extract from a letter from the Rev. Thomas Love, dated LOVEVILLE, Del., June 18th, 1841.

"With the system you have adopted, your mode of communicating instruction, the government of your school, and the management of the boarding department—I am highly gratified. With the examination I was so much delighted that I really wished that all parents who have daughters to educate could have been present. The improvement which our daughter made while with you exceeded far my expectations, and I greatly regret that she is not enjoying the privilege of being with you this summer."

EASTON ACADEMY.

The duties of this Institution will be resumed on Monday the 11th inst., when it is confidently expected that a large increase in the number of pupils will afford unequivocal evidence that the Parents and Guardians of Easton and the surrounding country are ready as in days past, to co-operate in sustaining an institution of such inestimable value to them all. The Trustees have secured the services of able and faithful teachers.

Of the literary attainment of Dr. Arnold ample proof has long since been exhibited; of his ability and faithfulness as an Instructor, it is only necessary to refer to the results of his services in the Academy as manifested at the late examination, where the Trustees had full demonstration of the truth and justice of the very high testimonials in his possession from some of the most distinguished gentlemen and scholars in the United States.

In anticipation of a large addition to the number of pupils an Assistant Teacher has been engaged, whose services, we cannot doubt, will prove highly creditable to the Institution and satisfactory to its Patrons.

Mr. Trask, the gentleman thus engaged, is a graduate of Amherst College, and brings satisfactory evidence of the excellence of his moral character, and of his success in the arduous but interesting duties of the profession, which he has chosen. He has letters of recommendation from the President and Professors of Amherst College, from the Presidents of Baltimore and Mount Hope Colleges and, among others, from the Hon Rufus Choate, of the United States Senate and the Hon. Henry A. Wise, in whose district he has recently resided. For the satisfaction of Patrons the Trustees subjoin the two following:

"AMHERST COLLEGE, Sept. 2d, 1840.

Mr. James D. Trask is a Graduate of this Institution, and from my knowledge of his literary attainments and general character, I can cordially recommend him as well qualified to instruct in the branches taught in our Academies. He has paid particular attention to the Studies of my Department.

EDWARD HITCHCOCK, Prof. of Chemistry and Natural History.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24th, 1841.

"I have great pleasure in certifying that Mr. James D. Trask of Beverly, in Massachusetts, is in my judgment well qualified in point of Ability, Learning and Experience for an Instructor of the first class. He is a graduate of a respectable College in Massachusetts, has a good moral character and has pursued the profession of teaching with much success

RUFUS CHOATE."

From the united efforts of the two gentlemen thus eminently qualified and devoted to the duties of their profession, we confidently believe that the highest expectations of the friends of the Institution will be fully realized and we therefore earnestly commend it to the patronage of Parents and Guardians, who desire to bestow on their sons or wards an opportunity of acquiring the inestimable advantages of a thorough and accomplished education.

The Academical year as mentioned in a former advertisement will hereafter consist of two Sessions, commencing respectively on the 2d Monday in October and the first Monday in April, the former to be preceded by a vacation of six weeks, the latter by a vacation of two weeks. At the conclusion of the winter session there will be a public examination of the pupils.

For the winter session	$9.50

A FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

I will sell at private Sale, my farm, one mile from the Chappel and seven from Easton, adjoining the lands of Jesse Scott and Edward N. Hambleton, Esq's. This farm is beautifully situated on the county road, between Easton and Denton, rendering it convenient both for attending Easton market and hauling wood to Easton There being a great abundance on the farm to spare, independent of a sufficiency to support the farm.

This farm contains 146¼ acres more or less—more than one half of which is in fine

WOOD AND TIMBER

Land. The arable portion of this land is under tolerable good fencing and is susceptible of considerable improvement, with a great abundance of ditch bank and swamp earth, convenient to get at and more than sufficient for each field, which acts finely when spread in the summer and fall previous to cultivation, as has been amply tested by persons in the neighborhood.

The Improvements consists of a large and comfortable with a dry cellar, which has been thoroughly repaired and put in first rate order, and a new well of excellent water, a very good orchard of fine fruit. There is about 20 acres of this land, which with a very trifling expense might be made a first rate meadow.

If the above farm is not disposed of before Tuesday the 28th day of the present month, it will on that day, be offered at Public Sale at the Court House door in Easton. Persons wishing to see the property will call on Mr. John B. Firbanks, who lives on the opposite side of the road, and will shew the premises lines, &c. &c. Of every description for sale at this office.

DRS DRESBACH KUHN & PRYORS, DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM, &c. &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all. It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy.

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chronic dysentary, diarrhœa or purging, sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints, Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS.

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14, 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co. Md, May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insipient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,
THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptons were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her.

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

THOS. BARTHOLOW.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840.

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Clarksburg, Mont'y. Co. Nov 30, 1840.

Mr. C Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, And, believing it ought to be publicly known, a give this voucher of its merits.

WM. WILLSON of Jno.

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor It has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
