Received the day of the date of this Indenture of and from the within named John Anderson five shillings current money, in full of the consideration money within mentioned.
Witness - Thos Elliott. John Hammond.

Baltimore County, to wit, On the fourth day of March 1795, before us the subscribers two of the justices of the peace for the County aforesaid, came the within named John Hammond and John Anderson, and severally acknowledged the within indenture or instrument of writing to be their respective act and deed, according to the true intent and meaning thereof. Acknowledged before. Thos Elliott,
John O'Donnell.

Received to be recorded the 8th day of April, 1795. Same day recorded and examined, per. W. Gibson, Clk.

In testimony that the aforegoing is a true copy, taken from Liber W.G. No. R.R. folio 93, &c., one of the land records of Baltimore County, I hereto set my hand, and affix the seal of Baltimore County Court, on this 12th day of January 1843.
(Seal of Peace) Thos Kell Clk.

And also proved that John Hammond intermarried with the plaintiff in this case soon after the execution of the said last mentioned deed, that she was the sister of said John Anderson; that John Anderson died about the year 1805, and John Hammond soon after him. The plaintiff further offered in evidence the permission to John Hammond, of the Baltimore Port Wardens, to extend his ground to the south side of Alice Anna street, dated 11th September, 1784, also the patent of of Todd's Range, 1st June 1700.

At a meeting of the Baltimore Port Wardens, Baltimore September 11th 1784.
Present - Samuel Purviance, President. Thos Russell,
John Stoorett, Daniel Bowly,
Sam. Smith, William Patterson,
Thos Eliot, Robert Henderson.
Richard Ridgely,

The Board took into consideration the application of John Hammond, and thereupon ordered that John Hammond shall be permitted to extend his wharf in a south direction, parallel with Lee Line street to the south side of Alliciana street extended, he, the said John Hammond, engaging to leave the width of Alliciana street open for ever hereafter as a public highway.

City Register's Office, Baltimore March 25th, 1843 - I hereby certify that the above is a true extract from the proceedings of the Port Wardens, on file in this office.
(Seal of Peace) Jesse Hunt, Reg'r.

James Todd - Patent 510 acres - Todd's Range.

Charles, Absolute Lord and Proprietary of the Province of Maryland and Avalon, Lord Baron of Baltimore, &c. To all persons to whom these presents shall come, greeting, in our Lord God Everlasting: Know ye, that whereas, James Todd of Baltimore County, in our said Province of Maryland, has by his humble petition presented to our deputy for management of our land affairs, set forth that he is seized in fee simple of and in a certain tract of land in the said County, called Lole's Harbour, originally granted to one Thos Lole, about the year one thousand six hundred and eight, for five hundred and fifty acres, and that in the said survey there are divers uncertainties, for want of expressing the number of ps in some of the courses, therefore, he prayed that he might have a special warrant to resurvey the said tract, with power to take in such surplus as upon such survey should be found to be within the real bounds of the same, and to bring the number of perches in each course to a certainty which was granted him, by virtue of which warrant there is a certificate of resurvey returned into our Land Office, ascertaining the number of ps contained in each course, pursuant to which he prayed he might have our letters patent, which was granted him. We do therefore hereby grant unto him the said James Todd, all that tract or parcel of land heretofore called by the name of Lole's Harbour, but now called Todd's Range, "beginning at a bounded white oak, standing in the line of a parcel of land, formerly belonging to Alexander Mountenay, and now in the possession of the aforesaid Todd, and running west to a bounded red oak, standing by a small branch called the Spring Branch, then more west seventy-five perches, to a double white oak, in all containing three hundred and seventy ps, thence north north-east, two hundred seventy five perches to a red oak, being a bounded tree of the aforesaid Mountnay's Land, and then south south west with the said Mountnay's line to the first bounded tree, containing and now laid out for five hundred and ten acres, more or less, according to the certificate of survey thereof taken and returned into our Land Office, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, one thousand six hundred ninety eight, and there remaining together with all rights, profits, benefits and privileges thereunto belonging, (Royal Mines excepted.) To have and to hold the same unto him, the said James Todd, his heirs and assigns forever, and to be holden of us and our heirs, as of our Manor of Baltimore, in free and common soccage by fealty only, for all manner of services, yielding and paying therefore yearly, unto us and our heirs, at our receipt at the City of Sinbellhry's, at the two most usual feasts in the year, viz: the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of St. Michael the Archangel, by even and equal portions, the rent of ten shillings and two pence, half penny sterling in silver or gold, and for a fine upon every alienation of the said land or any part or parcel thereof one whole year's rent in silver or gold or the full value thereof, in such commodities as we and our heirs, or such officer or officers as shall be appointed by us and our heirs, from time to time to collect and receive the same, shall accept in discharge thereof, at the choice of us and our heirs, or such officer or officers aforesaid; provided, that if the said sum for a fine for alienation shall not be paid to us and our heirs, or such officer or officers as aforesaid, before such alienation, the said alienation entered upon record either in the Provincial Court or in the County Court where the same parcel of land lyeth, within one month next after such alienation, the said alienation shall be void and of no effect. Given under our greater seal at arms, the first day of June, one thousand seven hundred. Witness our trusty and well beloved Colle Henry Darnall, Keeper of our said greater seal in our said Province of Maryland.

In testimony that the foregoing is a true copy from Liber I.D.B. No. 4 folio 307, one of records belonging to and remaining in the Western Shore Land Office of Maryland, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 10th day of October 1840.
(Seal of Peace) George G. Brewer, Reg'r Land Off. W.S. Md.

Which recites that at that time James Todd was in possession of Mountenay's Neck at that time.

Also offered a record of a judgment in ejectment in the Provincial Court, of Youkley and Company's agent, lessee vs. John Hurst, April session 1705; and also offered in evidence a certified extract from the debt books:

Youkley and Company agent's Lessee vs. John Hurst, April Court 1705.