EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, March 26

Caroline County Court, adjourned on Wednesday last. In the case of Roberts for the murder of Cox, the verdict was murder in the second degree, and the sentence 15 years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

BALTIMORE MAYORALTY.—The Whig Convention on Wednesday 23d inst., met and nominated Gen Sheppard C. Leakin, as their candidate for the Mayoralty. They could not have selected a better man.

We have been requested to give notice that Vincent Schmidt, Esq., intends to be in Easton next week, and to say that an opportunity will then be afforded to those who may require his services in this way, of having their pianos tuned. Those who may wish to avail themselves of this opportunity will please leave their names at this office on Monday or Tuesday next.

LOUISIANA SENATOR.—Charles M. Conrad, whig, has been elected by the Legislature of Louisiana, a Senator in Congress in place of Mr. Mouton.

MR. CRITTENDEN'S ELECTION.

The circumstances under which Mr. Crittenden, the ex-Attorney General of the United States, was lately elected a Senator of the United States to succeed Mr. Clay, (whose resignation takes effect on the last day of this month,) are so honorable to him, and show so fine a spirit among the Kentucky Legislators, that we take great pleasure in placing them before our readers.—Nat. Intel.

From the Kentucky Commonwealth, March 1.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.—On Friday last the Legislature proceeded, on joint ballot, to elect a Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Henry Clay. John J. Crittenden was elected without opposition. There being no opposing candidate, and the question being taken on agreeing to the nomination of Mr. Crittenden, the yeas and nays were called for; and it appeared that in the House of Representatives 91 voted for Mr. C., and in the Senate 29 In this election there was a degree of harmony and unanimity highly flattering to the distinguished gentleman who has been elected by the State of Kentucky as the immediate successor of Henry Clay. The pride of the State seemed to have been awakened, and some of the leading members of the Democratic party sustained the nomination with a zeal worthy of patriots, and unapproachable by mere partisans. We allude particularly to the course of Col. Johnson, of Scott, and Mr. Nuttall, of Henry. The latter gentleman expressed the wish that the call for the yeas and nays might be withdrawn, in order that it might go forth to the world that Mr. Crittenden was the unanimous choice of his native State.

RESUMPTION IN DELAWARE.—The Philadelphia North American of Monday morning says,—We have been requested to state officially that the following banks in the State of Delaware will resume specie payments THIS DAY on all their liabilities:

Bank of Delaware, at Wilmington.
Farmer's Bank of Delaware do.
Union Bank of Delaware do.
Wilmington and Brandywine Bank do.

The notes of the Farmers' Bank at Dover, and the Bank at Smyrna, are received on deposite at the Southwark Bank in Philadelphia.

RESUMPTION IN NEW JERSEY AND DELAWARE.—All the Banks of New Jersey and Delaware have resumed specie payments, so that we now have specie paying banks from Baltimore to Boston, including all the Northern and Eastern States.

The City Councils of Baltimore have repealed a resolution of February last, authorising the reception of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Orders for dues to the city. Therefore, rail road orders have, so far as the corporation is concerned, ceased to be a currency.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELLERS.—The Baltimore Patriot says:—"We understand from good authority, that hereafter no funds will be received for passage or transportation on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, or the Washington Branch thereof, except money current in Baltimore, or, funds not at par, at their market value. This measure is indispensably called for by a due regard to the interests of the stockholders in the company."

NEW ORLEANS.—The New Orleans Advertiser of 13th inst. says:—That Edward Yorke, President of the Exchange Bank and sole proprietor of the Merchants' Bank of New Orleans, had fled from that city. The same paper states Mr. Richard Brennan, Cashier of the Exchange Bank, and Mr. Simon O'Callaghan, Paying Teller of the Atchafalaya Bank, had also disappeared.

In the Pennsylvania House of Representatives on Friday last, Mr. Stevens offered a resolution to repeal all laws relative to fugitive slaves. He has been induced to this course, we suppose, by the decision of the supreme court, deciding these laws to be unconstitutional.

ANNUAL METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Baltimore, Monday, March 21st, 1842.

The session commenced this morning at the usual hour, and for a short time, some of the ordinary business before that body was proceeded with. A motion to resume the examination of character prevailed; however, at an early hour, and from that time till the hour of adjournment, the conference was conducted with closed doors.

THE U. S. BANK CONSPIRACY.—The cases of Messrs. Biddle, Cowperthwaite and Andrews, came up for consideration on Friday before the Court of General sessions, Philadelphia. The Enquirer states that the writs were dismissed, and the parties held to bail in the sum of $10,000 each. Other writs, however, were immediately taken out, with the sanction of the Court of General Sessions, and a hearing will take place on next Monday week. It is understood that in the mean time, bills will be sent to the Grand Jury.

COLLEGE BURNED.

The New Orleans papers received this morning advise us that the Jefferson College, erected by the State of Louisiana was consumed on the afternoon of the 6th inst. The New Orleans Bee says:

The building was discovered to be on fire about two o'clock, p. m. and the flames raged with such fury, than in less than two hours nothing remained but a heap of ruins. But few articles of value, we fear, have been saved from the conflagration. We are happy to learn, however that no lives were lost. The College contained a fine library with 7,000 volumes, which have cost $8,710; a chemical laboratory worth $1 600; mathematical instruments, and a large quantity of other furniture. The total cost of the building and furniture, according to the last report of the trustees, is $152 398 13. The building was insured for $62,000.

EXTENSIVE CONFLAGRATION.

At Columbus, Georgia, on the night of the 15th. inst. a fire broke out in the frame building occupied as a store by Messrs. Rousseau & Choate. Despite of the desperate means employed to confine the devouring elements to the building in which it originated—that of blowing up the adjoining buildings—the flames spread with almost incredible swiftness, and were only extinguished after property to the amount of $100,000 had been consumed. The principal sufferers as far as could be ascertained are

Col. S. Jones' buildings, worth		6 to $7000
Mr Ayers',	" blown up	1 to 2 000
Mr. Hargraves'	"	6 to 8 000
" Locke's	"	1 to 2,000
" Amos,	"	2 to 3 000
" Croichton's	" and stock,	4 to 5,000
" Sherwood,	" blown up,	1 to 2,000
Wells & Hudgins	" and goods	10,000
McGough & Drews	goods,	6 to 8,000
Moore & Hodges,	"	1 to 2,000
Estes & Illgis	"	4 to 5.000
Mr. Abbott	"	2 to 3.000
Rousseau & Choate	" and books	10,000
Boswell & Billing	"	6000
Mulford & Adams	"	6 or 8,000

Some few of the above were insured partially, and one or two of them entirely.

The Columbus Enquirer of the 16th inst. says—

The streets are covered with goods, wares & merchandise removed during the fire, and our city presents, this morning, a sad and gloomy aspect.

No one is able to give any information as to the origin of the fire. The occupants of the house where it originated are very confident that it must have been communicated designedly as they were in the store until 8 at night, and had no other fire than a simple candle, which was carefully put out before they left the store.

Several persons were more or less injured in the blowing up of the buildings. The only very serious injury however, was that sustained by G. R. Hurlburt, Esq. Professor of Music. In his daring attempt to blow up the brick Drug store he was caught in the ruins and escaped narrowly with his life. We understand his thigh was badly fractured.—He was conveyed from the scene in great agony of pain.

The Nicholson Affair—Arrest of the Robbers.—The exertions of the vigilant firm of Hays, Zell, and Ridgely have brought to light the whole of the actors in this lamentable transaction. Upon information communicated by a man named Francis Dolphin, alias Kauffman, (who, though not engaged in the robbery, was made privy to it; and received a portion of the money.) three others were arrested named William Hines, John Purper, and John Stinson. Upon learning that Dolphin was about to make a disclosure, the fears of the law, and probably some knawings of conscience, induced Hines to make a full confession; from which it appears that he himself was the principle in the affair, and the man who struck the blow, felling Nicholson to the earth. About three thousand dollars of the money has been recovered, and much more will probably be obtained.

By this confession, Hines has become State's evidence, and although the most criminal, will thus escape the penalty of the law. The whole of them have been committed for further examination.—They are part of a gang of desperadoes, who have for some time, infested the grogeries near the Southern extremeties of Howard street.

LAND FOR SALE.

I would sell a farm in Miles River Neck, beautifully situated on the water, containing 200 acres—the improvements are a one story framed house and kitchen, &c.

If a smaller farm should be preferred, I would sell one situated in the Bayside, about two miles below St. Michaels, immediately on the waters of Miles River, containing 100 acres—the improvements, are a one story framed dwelling and kitchen.

Either of these farms would be sold on fair terms. It is deemed unnecessary for me to describe particularly the susceptibility of these lands for improvement, as I presume no person would purchase, without examining for themselves, which they can do by applying to Mr. Dean, the tenant on the one in Miles River Neck and to Mr. James Denny, living on the one in the Bayside—for particulars as the terms, apply to
