EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Feb. 26.

RAIL ROAD ORDERS.—A large and respectable meeting of the Merchants and Traders and other Citizens of this Town was held at the Union Hotel, on Thursday last and entered into an agreement to receive Rail Road Orders at their current market value only.—A committee has been appointed to ascertain and publish twice a week the correct rate of discount for the government of both buyers and sellers. The arrangement went into operation yesterday—see official account of the proceedings in another part of our paper.

MR. CLAY.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. American writes, under date of 17th inst.

Mr. Clay has written to the Governor of Kentucky, resigning his seat in the Senate—the resignation to take effect at the end of the month of March. A strong effort is making at this moment to induce him to detain the letter a day longer and to take time for reconsideration.

A Postscript to the same letter says—

Mr. Clay's letter of resignation has gone. Mr. Crittenden will be his successor.

INDIANA.—The Cincinnati Gazette says—"The resumption in Indiana as the report now runs, amounts really to nothing. The Banks are permitted not to pay specie to brokers, to or any persons out of the State, and may examine any one demanding specie, on oath!"

LOUISIANA.—The law which has been passed by the Legislature of the State, requires the Banks to resume specie payments on the 30th of September next.

TENNESSEE.—The Banks in this State in conformity with a resolution passed by the Legislature, are to resume specie payments on the 1st January next.

OHIO.—The bill compelling the banks of Ohio to resume specie payments on the 4th of March next, has finally passed the Legislature of that State.

The Legislature of Virginia, on motion of Mr. Keen, has passed a bill reducing the pay of the members to two dollars per day if the session extends beyond ninety days. It is called "Keen's starvation bill."

The Legislature of Tennessee has adjourned sine die, without electing U. S. Senators.

JUDGE UPSHUR.

☞The Secretary of the Treasury has replied, in detail, to the Hon. J. M. Botts

SPECIE.

The barque Ann Louisa, arrived at N. York on Friday from Vera Cruz, has brought $110.454 in specie for N. York, and $5800 for Philadelphia, making in all $117.250.

The nomination of Thomas Bradford, Esq. of Philadelphia, as Judge of the U. S. District of Pennsylvania, has been rejected by the U. S. Senate.

Mr. JAUDON.—We learn from the Philadelphia papers that Judge Randall has discharged Mr. S. Jaudon, who was brought before him on a writ of habeas corpus, touching the affairs of the United States Bank. The Judge declared that there appeared no cause for sending the case to the Grand Jury.

ANOTHER NEW YORK BANK FAILURE. The New York American of Saturday says, in a postcript—

"THE LAFAYETTE BANK CLOSED BY AN INJUNCTION.—We learn that Mr. Starr, the Bank Commissioner, has this morning served an injunction upon the Lafayette Bank of this city. Its notes were refused this morning by the other Banks."

A CASE OF JEALOUSY.

The N. Y. Tribune says:—"Mrs. Frances Thomas, the separated wife of Gov. Thomas of Maryland, is the daughter of Hon James McDowell, of Rockbridge Co. one of the most eminent men in Virginia, who has repeatedly been the locofoco candidate for Governor and U. S. Senator. She is of course the niece of Mrs. Thomas H. Benton. She is young beautiful and accomplished, while the profoundest adore her. They had been married but seven months, when Mrs. T. was compelled to separate from him on account of his jealousy—groundless and ridiculous, we understand

THE NEW APPORTIONMENT.

Mr. J. A. Pearce, of Maryland, has offered an amendment to the Apportionment Bill in the House of Representatives, fixing the ratio of representation at fifty three thousand nine hundred and ninety nine. This would not be much above the present ratio. Maryland would retain her eight delegates, and the entire House would consist of two hundred and eighty two members—an increase of thirty above the present number.

WHITES AND BLACKS.

The Boston Atlas says—"The law prohibiting the intermarriage between whites and blacks, as most of our readers must be aware, has for some days past been under the consideration of our State Legislature. In the Senate it has already been passed by a large vote, while the refusal of the House of Representatives to postpone the subject indefinitely, would seem to promise the passage of the measure in that branch also."

EASTON, Feb. 24th 1842.

A meeting of the Traders and other citizens was held this evening at Rozell's Hotel, The meeting was organized by calling W. H. Groome, Esq. to the chair and appointing N G. Singleton, Sec'ry.

The object of the meeting was stated to be, to take some measure relative to the present depreciated value of the Rail Road Orders as Currency. The proceedings of a meeting held recently in the City of Baltimore on the same subject were read; after which a committee of five was appointed to report resolutions for the action of this meeting. The Committee so appointed reported and after some alterations and amendments the resolutions were adopted as follows.

Whereas it has become necessary for the Merchants and Traders of Easton, from the heavy losses sustained on the depreciated value of the Rail Road Orders, to pass some resolutions for the better regulation of these matters and to secure themselves from future loss; they having already submitted to heavy discounts in passing said orders in the City of Baltimore, they now in meeting assembled

Resolved, That they will not after this day receive Rail Road Orders in payment for goods or debts at a less discount than the current rate of discount thereon in the City of Baltimore, as reported by the committee there appointed for that purpose and that in all payments by themselves or in the way of change for other money the same rate of discount shall be allowed and observed

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed whose duty it shall be to ascertain the current rate of discount on the above said Orders in the City of Baltimore and cause the same to be reported once a week in each of the papers of this Town.

Resolved, That we individually pledge ourselves to adhere strictly and undeviatingly to the above resolutions and if any one shall violate the pledge of honor here given, his or their names shall be published in both the papers in this town for two successive weeks thereafter.

Rate of Rail Road Orders, on and after this date to be received or paid out at a discount of 20 per cent, until further notice given by the above mentioned committee.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to act under the foregoing resolutions, viz.—Messrs. G Turbutt, Wm. C. Muckey and P. Groome.

It was further Resolved, That the Merchants and Traders, sign these proceedings, and the same be published.

W. H. & P. Groome, Singleton and Gore, S. Mackey & Son, Thos. S. & E. M. Dawson, Charles Robinson, James S. Shanahan, W. H. Shepard, Wm. N. Mullikin, Thos. Beaston, Rathell & Willis, G. Turbutt, Cheezum & Emory, John B. Ray, R. M. Willson, James Warner, John H. K. Shanahan & Co., A. H. & H. Mackey, Stephen C. Harrington, Jonathan Ozment.

W. H. GROOME, Ch'n.

Attest N. G. Singleton, Sec'ry.

The Boston Times states that the United States frigate COLUMBIA, (lying in the stream of Boston harbor,) which has been ready for sea some weeks and which was to have formed part of the home squadron has now been ordered to carry out to Europe Washington Irving, the Minister to Spain.

The frigate above referred to (says the Times) is probably one of the finest ever built. She is of the largest class, being 1,750 tons, and carrying 28 long thirty-two pounders on her gun-deck, and two Paixhan guns (forty-two pounders rimmed out,) and 22 twenty-four pound carronades on her spar deck and two Paixhan guns, making 54 guns in all. She is commanded by Capt. F. A. Parker.

ANOTHER ELOPEMENT.—The New York Herald says—

"Miss Cornelia Malvina Carter, niece of John F. Delaplaine, eloped from the house of her brother Wellington H. Carter, in Canal street, about two o'clock on Sunday morning. She went to the City Hotel, where her intended, Joseph Cæsar da Camara Lomsline, resided—had him aroused. They went over in the morning to Brooklyn, and were married by a Protestant, and returned to the City Hotel as man and wife. On their friends finding the pair they caused them to be married by the Rev. Doctor Powers yesterday morning—the second day. She is very beautiful, and heiress to much property. He is the son of the proprietor of the famous Lome line wines, and is a Portuguese."

Is a national debt a benefit to the "laboring classes" who pay the taxes by the sweat of their brows? Yet an enormous debt has been created by the Whig party in the first year of its reign.—Nashville Union.

On the presumption of this being an innocent mistake, and not an intentional misstatement of fact, we take leave to apprize the writer of the above query that its answer, that the "enormous debt" to which he refers was contracted under the last administration, being an expenditure to that amount beyond the revenue of the Government; to which excess of expenditure may be added also the seventeen millions of surplus revenue which that Administration found in the Treasury when it came into power, and spent before it began to contract the debt.

[Nat. Intel.

Boston paper announces an extraordinary case that occurred lately at Portsmouth, N. H.—though to be more accurate, it has been occurring for twenty odd years. Daniel Hodgdon died in the jail of that place on Saturday last, after an imprisonment of nearly 21 years, having been committed for murder in April, 1821.—In consequence of insanity he had never had a trial.

that in consequence of Railroad notes not being recognized by the laws of the State as the subject of felony the prosecution of the case would therefore make seeming expositions of vice on the part of the accused, of which she could not be legally looked upon as guilty. There can be no doubt the intention of the accused in abstracting feloniously railroad orders, was as adverse to the dictates of justice as if she had taken the same amount in gold or silver, but in the eye of law else is to be considered innocent. Since then it is so, that taking railroad orders with felonious motives is no crime in a legal point of view, and as the knowledge of this fact may encourage burglars to increased depredations, being conscious of their security, would it no be right and proper for our Legislature (as rail road orders are, and will likely continue to be, no small item in our currency) to enact a law that will make the offence punishable?—Balt. LAND FOR SALE.

I would sell a farm in Miles River Neck, beautifully situated on the water, containing 200 acres—The improvements are a one story framed house and kitchen, &c.

If a smaller farm should be preferred, I would sell one situated in the Bayside, about two miles below St. Michaels, immediately on the waters of Miles River, containing 100 acres—the improvements, are a one story framed dwelling and kitchen.

Either of these farms would be sold on fair terms. It is deemed unnecessary for me to mention particularly the susceptibility of these lands for improvement, as I presume no person would purchase, without examining for themselves, which they can do by applying to Mr. Dean, the tenant on the one in Miles River Neck and to Mr. James Benny, living on the one in the Bayside—for particulars as the terms, apply to
