On motion, by John V. L. McMahon, Esquire Richard R. Battle Esquire of Baltimore City was admitted as an attorney of this Court.—

Ordered, That Oliver Miller, Esquire be and he is hereby appointed Reporter of the decisions of this Court from and after the first day of April 1853.—

Ordered, That the Court will take a recess until Tuesday the 19th day of April next.—

The Hon. John Nelson, of the City of Baltimore, in behalf of the members of the Bar presented to the Court the following proceedings, in commemoration of the distinguished services and character of the Hon. Wm. R. King late Vice President of the United States, which the Court ordered to be recorded among the proceedings of this Court, and that the Court do now adjourn until to-morrow at Ten o'clock, which was accordingly done.—

Mr Nelson in presenting the proceedings addressed to the Court a brief but just tribute to the private and public worth of the illustrious deceased, which was appropriately responded to by Chief Justice Le Grand, who fully concurred in the sentiments of the distinguished gentleman.—

Whereas intelligence has been received of the death of the Hon Wm. R. King Vice President of the United States, and it is due, as well to his distinguished public position, as to the ability and purity which were his eminent characteristics, that his memory should receive every testimonial of natural respect and gratitude.

Therefore be it Resolved, by the Bar of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, for themselves and their professional brethren throughout the State:

That by the death of the late Honorable William R. King, Vice President of the United States, the Nation has been deprived, under the most melancholy circumstances, of one of its most justly honored statesmen; one whose talents and virtues have given lustre to the proudest of the high stations, in which the confidence of his countrymen has so often placed him.—

Resolved, That the members of this meeting will wear the usual badge of mourning and that these proceedings be presented to the Court with request that they be made a portion of its minutes, as a just tribute to a faithful, irreproachable and able public servant.—

Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the President and Secretary and be published in the daily papers.—

S. Teackle Wallis, Secretary— "Charles F. Mayer, President."

On motion Patrick McLaughlin, Esquire of Baltimore was admitted as an attorney of this Court.—
