Poetry.

From the Boston Evening Journal.

The dinner given to Dickens at Faneuil's Hall, on Tuesday evening, appears to have been a capital affair, according to the elaborate and very interesting account given of it in the Boston Advertiser, which account occupies nine and a half columns of that paper. Good Humor, Wit and Eloquence were there. Josiah Quincy, Jr., presided on the occasion J M. Field, being called on for a song, gave the following original and characteristic production to a popular air, with symphonies and accompaniments by J. G. Maeder.

THE VERY LAST OBSERVATIONS OF WELLER, SENIOR.

Remember me! I says, Boz,
You're goin' to cross the sea,
A blessed way away, Boz,
To wild Amerikey;
As blessed set of savages,
As books of travels tells:
No Gin'ral's eye to watch you, Boz,
Nor even Samivel's.

They've 'stablish'd a steam line Boz,
A wi'lent innowation,
It's nothin' but a trap to 'tice
Our floatin' population;
A set of blessed cannibals—
My warnin' I repeats—
For ev'ry run they catches, Boz,
Without ado they eats!

They'll eat you, Boz, in Boston! and
They'll eat you in New York!
Wherever caught, they'll play a bee-
Sed game of knife and fork!
There's prayers in Boston now that
Cunard's liler may not burst;
Because their savage hope it is,
Dear Boz to eat you first!

They lately caught a PRINCE, Boz,
A livin' run, from France;
And all the blessed nation, Boz,
Assembles for a dance!
They spares him thro' the ev'nin,' Boz,
But with a hungry stare;
Contrives a early supper tho',
And then they eats him there!

Just think of all of yours, Boz,
Devoured by them already;
Avoid their greedy lures, Boz,
Their appetites is steady;
For years they've been a feastin,' Boz,
Nor paid for their repast;
And vont they make a blessed feast
When they catches you at last!

Lord! how they gobbled "Pickwick" fate
Which "Oliver" betel;
And watering mouths met "Nic" and "Smike,"
And watering eyes as well!
Poor "Nell" was not too tender, Boz;
Nor ugly "Quilp" too tought;
And "Barnaby"—and blast it! ere
I thinks they'll have enough!

I'll tell you vot you does, Boz,
Since go it seems you will;
If you would not expose, Boz,
Yourself their maws to fill;
Just "Marryat" or "Trollope," Boz,
Within your pocket hem—
For blow me if I ever thinks
They'll ever swallow them!

NEGROES WANTED.

We wish to purchase at all times any number of NEGROES, of both sexes, either slaves for life or for a term of years, of good titles, and sound and healthy. Our residence is nearly opposite the Brick Tavern, where we have fitted up a place for the safe keeping of negroes, and where every attention will be paid to render them comfortable, at twenty-five cents each per day, and will pay a fair cash price for any negro that may escape—We have the money and will at all times pay in cash the very highest prices for every description of negroes with good titles. Persons having negroes to dispose of, and who want the very highest prices the Southern markets will justify, will please give us a call We will also go to the country and take up negroes free of charge to their owners, if we buy them. DELAWARE FEMALE SEMINARY,

DELAWARE.

THIS institution, now conducted by the Rev. Nathaniel Bell, will on the first Wednesday of November next be transferred to the care of the subscriber who will continue to pursue the course of instruction, plan of discipline and general management which has been universally approved in Female Seminary under his direction. And while excellence in every department will be aimed at in order to bring a good education within the means of persons in moderate circumstances, the charges will be unusually low.

Music will receive more than ordinary attention. The principles of the science will be thoroughly taught by familiar lectures accompanied by suitable illustrations and regularly progressive exercises; while great care will be taken to form an accurate and effective style of performance.

The French, Spanish, and Italian languages will be taught by the Professor of modern languages in Newark College; and the subscriber will be enabled to avail himself of the advice and assistance of the present experienced principal of the Seminary.

TERMS—Tuition in the English branches and vocal music, board, fuel, washing, lights, &c. per session of 22 weeks. $60

Extra charges to those who pursue the following studies—Ancient and Modern languages each per quarter, $5. Music on the piano, with the use of the best instruction books and the most appropriate and fashionable music, per quarter, $8. Use of instruments, $2. Small extra charges also for Wax Flowers, Needlework, &c

Books and Stationery will be furnished at a rate below the ordinary retail prices; or pupils who prefer it will be supplied with all necessary stationery and the use of the text books for the first quarter, and $1 for each succeeding quarter, making the whole necessary expenses for a year's education in this Seminary only $125.

Further information may be obtained and places secured, by addressing the subscriber at Newark.

Newark College and the superior Academy connected with it, will be very convenient for parents having children of both sexes to educate.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr Thomas D Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del., an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience at every examination.

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

Mamma Kitty's SALVE,

NOW FOR THE FIRST TIME OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

The great efficacy of this salve have been known among the friends of the now proprietor two upwards of fifty years, and was introduced by a worthy and benevolent old German lady who was for many years known to the city of Baltimore by the name of Mamma Kitty, from whom the slave took its name. Mamma Kitty came to this country about sixty years ago with a German physician who settled in the city of Philadelphia under whose direction she made this salve, and used it with great success. Afterwards she moved to Baltimore, and lived as a nurse in the family of the late Lewis Pascault, Esq. and continued to use her salve in that family and among her friends until her death, previously giving to the now proprietor, the receipe of the preparation together with some of her salve, which has only been used in his family and among his friends until this time. But having found a great demand for it at home and abroad, and through the earnest solicitation of physicians and friends, we are now induced to offer it to the public.

The above salve is confidently recommended in all cases of old unhealthy sores and ulcers See the accompanying recommendations.

DR CHATARD'S CERTIFICATE.

Dear Madam:—I was well acquainted with Mamma Kitty—she was a benevolent old woman, who more than once related to me the wonderful cures operated by her salve—And I believe she was incapable of telling an untruth. I can certify (so far) by the good effect that salve has produced in my own family, that it is an excellent composition. And the best proof I can give you of my faith in its curative power, is to desire you to send me five boxes of it for the cash here enclosed, $5.

Very respectfully,
Your most ob't serv't.
P. CHATARD, M. D.

Baltimore, May 2d, 1841.

DR. S. T. RUSSUM'S CERTIFICATE.

I have for fourteen years past been intimate and the family physician, in Mr L. C. Pascault's family, and have frequently had the opportunity to observe the good effects of a salve made by Mrs Pascault, (called Mamma Kitty's salve) and do not hesitate to say, that it is an excellent digestive preparation, and is worthy the attention of medical men as well as others, in all cases of sanious sores or indolent ulcers

SYDENHAM T RUSSUM, M. D.
Wye Mills, 2d June 1841.

MRS PASCAULT.—Madam—This is to certify, that I was bitten by a dog on my ancle the third day of January, 1837, and was attended by three eminent physicians until August, 1839, and made use of a variety of popular applications, all of which failed in giving relief. When I heard of Mamma Kitty's salve I procured some from you, and in seven weeks from the time I commenced using it, my leg was healed over; the sore extended from the end of my toes nearly to my hip, and was swollen to three times its natural size, and I expected it would have to be cut off—indeed the Doctors thought so. I am now seventy years old, and my leg feels as well as ever it did. My faith was so great in the healing qualities of your salve, that one of my family had a tame film, and her child a tetter worm on its head—they applied the salve, which made a perfect cure. One of my grand children has had very sore eyes from its birth—I anointed them with the salve, and it has entirely taken the inflammation out.

Yours, with respect,
MARY LEWIS

Kent Island, March 20th, 1841.

DEAR MADAM—According to your request I have examined the certificate of Mrs Lewis, and believe the facts stated by her as regards herself to be perfectly correct. I saw her leg frequently before the use of your salve and several times since and can certify it has made a perfect cure. So far as I have had an opportunity of witnessing the effects of your salve, I believe it to be good, and entitled to the attention of the public.

SAMUEL HARPER, M. D.

March 24th, 1841.

DEAR MADAM—Do me the favor to accept my sincere thanks for the present you kindly made me of your valuable salve I am happy to state that it has made an entire cure of my servant, who laboured for several years with a scrofula affection which baffled all the skill of the physicians that attended him. The disease was so severe that he lost several pieces of bone from his ancle and was entirely disabled from labour. I have used it in several cases in my family for burns, swellings, inflammation, &c &c. Let me again entreat you not to withhold so valuable a treasure from the public, for I candidly believe it has not its equal. Yours, very respectfully.

CHARLES LEWIS.

DRS DRESBACH KUHN & PRYOR'S DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE RHEUMATISM &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is further from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all It is adapted to [illegible] which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention.

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion it soothes and tranquillizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces clearness of spirits with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy.

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chronic dysentary, diarrhea or purging, sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints. Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility; languor depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co Md, May 9, 1840

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insipient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved

Yours respectfully
THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed

Drs. Dresbach Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

THOS. BARTHOLOW

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840.

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Clarksburg, Montg. Co. Nov 20, 1840.

Mr. C Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits.

WM. WILSON of Jno.

From the Rev. Leonard S Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
