unto him the full and just sum of three thousand four hundred and sixty three dollars and eighty eight Cents Current money which unto him he owes and from him he unjustly detains and so forth. And whereupon
2 the said William by Henry Page his attorney says that whereas the said Devereux on the twenty ninth day of July in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty one, at the County aforesaid by his Certain writing obligatory with his seal sealed and to the Court here shown, the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid acknowledged to be held & firmly bound unto the said William in the said sum of thirty four hundred and sixty three dollars and eighty eight Cents Current money to be paid to the said William when required, Nevertheless the said Devereux although often thereto required the said sum of money to the said William has not rendered or paid, but the same to the said William to render or pay hitherto has refused and still does refuse to the damage of the said William in the sum of Ten thousand dollars Current money, and therefore this suit is brought &c.

The Bill obligatory whereof mention is made in the foregoing declaration answer in the following words and figures to wit.

$3463-88 For value received I promise and oblige myself, my heirs &c to pay or cause to be paid unto William McKenn the full and just sum of three thousand four hundred and sixty three dollars and eighty eight Cents Current money with legal interest thereon till paid, as witness my hand and seal this 29th day of July 1841

And the said Devereux Travers by his attorney aforesaid defends the wrong and injury when and so forth, and says that he cannot 3 answer the action aforesaid of the said William McKenn, nor can he deny but that the Bill obligatory aforesaid is the deed of him the said Devereux Travers, nor but that he owes unto the said William McKenn the aforesaid sum of three thousand four hundred and sixty three dollars and eighty eight Cents Current money in such manner and form as the said William against him hath complained. Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said William McKenn recover against the said Devereux Travers his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid acknowledged, as also the sum of six dollars, sixty eight Cents and two thirds of a Cent Current money as well for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt as for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, and the said Devereux Travers in mercy &c.

3 Judgment was confirmed in this action on the ninth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and forty one, for debt and Costs, Par ment payments if any to be allowed with a stay of execution for eighteen months.

On the nineteenth day of February in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and forty four, the said Devereux Travers prayed that he might appeal from the judgment aforesaid of the Court to the Judges of the Court of Appeals to be held for the Eastern Shore of this State and to him the same was granted on his Complying with the act of assembly in such Case made and provided, and on the fourth day of March following the said Devereux Travers exhibited an appeal bond entered into by himself and two sureties, which bond was approved of and which 4 covers in the following words and figures to wit. Know all men by these presents Devereux Travers, John D. Stevens and John H. Hodson are held and firmly bound unto William McKenn in the full and just sum of six thousand nine hundred and twenty seven dollars and sixty six Cents Current money of Maryland to be paid to the said William McKenn, his certain attorney, his executors, administrators or assigns to the payment whereof well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this fourth day of March in the year of our Lord Eighteen Hundred and forty four. Whereas at a County Court of the State of Maryland, holden for Dorchester County Court, at Cambridge in the said County, before the Judge thereof at the October Term of the said Court in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and forty one, the said William McKenn obtained a Judgment against the said Devereux Travers as well for the sum of three thousand four hundred and sixty three dollars and eighty eight Cents Current money a certain debt as for the sum of six dollars sixty eight and one third Cents Costs of suit, by which said Judgment the said Devereux Travers deems himself aggrieved and therefore hath appealed to the Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland to be holden for the Eastern Shore of the said State the Condition therefore of the foregoing Bond and obligation is such that if the said Devereux Travers the appellant shall not cause a transcript of the record and proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid to be transmitted to the Court of Appeals to be 4 holden for the Eastern Shore of the said State within the time required by law and prosecute the said appeal with effect, and also satisfy and pay to the said William McKenn in whose favour the said Judgment was rendered his executors administrators or assigns, in case the said Judgment shall be affirmed, as well the debt damages, Costs and charges adjudged and recovered in the County Court aforesaid as also all damages and Costs that may be awarded by the Court of Appeals aforesaid then the said Bond obligation to be void and remain in full force and virtue, otherwise of no effect.
