EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Jan. 29.

FROM ANNAPOLIS.—The bill reported by Mr. Prestman, requiring the Banks of this State to resume specie payments forthwith passed the House of Delegates on Tuesday the 26th inst, by a vote of 55 to 15 The fifth section, which was stricken out before the Bill passed, is that, we believe which proposed to give debtors of broken Banks the privilege of paying their debts in four years. The Bill has yet to undergo the ordeal of the Senate.

GIRARD BANK.—The rumors from Philadelphia in regard to this institution are very unfavorable, and it is feared by many that it is about to "follow in the footsteps of its illustrious predecessor," the U. S. Bank. Look out.—Del. Gaz.

NOMINATION.—The Democratic members of the Kentucky Legislature have nominated Col. Richard M. Johnson as a candidate for the Presidency, and an address is to be presented to the people of the United States, setting forth some of his claims.

SUCCESSOR OF JUDGE HOPKINSON. A letter from Washington informs us, that Horace Binney, Esq. has been nominated to the Senate to supply the vacancy on the Bench, created by the death of Judge Hopkinson.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

DISCHARGED.—The Annapolis correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:—Charles T. Torrey was discharged this afternoon on his own recognizance for $500—and those of S. S. Alexander and Joseph M. Palmer for $250, for his appearance at the next April term of Anne Arundel county court, and for his good behaviour during the same period.

A letter from New York says:—Rhode Island, by a decided majority of the voices of her people, has resolved that she will cast aside the old Charter of Charles the Second, and adopt a Constitution. A majority of all the people there has thus decided; and, what is more, a majority of all the freeholders have come to the same conclusion.

U. S. SHIP PEACOCK.—We have no further particulars of the loss of this vessel. The N. Y. Journal of Commerce thus announces it:

"It becomes our duty to announce the loss of the United States ship Peacock, in Columbia River, (Oregon Territory) We have however the satisfaction to state, that the disaster was not attended with the loss of any lives. Nothing else was saved except the instruments. This intelligence is contained in a letter from the North West Coast, dated in November last, and received by a mercantile house in this city. We have no other particulars"

THE LECTURE OF TUESDAY EVENING.

I listened with great delight, to the Lecture of Dr. Arnold on Tuesday evening last:—subject, the atmosphere It was the first time I had an opportunity of hearing this learned gentleman, since he became one of our Eastern Shore community. It was no less gratifying to behold the unfaltering attention of his distinguished audience. Matrons, and Belles, men old and young, and middle aged—as also the boys of his tuition—hung with anxious delight upon the singular eloquence of the speaker. May our community be long blessed with the literary and scientific labors of this talented gentleman.

THE DEATH OF JUDGE HOPKINSON.

The Hon. JOSEPH HOPKINSON, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, departed this life on Saturday morning, at an early hour. He was the son of the Hon. Francis Hopkinson, a distinguished patriot during the revolutionary struggle—and inherited from his sire, his virtues, genius and patriotism. Judge H. succeeded the Hon. Richard Peters on the bench, and for several years represented the city of Philadelphia in the Congress of the United States. He was not only distinguished for his wit and eloquence, but for his ability as a writer and his efficiency as a Judge.

He was courteous and gentlemanly in an eminent degree. His well known production of 'HAIL COLUMBIA,' is fraught with the true fire of patriotism, and had he never written another line, would have borne his name with honor to posterity He was a member of a number of the learned societies, and only a short time before his death he visited several of our neighboring towns, and lectured to large and delighted audiences. He was one of the pall bearers at the funeral of the late lamented philanthropist, John Vaughan, which took place yesterday fortnight The decease of this eminent citizen, will be deeply lamented by a large circle of friends and relatives.

VERY LATE FROM EUROPE.

New York, January 23.

The steamship Britannia arrived at Boston yesterday, from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 4th inst. Her passage has been impeded by adverse winds and strong currents, and yet she has done pretty well, considering the season of the year and its concomitant impediments to navigation. I have only time to give you an outline of the news.

Lord Ashburton has been appointed on a special mission to the United States with a view to the settlement of the Boundary Question, and also to arrange the important question of the right of search. This distinguished statesman who was formerly Alexander Baring, of the great house of Baring and Co. has a vital interest it is said, in preserving the peaceable relations of Great Britain and the United States, and in the preservation of the credit of the States

The news to cotton dealers and flour merchants is quite favorable. There was some improvement in the general state of the money market, although great excitement existed in relation to the state of affairs on this side of the water The house of NICHOLSON & Co. had failed; the leading houses, however, still stood firm. The election in Mississippi, on the repudiation principle, had made a great sensation in England. The cotton market was more steady than at previous dates; buyers came forward freely. The demand was promptly met by the holders but prices remained very firm. The prices of grain had improved in some degree, and an advance on flour had taken place.

Mr. DICKENS, the author of Nicholas Nickleby is on board of the Britannia, and the good people of the literary circles of Boston are ready to give him a most enthusiastic reception. He merits all the hospitality and kindness they can bestow. Lord MULGRAVE, a distinguished literary man, the author of many works of merit, is also a passenger He intends to make a tour of the United States It is said that many other distinguished noblemen and gentlemen of England are preparing to visit this country Mr. MOTLEY, Jr. is the bearer of despatches to our Government from Mr. EVERETT, American Minister at London.

TO THE PUBLIC.

It will be seen by the above advertisement of Mr. George W. Scott, that he has prematurely assigned the collection of Town Taxes in arrears and due to me as Collector for the year 1840, without my approbation or consent. It is true Messrs. George W. Noble and Scott are securities to my Collectors bond for that year. It is also true that there was a suit instituted by the board of Town Commissioners against my bond to the last term of Talbot County Court.—but it is not true that they or either of them ever paid one stiver in money or any other commodity for me, or on my account, nor do I intend they shall.

As well might "the man in the moon," assume such authority without my agency or consent as Mr. Scott, or Mr. any person else From whom then did he obtain his authority? I answer from no one. He assumed it presumptuously and I hereby forwarn all persons indebted to me as above at their peril, from paying to him or any other person without my sanction or authority, as I shall proceed to close the business myself without the aid of an agent believing that I do not need one at this time and have been compelled to take this course for my own justification and remain the public's obedient servant

LECTURES
At the Easton Academy

Whilst the notice that Lectures on Natural Science would be delivered by the trustees during the winter, was appended to the late advertisement of the Easton Academy, nothing more was contemplated than the delivering of a series of plain and familiar lectures for the benefit of the pupils. In accordance with the expressed wishes of several members of the community, it has since been determined to modify the original plan so as to admit to the proposed lectures such persons of the town and its vicinity as may be disposed to attend them with a view either to rational recreation or intellectual improvement, and at the same time to render them subservient to the interest and usefulness of the Academy. In order to add interest and variety to the exercises and to render them at once more attractive and instructive, several gentlemen of literary & scientific attainments have been invited & have kindly consented to participate therein, among whom we have the pleasure to name the Rev. Dr. Mason, Rev. James Nicols, Dr Jenkins, and John Bozman Kerr, Esqr. The pecuniary proceeds of the lectures, after deducting what may be necessary to defray the expense of fuel, lights, &c will be deposited in the hands of the Trustees, to be appropriated to the purchase of Philosophical apparatus for the Academy The introductory lecture will be delivered by Dr. Arnold at the Academy on Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st, commencing at half past seven o'clock.
